Youth Transitions among Descendants of Turkish Immigrants in Amsterdam and Strasbourg: Elif Keskiner, 2019-04-16 This open access book maps the youth transitions of descendants of migrants from Turkey living in Amsterdam and Strasbourg through a comparative mixed methods research design As such it is of interest to discussions in youth sociology social mobility and second generation research The book follows transition trajectories of the second generation from school to activity or inactivity in the labour market to marriage or further study and deepens our understanding of transitions by unravelling the macro and micro mechanisms behind individual pathways On the one hand the author reveals the ongoing significance of distinct macro institutional settings as well as social structures such as social class ethnicity and gender in shaping the youth transition experience On the other she shows that youth transitions are not predestined to social reproduction when institutional and social structures create conditions for the development of resources necessary for social mobility Therefore through an examination of how immigrants descendants develop forms of capital in their social trajectories in relation to institutional and social structures the book advances the theoretical discussion on Bourdieu s capital theory Moreover in times when native born descendants of immigrants are at the forefront of public debate being subjected to normative integration demands the book significantly shifts the lens and draws our attention to the daily challenges and realities faced by ethnic minority youth      InfoWorld ,2007-01-08 InfoWorld is targeted to Senior IT professionals Content is segmented into Channels and Topic Centers InfoWorld also celebrates people companies and projects      Linking Theory to Practice Frances K.
