Online Are African People Independent Imagination:

Cosmopolitanism in the Fictive Imagination of W. E. B. Du Bois Samuel O. Doku, 2015-12-03 This book traces W E B Du Bois's fictionalization of history in his five major works of fiction and in his debut short story The Souls of Black Folk through a thematic framework of cosmopolitanism In texts like The Negro and Black Folk Then and Now Du Bois argues that the human race originated from a single source a claim authenticated by anthropologists and the Human Genome Project This book breaks new ground by demonstrating the fashion in which the variants of cosmopolitanism become a profound theme in Du Bois's contribution to fiction In general cosmopolitanism claims that people belong to a single community informed by common moral values function through a shared economic nomenclature and are part of political systems grounded in mutual respect This book addresses Du Bois's works as important additions to the academy and makes a significant contribution to literature by first demonstrating the way in which fiction could be utilized in discussing historical accounts in order to reach a global audience The Coming of John The Quest of the Silver Fleece Dark Princess A Romance and The Black Flame an important trilogy published sequentially as The Ordeal of Mansart Mansart Builds a School and Worlds of Color are grounded in historical occurrences and administer as social histories providing commentary on Reconstruction Jim Crow segregation African American leadership school desegregation the Pan African movement imperialism and colonialism in Africa Asia and the Caribbean

Imaginative Culture and Human Nature: Evolutionary Perspectives on the Arts, Religion, and Ideology Joseph Carroll, John Anthony Johnson, Valerie van Mulukom, Emelie Jonsson, Rex Eugene Jung, 2022-10-11

Education, Creativity, and Economic Empowerment in Africa T. Falola, J. Abidogun, 2014-08-20 Education and the arts offer multiple mutually clarifying lenses through which to examine and understand issues of poverty and empowerment Here both are combined in a fascinating look at how these two often overlooked elements promote social equality and cultivate personal agency across Africa's diverse political economic landscapes

Dark Concrete Kimberley Johnson, 2025-12-15 Dark Concrete is about how the Black Power movement reshaped urban politics in the United States from expectations to practices Although the national and international dimensions of the Black Power movement are often focused on Kimberley Johnson looks at the movement at the local level highlighting Newark and East Orange New Jersey and Oakland and East Palo Alto California and three policy areas housing education and policing She examines how Black Power Urbanism had its own local meanings as it was defined by local activists neighborhood residents parents tenants and others who sought to repair cities and particularly black neighborhoods that were shattered due to urban renewal and highway construction as well as ongoing political and economic disinvestment Dark Concrete depicts how local conditions influenced the emergence of the Black Power movement and in turn the ways in which these local movements reshaped urban politics institutions and place

African Urban Creativity Lauren England, Estrella Sendra, 2025-09-18 The edited collection African Urban Creativity Exploring Creative Economies Within and Beyond the Cities seeks to contribute to understanding creative economies in Africa specifically the urban dynamics of creativity and the urbanisation of the creative economy In doing so it also acknowledges the role of the periphery and rural settings within their inputs and dialogic relation to the city The book contains six original contributions from academic researchers and creative practitioners bringing together a range of disciplinary perspectives and presenting case studies from across the continent Ghana Kenya Nigeria Senegal and South Africa The book is structured in two parts Part 1 explores different dynamics of urban culture identities and local development opportunities Part 2 focuses on the complex dialogue between cities and their peripheries or rural settings The editors conclusions reflect key themes of leadership social and cultural development and urban rural connectivity and present implications of policy and practice This text provides readers with empirical insights from Africa that can lead to more research debate and policy engagement on the sustainable development of creative economies in Africa This edited collection launches the new book series Routledge Focus on Creative Economies in Africa

Ethnographie, Kino und Interpretation - die performative Wende der Sozialwissenschaften Rainer Winter, Elisabeth Niederer, 2015-07-15

