Hunger Hotspots Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, WFP, In the current edition of a regular joint bi yearly report the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations FAO and the World Food Programme WFP warn that acute food insecurity is likely to worsen across 13 countries and territories identified as hotspots during the outlook period from June to October 2025 The Sudan Palestine South Sudan Haiti and Mali remain hotspots at the highest concern level while Yemen the Democratic Republic of the Congo and Myanmar are classified as hotspots of very high concern Other hotspots are Afghanistan Burkina Faso Chad Somalia and the Syrian Arab Republic Since the October 2024 edition Afghanistan and the Democratic Republic of the Congo have been elevated to hotspot status Conversely regional clusters in East Africa Ethiopia and Kenya and Southern Africa Lesotho Malawi Mozambique Namibia Zambia and Zimbabwe as well as Niger are no longer classified as hotspots due to improvements in climatic conditions Nigeria and Lebanon are also no longer classified as hotspots due to some improvement in the economic situation and a reduction in the intensity of military operations respectively Although these countries are no longer considered hotspots for the outlook period future economic and conflict related shocks or climatic shifts could lead to their reclassification For the outlook period funding for food and nutrition assistance falls critically short Funding for humanitarian assistance must not be reduced. Instead, urgent assistance should be scaled up to protect livelihoods and improve food access across all hunger hotspots. This report outlines country-specific recommendations for urgent emergency responses as well as anticipatory actions to meet existing humanitarian needs and implement short-term protective interventions before new crises emerge. The report focuses on the most severe and deteriorating acute hunger situations but it does not represent all countries/territories experiencing high levels of acute food insecurity.

Development Finance Yury Zaytsev, 2025-06-16. This book analyses the role of development finance in international development cooperation. The author explains the current transformations in the global development finance architecture and discusses new concepts for development finance proposed by multilateral and bilateral donors. The book is divided into three parts. The first part is devoted to the theoretical foundations of development finance and its impact on socio-economic development and aid effectiveness in partner countries. The second part presents insights on the current trends in multilateral and bilateral development finance. In the last section, the book examines the ramifications of development finance in partner countries and evaluates its impact in private and public sectors. The book will appeal not only to academics in the field but also to practitioners working in aid development and finance.

Handbook of International Climate Finance Michaelowa, Axel, Sacherer, Anne-Kathrin, 2022-10-14. The concept of international climate finance channelled from developed to developing countries through public interventions for mitigation and adaptation has been developed over the last decade but its roots date back to the early 1990s. Despite the high relevance of the topic in the international climate negotiations, illustrated by the missed target to mobilise USD 100 billion by 2020, there is no book that provides an overview accessible to academics and practitioners alike.
