Once a Pony Time June Markham, 2015-12-12. She had come full circle since that September morning when, as a dirty, frightened five-year-old child, she had hesitantly entered the two-story school building through those heavy green doors. Follow Maggie as she struggles to find the answer to the haunting question: How many times can a person have her hopes dashed until hope lies down and dies? So what do you think? With God on our side, how can we lose? If God didn't hesitate to put everything on the line for us, embracing our condition and exposing Himself to the worst by sending His own Son, is there anything else He wouldn't gladly and freely do for us? And who would dare tangle with God by messing with one of God's chosen? Who would even dare to point a finger? The One Who died for us, Who was raised to life for us, is in the presence of God at this very moment, sticking up for us. Do you think anyone is going to be able to drive a wedge between us and Christ's love for us? There is no way. Not trouble, not hard times, not hatred, not hunger, not homelessness, not bullying threats, not backstabbing, not even the worst sins listed in scripture. None of this fazes us because Jesus loves us. Nothing, absolutely nothing, can get between us and God's Love. Romans 8:31-39. The Message.

Just Call Me Maggie Marjorie Page, 2009-08. Just Call Me Maggie is a prairie tale set in the city of Winnipeg and the fictional settlement of MacNabb's Crossing, located somewhere in south-western Manitoba. It is 1978. Maggie Barnett is a successful lawyer, a high achiever in a prestigious firm in Winnipeg. She is single but has a steady boyfriend. She is well-off financially but weary of travelling for her job. She does not remember her childhood. She is obsessed with the time of day, the day of the week, the food she consumes, professionalism, and the clothes that she wears. A former schoolmate seeks her professional help when her husband, of eleven years, abruptly walks out. Maggie and Sandy MacNair have not seen each other since Sandy's wedding. The sudden appearance of her school mate awakens Maggie's dormant memories of life on her parents' farm, and suddenly Maggie's well-

Rainy River Lives Maggie Wilson,2009-05-01 Rainy River Lives is the long lost collection of stories of Ojibwe men and women as told by a hitherto unpublished traditional Ojibwe storyteller Maggie Wilson 1879 1940 Wilson lived on the Manitou Rapids Reserve on the Rainy River which flows along the Ontario Minnesota border When anthropologist Ruth Landes arrived at Rainy River to conduct her doctoral research in 1932 Wilson often worked with the young scholar telling her many stories Their relationship continued after Landes returned to Columbia University During the following decades however the letters and stories Wilson had sent Landes which Landes had carefully collected were lost Only recently were they discovered in the basement of the Smithsonian Institution where they had been misfiled with papers of another anthropologist This rich set of narratives takes us inside the intimate world of Ojibwe families at the turn of the twentieth century a time of great upheaval when the Ojibwes were being relocated onto reserves and required by the government to abandon their seasonal migrations and subsistence activities These remarkably detailed stories of ordinary Native people precisely through their everyday character reveal much about Ojibwe cultural beliefs and paint a nuanced ethnographic portrait of Ojibwe life In the distinctive voice of an exceptional and highly creative individual the stories address both the culturally specific world of the Ojibwes and universal human themes of love loss and perseverance

Historicism and the Human Sciences in Victorian Britain Mark Bevir,2017-03-10 Historicism and the Human Sciences in Victorian Britain explores the rise and nature of historicist thinking about such varied topics as life race character literature language economics empire and law The contributors show that the Victorians typically understood life and society as developing historically in a way that made history central to their intellectual inquiries and their public culture Although their historicist ideas drew on some Enlightenment themes they drew at least as much on organic ideas and metaphors in ways that lent them a developmental character This developmental historicism flourished alongside evolutionary motifs and romantic ideas of the self The human sciences were approached through narratives and often narratives of reason and progress Life individuals society government and literature all unfolded gradually in accord with underlying principles such as those of rationality nationhood and liberty This book will appeal to those interested in Victorian Britain historiography and intellectual history

The Precocious Child in Victorian

Literature and Culture Roisín Laing, 2024-05-06 This book examines representations of precocity in Victorian textual culture canonical literature children's fiction scientific texts and writing by children to argue that precocity challenges the idea of progress It considers how practitioners of literature and science from Wordsworth to Freud represented human development and the way in which Darwin's non progressive model of evolution troubled the existing model of progression by stages from childhood inexperience to adult maturity and understanding Roisín Laing argues that the precocious child undermines the equation of growth with progress and thereby facilitates other ways of imagining both individual and species development The idea represented by the precocious child in Victorian culture that the adult is not necessarily an improvement on the child the human not necessarily an improvement on the ape still troubles us today The sunbeam story book, the 'Golden childhood' vol. for Christmas, 1879 Golden childhood, 1879

Cycle of Lives David Richman, 2020-10-06 Have you ever been forced to consider the fact of your mortality If confronted with cancer how would you feel What would you say to the people you love What would they say to you No two people have the same answers to these questions a lesson I learned well during a solo six week 5 000 mile cross country bike ride I called Cycle of Lives The trip started as a fundraiser in honor of my sister June who died of brain cancer But long before I even set out on my endurance ride from L A to Florida to N Y I exhaustively interviewed fifteen people across the country whose lives had also been irrevocably changed by cancer either as patients survivors loved ones or caregivers Hearing their moving stories which were influenced by many different forms of past and present trauma transformed my cycling odyssey into a journey of emotional self discovery as I relived the chaos and emotional upheaval of cancer through them from the man who found true love after losing his soulmate to cancer to the elite athlete who had to reckon with his all star body finally letting him down to the medical oncologist who cares as much about her patients as she cares for them Whether you or someone you care about is going through cancer or some other major trauma I hope this thought provoking collection of astonishing stories can help you too Far from the Land J. Rice Thomas J. Rice, Thomas J. Rice, 2009-12 The setting is rural Ireland in the 1950s Thomas Rice has written a riveting memoir about a way of life that no longer exists no running water no toilets no electricity and little access to education jobs or basic health care Early on we are drawn into a culture with a recent memory of famines a culture still showing the scars from the homestead ruins that pockmark the landscape to the ghost towns and villages that never recovered from The Great Hunger of the 1840s Harper's Weekly John Bonner, George William Curtis, Henry Mills Alden, Samuel Stillman Conant, Montgomery Schuyler, John Foord, Richard Harding Davis, Carl Schurz, Henry Loomis Nelson, John Kendrick Bangs, George Brinton McClellan Harvey, Norman Hapgood, 1895