Norman K Denzin hat in den letzten Jahrzehnten entschieden dazu beigetragen dass sich unser Verständnis von qualitativer Forschung und auch von Soziologie erheblich verändert hat Zum einen hat er gezeigt dass erst eine Abwendung von post positivistischen Kriterien deutlich macht dass im Zentrum jeder Art von sozialwissenschaftlicher Forschung die Interpretation steht die gerade nicht formalisierbar ist sondern untersthetischen Perspektiven beschrieben werden kann Die Interpretation ist aber nicht nur eine Kunst sondern hat auch immer politische Implikationen Denzin dekonstruiert die Logiken traditioneller Sozialforschung und zeigt wie sie in interpretative Gemeinschaften eingebunden sind deren verborgene kulturelle Grundlagen er explizit macht Zum anderen demonstriert er wie mit qualitativen Methoden z B der interpretativen Biographieforschung oder der Performance Ethnographie nicht nur Gesellschaftskritik geübt werden kann sondern auch die Möglichkeit zum radikaldemokratischen Handeln eröffnet wird An die Stelle der traditionellen Soziologie soll so eine neue Sozialwissenschaft treten die sich ihrer ethischen Verantwortung bewusst ist Dieser Reader versammelt in deutscher Erstübersetzung die wichtigsten Texte von Norman K Denzin zur Begründung einer neuen qualitativen Sozialforschung so zur performativen Wende der Sozialwissenschaften zur Performance Ethnographie zum reflexiven Interview zur Geburt der Kinogesellschaft und zum Rassismus im zeitgenössischen Hollywood Kino

Independent Africa Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, 2023-07-18

Independent Africa explores Africa's political economy in the first two full decades of independence through the joint projects of nation building economic development and international relations Drawing on the political careers of four heads of states Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana Ahmed Sékou Touré of Guinea Léopold Sédar Senghor and Julius Kambarage Nyerere of Tanzania Independent Africa engages four major themes what does it mean to construct an African nation state and what should an African nation state look like how does one grow a tropical economy emerging from European colonialism how to explore an indigenous model of economic development a third way in the context of a Cold War that had divided the world into two camps and how to leverage internal resources and external opportunities to diversify agricultural economies and industrialize Combining aspects of history economics and political science Independent Africa examines the important connections between the first generation of African leaders and the shared ideas that informed their endeavors at nation building and worldmaking

Pan-African Aesthetics Lena Dallywater, 2025-11-17 Pan Africanism has been a global project aiming to unite people of African descent since the late nineteenth century Notions of Black and African arts and aesthetics have functioned as a bridge and brought positive identification across national ethnic or class divides even when rifts have appeared unbridgeable They were able to mediate Africanity positively both prior to and during the struggle for liberation and at times when the dream of a unified African nation died This study explores central aspects proponents and opponents of Pan African aesthetics and shows that conceptualizations of Black African and Afrocentric aesthetics form a kaleidoscope that is constantly changing Based on historical sources in depth reading and qualitative interviews the study illustrates what happened to the discussions in the postcolonial era The story of unfolds along the life paths and approaches of four intellectuals from Anglophone and Francophone Africa Their framings can tell us more about the underlying themes contestations and contradictions of emancipatory projects in the mid twentieth century and show us that the study of Pan Africanism is not yet exhausted neither is the history of the idea and the movement

Art, Creativity, and Politics in Africa and the Diaspora Abimbola Adelakun, Toyin Falola, 2018-07-26 This book explores the politics of artistic creativity examining how black artists in Africa and the diaspora create art as a procedure of self making Essays cross continents to uncover the efflorescence of black culture in national and global contexts and in literature film performance music and visual art Contributors place the concerns of black artists and their works within national and transnational conversations on anti black racism xenophobia ethnocentrism migration resettlement resistance and transnational feminisms Does art by the subaltern fulfill the liberatory potential that critics have ascribed to it What other possibilities does political art offer Together these essays sort through the aesthetics of daily life to build a thesis that reflects the desire of black artists and cultures to remake themselves and their world sustainable development mobility of artists and cultural professionals gender equality and artistic freedom Neocolonial Fictions of the Global Cold War Steven Belletto, Joseph Keith, 2019-06-03 Bringing together noted scholars in the fields of literary cultural gender and race studies this edited volume challenges us to reconsider our understanding of the Cold War revealing it to be a global phenomenon rather than just a binary conflict between U S and Soviet forces Shining a spotlight on writers from the war s numerous fronts and applying lenses of race gender and decolonization the essayists present several new angles from which to view the tense global showdown that lasted roughly a half century Ultimately they reframe the Cold War not merely as a divide between the Soviet Union and the United States but between nations rich and poor and mostly white and mostly not By emphasizing the global dimensions of the Cold War this innovative collection reveals emergent forms of post WWII empire that continue to shape our world today thereby raising the question of whether the Cold War has ever fully ended Critical Race Theory in the Academy Vernon Lee Farmer, Evelyn Shepherd W.

