Traffic Ben Smith, 2023-05-02 Engrossing and suspenseful The New York Times Expertly pulls readers in The Guardian Smith sharply chronicles the revolutionary moment Financial Times The origin story of the post truth age the candid inside tale of two online media rivals Nick Denton of Gawker Media and Jonah Peretti of HuffPost and BuzzFeed whose delirious pursuit of attention at scale helped release the dark forces that would overtake the internet and American society If attention is the new oil Traffic is the story of the time between the first gusher and the perceptible impact of climate change The curtain opens in Soho in the early 2000s after the first dot com crash but before Google Apple and Facebook exploded when it seemed that New York City rather than Silicon Valley might become tech s center of gravity There Nick Denton s merry band of nihilists at his growing Gawker empire and Jonah Peretti s sunnier team at HuffPost and BuzzFeed were building the foundations of viral internet media Ben Smith who would go on to earn a controversial reputation as BuzzFeed News s editor in chief was there to see it and he chronicles it all with marvelous lucidity underscored by dark wit Traffic explores one of the great ironies of our time The internet which was going to help the left remake the world in its image has become the motive force of right populism People like Steve Bannon and Andrew Breitbart initially seemed like minor characters in the narrative in which Nick and Jonah were the stars But today anyone might wonder if the op posite wasn t the case To understand how we got here Traffic is essential and enthralling reading

The Semantic Web – ISWC 2016 Paul Groth, Elena Simperl, Alasdair Gray, Marta Sabou, Markus Krötzsch, Freddy Lecue, Fabian Flöck, Yolanda Gil, 2016-10-05 The two-volume set LNCS 9981 and 9982 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 15th International Semantic Web Conference ISWC 2016 which was held in Kobe, Japan, in October 2016. The 75 full papers presented in these proceedings were carefully reviewed and selected from 326 submissions. The International Semantic Web Conference is the premier forum for Semantic Web research where cutting-edge scientific results and technological innovations are presented where problems and solutions are discussed and where the future of this vision is being developed. It brings together specialists in fields such as artificial intelligence, databases, social networks, distributed computing, Web engineering, information systems, human computer interaction, natural language processing, and the social sciences. The Research Track solicited novel and significant research contributions addressing theoretical, analytical, empirical, and practical aspects of the Semantic Web. The Applications Track solicited submissions exploring the benefits and challenges of applying semantic technologies in concrete practical applications in contexts ranging from industry to government and science. The newly introduced Resources Track sought submissions providing a concise and clear description of a resource and its expected usage Traditional resources include ontologies vocabularies datasets benchmarks and replication studies services and software Besides more established types of resources the track solicited submissions of new types of resources such as ontology design patterns crowdsourcing task designs workflows methodologies and protocols and measures

Digital Vertigo Andrew Keen, 2012-05-22 In Digital Vertigo Andrew Keen presents today's social media revolution as the most wrenching cultural transformation since the Industrial Revolution Fusing a fast paced historical narrative with front line stories from today's online networking revolution and critiques of social companies like Groupon Zynga and LinkedIn Keen argues that the social media transformation is weakening disorienting and dividing us rather than establishing the dawn of a new egalitarian and communal age The tragic paradox of life in the social media age Keen says is the incompatibility between our internet longings for community and friendship and our equally powerful desire for online individual freedom By exposing the shallow core of social networks Andrew Keen shows us that the more electronically connected we become the lonelier and less powerful we seem to be Praise for The Cult of the Amateur A shrewdly argued jeremiad against the digerati effort to dethrone cultural and political gatekeepers and replace experts with the wisdom of the crowd Keen writes with acuity and passion New York Times A staggering new book by Andrew Keen He is an English born digital media entrepreneur and Silicon Valley insider who really knows his stuff and he writes with the passion of a man who can at last see the dangers he has helped unleash His book will come as a real shock to many It certainly did to me A N Wilson The Daily Mail

Big Tech Tyrants Floyd Brown, Todd Cefaratti, 2019-09-03 As seen on Tucker Carlson They are driven without respect for the lives they are changing Boy Kings or Big Tech Tyrants are considered the most powerful individuals in the world They're the autocratic aristocrats who run the tech giants in Silicon Valley and if the labels are accurate they suggest these social platform operators have gained a non elected or should we say a self elected authoritarian power They wield it with more effectiveness and precision than any sitting government or military strategist Big Tech Tyrants boast riches beyond emperors of old but act like juveniles who don't want to grow up They are modern day robber barons Big Tech Tyrants don't know the meaning of privacy when it comes to you They try to make you believe they will give their products away for free as a service to society when really they are vacuuming your personal data They use this data to discover your deepest secrets Are you or your partner trying to get pregnant Are you underwater financially Are you having an extramarital affair Do you have a tidy nest egg Are you a Trump supporter Are you a Bernie Sanders follower Are you a Scientologist Mormon Christian or Buddhist Your personal data is extremely valuable to them and they use it and abuse These tyrants knowingly addict users to make more money Not only that they also consider themselves the most enlightened the world has ever seen so they know what's best for you to see from the news and information you read to the political candidates they think you should vote for They censor news and only let you see what they want you to see This is an eye opening must read for anyone living in the twenty first century
