Gerard Lepre, 1994 Sustainable Energy Investment Joseph Nyangon, John Byrne, 2021-03-10 This book examines the technical market and policy innovations for unlocking sustainable investment in the energy sector While finalizing this book the COVID 19 pandemic is cutting a devastating swath through the global economy causing the biggest fall in energy sector investment exacerbating the global trade finance gap worsening signs of growing income inequality and devastating the health and livelihoods of millions What is the parallel between the COVID 19 pandemic and the climate change crisis The impacts of the global pandemic are expected to last for a few years whereas those associated with the climate crisis will play out over several decades with potentially irreversible consequences

However both show that the cost of inaction or delay in addressing the risks can lead to devastating outcomes or a greater probability of irreversible catastrophic damages In the context of sustainable energy investment and the transition to a low carbon climate resilient economy what ways can financial markets and institutions support net zero emission activities and the shift to a sustainable economy including investment in energy efficiency low carbon and renewable energy technologies This book provides students policymakers and energy investment professionals with the knowledge and theoretical tools necessary to address related questions in sustainable energy investment risk management and energy innovation agendas
