Once a Retailer, Always a Retailer: Excuse Me, Not For Me!!! DR. EMILY CAPATI GADDI, 2021-11-29

Retailing is a very colorful industry Very flashy This book covers the History of Retailing and Corporate University that will lead you to the training and professional development of a well established retail organization Life in the Buying Office comes to grips with Retail Management as well as the importance of Customer Service Providing excellent customer service is a culture that each retailer must embrace I was able to snuggle the qualities of being a good retailer I know what goes appropriately with what The professional development of the New York City retailing is always enormous because most of their corporate headquarters are in the metropolis There's always opportunities to grow and learn with the fast paced environment The fashion district is on the seventh avenue in Manhattan Everyone is there and you need to be aggressive in all aspects of doing business with these vendors and account executives It is definitely a different ball game in New York City as compared to the other metropolises in the country I feel bittersweet about this industry because it is such a competitive career If there's a felt need to kill each other we will kill each other for the sake of promotion I learned a lot from them especially when it comes to time management and conflict resolution I became very aggressive too and very colorful when it comes to dealing with different kinds of people from different walks of life

Making Public Enterprises Work William T. Muhairwe, 2009-11-15

Public enterprises remain the most dominant medium of service provision in both developing and developed countries During the 1990s and early 2000s the outcry about poor performance of public enterprises was overwhelming Nobody at that time and even now has managed to design a blue print solution And yet the fact that service provision through public enterprises is here to stay is the blunt truth In Making Public Enterprises Work From Despair to Promise A Turn Around Account Dr William Muhairwe the Managing Director of National Water and Sewerage Corporation of Uganda discusses the approaches used to turnaround an under performing state enterprise into a remarkable success story Drawing on decades of experience taming struggling institutions Dr Muhairwe enumerates practical steps taken to make a significant difference in service delivery for the benefit of any form of enterprise Combined with facts simplicity and fun this book presents a unique account of methods used for constructive engagement and dialogue with donors government officials workers suppliers and indeed the public customers All chapters are interspersed with tested lessons that any enterprise can benchmark to address its service delivery challenges It is a great handbook for those involved in re engineering their businesses Making Public Enterprises Work contains unique home grown turnaround reform steps that can help to revamp under performing enterprises It is the first book to demonstrate that performance contracts combined with incentives can work wonders in public enterprises The book discusses how incentive rewards can spread to all levels of staff and encourage wholesome teamwork It also looks at how enterprises can work without industrial unrest in very difficult conditions In addition the book demonstrates how public enterprises that have been listed for privatisation can provide alternative restructuring steps Click here to read and share material related to this title on the IWA WaterWiki