Farmer, 2020-09-01 Critical Race Theory in the Academy explores the deep implications of race and its effects on the expanse of the American social fabric and its fragile democratic process This volume contributes to a more effective powerful and insightful theorization of racism across the social spectrum while furthering the movement for greater equity in higher education and beyond The audience for this book is broad and should be of great interest and value to all Americans who fight against racism which is focused on the destruction of Black people and other people of color Ideally educators scholars and practitioners will be compelled to engage the ideas within this volume to break down the color line and challenge the problematic master narrative in education and other aspects of society Critical Race Theory in the Academy offers current applications debates theories strategies and evolutions about critical race theory CRT with particular attention to CRT s intersections with the field of higher education and beyond As a part of the CRT corpus this volume details some of the most relevant and current topics deployed in varied disciplines of the academy confronting the complex interplay of race racism education and social justice in the twenty first century Specifically the authors explore topics from health disparities politics religion literature music social work psychology sports distance learning media bias affirmative action to education policies practices and scholarship The chapters in this volume should help navigate the tensions in the academy and beyond to work toward alleviating institutionalized racism Praise for Critical Race Theory in the Academy The field of Critical Race Theory is enriched by this important collection of new and original scholarship Vernon Farmer has brought together a dynamic and eclectic mix of radical voices from multiple disciplinary backgrounds including both established and early career scholars The result is a volume that constantly challenges and surprises the reader David Gillborn Professor of Critical Race Studies University of Birmingham UK Founding Editor of Race Ethnicity Education Critical Race Theory in the Academy has excavated the terrain of critical race theory to unearth multiple perspectives that are central to defining the fundamental contours of the field Each essay enhances the ways in which we read and understand the complexity of critical race theory It will be an invaluable resource for building a critical academy Aileen Moreton Robinson Queens and University of Technology Australia Author of The White Possessive Property Power and Indigenous Sovereignty Vernon Lee Farmer has done it again and for the final time He has pulled together a star studded cast of academics of color to address an essential concern of the academy Throughout his career Farmer has demonstrated the uncanny ability to identify matters that require attention and attacked them with vigor In doing so he provided us with high impact resources that are beneficial to the professional trajectory of scholars of color This book is no different and we all should race to the bookstore to add this instant classic to our personal library Jerlando F L Jackson Vilas Distinguished Professor of Higher Education University of Wisconsin Madison Former Editor ASHE Reader Series on Higher Education Critical Race Theory in the Academy adds substantially to our understanding of the roles that race racism and social justice play as we tackle the myriad problems of pre K through higher education For those interested in gaining a deeper understanding of the issues in higher education from curriculum to the lack of diversity in the professoriate this work provides helpful insights that can enrich conversations and problem solving across sectors of society Freeman A Hrabowski III President University of Maryland Baltimore County Baltimore Maryland

