One Good Turn And Other Stories:

One Good Turn Witold Rybczynski, 2013-07-23 The Best Tool of the Millennium The seeds of Rybczynski's elegant and illuminating new book were sown by The New York Times whose editors asked him to write an essay identifying the best tool of the millennium The award winning author of Home A Clearing in the Distance and Now I Sit Me Down Rybczynski once built a house using only hand tools His intimate knowledge of the toolbox both its contents and its history serves him beautifully on his quest One Good Turn is a story starring Archimedes who invented the water screw and introduced the helix and Leonardo who sketched a machine for carving wood screws It is a story of mechanical discovery and genius that takes readers from ancient Greece to car design in the age of American industry Rybczynski writes an ode to the screw without which there would be no telescope no microscope in short no enlightenment science One of our finest cultural and architectural historians Rybczynski renders a graceful original and engaging portrait of the tool that changed the course of civilization

Une vie and other stories Guy de Maupassant, 2023-11-10 Une Vie is a novel written by the French author Guy de Maupassant It was first published in 1883 and is one of Maupassant's most well known works The English translation of the title is A Life The novel follows the life of Jeanne de Lamare a young woman from a noble family in Normandy from her youth to old age It explores the challenges joys and disappointments she experiences throughout her life providing a detailed portrayal of French society during the 19th century In addition to Une Vie Guy de Maupassant wrote numerous short stories that showcase his mastery of the form His stories often depict the complexities of human nature relationships and the influence of social and economic factors on individuals The collection Une Vie and Other Stories likely includes a selection of Maupassant's short stories in addition to the titular novel Une Vie His short stories are celebrated for their keen observations of human behavior and the vivid depiction of life in 19th century France

The Queen of Spades and Other Stories Alexander Pushkin, 2009-01-29 The Queen of Spades has long been acknowledged as one of the world's greatest short stories In this classic literary representation of gambling Alexander Pushkin explores the nature of obsession Hints of the occult and gothic alternate with scenes of St Petersburg high society in the story of the passionate Hermann's quest to master chance and make his fortune at the card table Underlying the taut plot is an ironical treatment of the romantic dreamer and social outcast This volume contains three other major works of Pushkin's fiction moving from the witty parodies of sentimentalism and high melodrama in The Tales of Belkin to an early experiment with recreating the past in Peter the Great's Blackamoor It concludes with the novel length masterpiece The Captain's Daughter which combines historical fiction in the manner of Sir Walter Scott with the colour and devices of the Russian fairy tale in a narrative of rebellion and romance These new translations as well as being meticulously faithful to the original do full justice to the elegance and fluency of Pushkin's prose The Introduction provides insightful readings of the stories and places them in their European literary context A chronology of the Pugachov Uprising illuminates the events in The Captain's Daughter

The Raid of The Guerilla, and Other Stories Mary Noailles Murfree, 2022-07-31 In The Raid of The Guerilla and Other Stories, Mary Noailles Murfree presents a compelling tapestry of narratives that delve into the complexities of human experience against the backdrop of the American South. Murfree, with her characteristic regional realism, invites readers into vividly depicted landscapes and the intimate lives of her characters, often focusing on the cultural and societal intricacies of the post-Civil War era. The prose, marked by its eloquence and precision, is steeped in the literary context of the 19th-century tradition of local color writing, providing a rich exploration of regional identity through its nuanced storytelling. As a prominent female author of her time, Mary Noailles Murfree, who often published under the pseudonym Charles Egbert Craddock, carved out a distinct niche in American literature. Murfree's extensive knowledge of the Southern highlands and her first-hand experiences living in Tennessee imbue her narratives with authenticity and a profound sense of place. The personal and cultural insights found within her works reflect a deep dedication to voicing the untold stories of rural mountain communities, laying bare their struggles, resilience, and the haunting beauty of their environs. Murfree's collection is an essential read for those who appreciate the intricacies of short fiction and the interplay between setting and character. Scholars and enthusiasts of Southern literature will find The Raid of The Guerilla and Other Stories to be a meaningful addition to their library, offering a discerning look into the heart of America's regional past. Through Murfree's masterful storytelling, each story stands as an evocative piece, encouraging readers to explore the depths of human emotion and the enduring spirit of a region that has shaped the contours of American cultural legacy.

Stories Denny Davis, 2024-11-08 A short story or two with a cup of tea is an ideal way to relax and escape from the cares of the world. None of the stories in this book are overlong and all make for easy reading. The subjects are varied ranging from ghost stories to little slices of life with at least one drawn from the author's own experience. He hopes the reader derives as much pleasure from reading them as he did from writing them. The Women who Ate Python and Other Stories Sammy Oke Akombi, 2008 A collection of six thought provoking stories four of which were award winning stories at the 1990 literary contest of the national Association of Cameroonian Poets and Writers APEC. The stories are set in different localities in Africa and Cameroon in particular. The author in a lucid manner explores the theme of women and the African way in the lead story. Ebe nye the protagonist representing the sharp witted African woman cannot understand why she should cook food without tasting of it. So she decides to take the bold step of eating a piece of the python that she has been ordered to cook for the men of her community. The other stories tackle themes of corruption poverty alcoholism endurance love and more. Boys' Life, 1935-03 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America. Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting. The Sacred Door and Other Stories Juliana Makuchi Abbenyi-Nfah, 2007-12-01 The Sacred Door and Other Stories Cameroon Folktales of the Beba offers readers a selection of folktales infused with riddles proverbs songs myths and legends using various narrative techniques that capture the vibrancy of Beba oral traditions. Makuchi retells the stories that she heard at home when she was growing up in her native Cameroon. The collection of thirty four folktales of the Beba showcases a wide variety of stories that capture the richness and complexities of an agrarian society's oral literature and traditions. Revenge greed and deception are among the themes that frame the story lines in both new and familiar ways. In the title story a poor man finds himself elevated to king. The condition for his continued success is that he not open the sacred door. This tale of temptation similar to the story of Pandora's box concludes with the question What would you have done. Makuchi relates the stories her mother told her so that readers can make connections between African and North American oral narrative traditions. These tales reinforce the commonalities of our human experiences without discounting our differences. The New York Times Book Reviews 2000 New York Times Staff, 2001 This anthology examines Love's Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials. Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations. Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play. An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource.
