One Nicole Mastrianni,2015-12-01 You can be who you want not what they tell you This isn't all about you Common Ground in First Language and Intercultural Interaction Istvan Kecskes,2023-03-06 In recent years the traditional approach to common ground as a body of information shared between participants of a communicative process has been challenged Taking into account not only L1 but also intercultural interactions and attempting to bring together the traditional view with the egocentrism based view of cognitive psychologists it has been argued that construction of common ground is a dynamic emergent process It is the convergence of the mental representation of shared knowledge that we activate assumed mutual knowledge that we seek and rapport as well as knowledge that we co construct in the communicative process This dynamic understanding of common ground has been applied in many research projects addressing both L1 and intercultural interactions in recent years As a result several new elements aspects and interpretations of common ground have been identified Some researchers came to view common ground as one component in a complex contextual information structure Others analyzing intercultural interactions pointed out the dynamism of the interplay of core common ground and emergent common ground The book brings together researchers from different angles of pragmatics and communication to examine i what adjustments to the notion of common ground based on L1 communication should be made in the light of research in intercultural communication ii what the relationship is between context situation and common ground and iii how relevant knowledge and content get selected for inclusion into core and emergent common ground *Mutterhirn. The Transatlantic Gaze Mary Ann McDonald Carolan, 2013-12-12 In The Transatlantic Gaze Mary Ann McDonald Carolan documents the sustained and profound artistic impact of Italian directors actors and screenwriters on American film Working across a variety of genres including neorealism comedy the Western and the art film Carolan explores how and why American directors from Woody Allen to Quentin Tarantino have adapted certain Italian trademark techniques and motifs Allen's To Rome with Love 2012 for example is an homage to the genius of Italian filmmakers and to Federico Fellini in particular whose Lo sceicco bianco The White Sheik 1952 also resonates with Allen's The Purple Rose of Cairo 1985 as well as with Neil LaBute's Nurse Betty 2000 Tarantino's Kill Bill saga 2003 2004 plays off elements of Sergio Leone's spaghetti Western C'era una volta il West Once Upon a Time in the West 1968 a transatlantic conversation about the Western that continues in Tarantino's Oscar winning Django Unchained 2012 Lee Daniels's Precious 2009 and Spike Lee's Miracle at St Anna 2008 meanwhile demonstrate that the neorealism of Roberto Rossellini and Vittorio De Sica which arose from the political and economic exigencies of postwar Italy is an effective vehicle for critiquing social issues such as poverty and racism in a contemporary American context The book concludes with an examination of American remakes of popular Italian films a comparison that offers insight into the similarities and differences between the two cultures and the transformations in genre both subtle and obvious that underlie this form of cross cultural exchange