Creativity David Gauntlett, 2022-10-14 This is a lively and thought provoking book about how to do creativity unlock your potential and make a difference The artists musicians and writers we think of as very creative are just like us except that they have spent time developing and realizing ideas and have found the confidence to share them with the world None of this comes naturally This wide ranging book offers research advice and philosophy to fuel your understanding and passion for creativity David Gauntlett draws on his own experiences of making music and experimenting with digital media alongside 25 years of researching creativity Including insights from a diverse array of creators the book highlights the vitality of the individual creative voice in a world where social media offers a weird mix of inspiration and suffocation and our struggles for social justice are equally hopeful and upsetting Creativity shows how vulnerability experimentation and courage can enable us to become bold and engaging creators Also available as an audiobook narrated by the author In a Classroom of Their Own Keisha Lindsay, 2018-07-02 Many advocates of all black male schools ABMSs argue that these institutions counter black boys racist emasculation in white overly female classrooms This argument challenges racism and perpetuates antifeminism Keisha Lindsay explains the complex politics of ABMSs by situating these schools within broader efforts at neoliberal education reform and within specific conversations about both endangered black males and a boy crisis in education Lindsay also demonstrates that intersectionality long considered feminist is in fact a politically fluid framework As such it represents a potent tool for advancing many political agendas including those of ABMSs supporters who champion antiracist education for black boys while obscuring black girls own race and gender based oppression in school Finally Lindsay theorizes a particular means by which black men and other groups can form antiracist and feminist coalitions even when they make claims about their experiences that threaten bridge building The way forward Lindsay shows allows disadvantaged groups to navigate the racial and gendered politics that divide them in pursuit of productive and progressive solutions Far thinking and boldly argued In a Classroom of Their Own explores the dilemmas faced by professionals and parents in search of equitable schooling for all students black boys and otherwise W. E. B. Du Bois' Africa Taharka Ade,2023-08-15 W E B Du Bois was one of the leading figures of Pan African thought and activism in the twentieth century As a sociologist Du Bois wrote much about the historical and social circumstances of African Americans while often acknowledging the African historical background of much of African American or Negro culture In 1946 Du Bois published The World and Africa which was a culmination of previous attempts at penning a narrative of African history beginning with his 1915 publication The Negro in which he included the social historical experience of African Americans within the continuity of African history This book delivers for the first time a comprehensive Afrocentric investigation and critique of Du Bois s writings on African history It argues that while Du Bois presented at the time a strong critique of the Eurocentric construction of African history many of Du Bois s descriptions and arguments about African people and history were likewise flawed with interpretations that projected the cultural subjectivities of Europe Further while Du Bois rightfully presents the historical relationship between African Americans and Africa as a justification for Pan African activism this book contends that Du Bois s failure to center African culture instead of race leads to superficial justifications for Pan African unity The ^AWorld Come of Age Lilian Calles Barger,2018-07-02 A trans American cultural history of ideas of how in the 1960s and 70s the first generation of liberation theologians conceptualize a radical political theology Representing those marginalized by modern politics and religion due to race class or sex status liberationists redefined the theo political space and set the stage for new expressions of religious activism The Transition Daniel Kiel,2023-04-04 Every Supreme Court transition presents an opportunity for a shift in the balance of the third branch of American government but the replacement of Thurgood Marshall with Clarence Thomas in 1991 proved particularly momentous Not only did it shift the ideological balance on the Court it was inextricably entangled with the persistent American dilemma of race In The Transition this most significant transition is explored through the lives and writings of the first two African American justices on Court touching on the lasting consequences for understandings of American citizenship as well as the central currents of Black political thought over the past century In their lives Thurgood Marshall and Clarence Thomas experienced the challenge of living and learning in a world that had enslaved their relatives and that continued to subjugate members of their racial group On the Court their judicial writings often in concurrences or dissents richly illustrate the ways in which these two individuals embodied these crucial American and African American debates on the balance between state and federal authority on the government s responsibility to protect its citizens against discrimination and on the best strategies for pursuing justice The gap between Justices Marshall and Thomas on these questions cannot be overstated and it reveals an extraordinary range of thought that has yet to be fully appreciated The 1991 transition from Justice Marshall to Justice Thomas has had consequences that are still unfolding at the Court and in society Arguing that the importance of this transition has been obscured by the relegation of these Justices to the sidelines of Supreme Court history Daniel Kiel shows that it is their unique perspective as Black justices the lives they have lived as African Americans and the rooting of their judicial philosophies in the relationship of government to African Americans that makes this succession echo across generations Strength through Diversity Barry M.

Goldenberg,2025-01-14 For nearly seven years from 1967 to 1974 many hundreds of bright college going youth most of whom had previously been labeled as high school dropouts would proudly celebrate their graduation from Harlem Prep a small educational experiment that grew to become a nationally renowned cherished community institution in the iconic Black neighborhood of Harlem Operating in a repurposed supermarket that used blackboards as classroom dividers the school s unique multicultural philosophy inspired all who stepped foot inside This philosophy exemplified by the school s motto of unity through diversity shaped the school s ethos fostered student achievement and most of all made Harlem Prep distinct from any other educational institution past or present In Strength through Diversity Barry M Goldenberg shares the history of this one of a kind multicultural institution from its rise to its apex and decline revealing the collective stories of hope struggle and love from administrators teachers community members and students Using history as a blueprint Goldenberg illustrates the untapped potential of multicultural education in the ongoing quest for educational equity
