The Quick-Start Library Guide Kelly Mayfield, Amy O. Milstead, 2025-09-04 Helps paraprofessionals and new school librarians begin their first school year with confidence New librarians and paraprofessionals often come to school library positions with little or no experience in library work and there s a gap in instructional information available for those who want to quickly increase their skill level This book helps professionals and paraprofessionals learn what they need to know to get started as well as pointing them to additional resources in areas where they might want more advanced information This practical guide teaches librarians and paraprofessionals to develop systems and create plans for programs and partnerships with teachers and other professionals to set them up for success during their first year in the library A timeline helps map out the rhythm of a school year The Quick Start Library Guide introduces paraprofessionals to library science topics such as cataloging collection development and weeding It covers topics specific to the school library such as reading levels book fairs and author visits Each section includes suggested resources for more in depth learning Librarians and paraprofessionals will be able to use this valuable straightforward guide to hit the ground running in their new role The Digital Future of English Simone Murray, 2025-07-18 More than any other academic discipline literary studies is the creation of print culture How then can it thrive in the digital era Early 1990s predictions of the book s imminent demise presented a simplistic either or choice between the legacy of moribund print and triumphalist digital technology Yet we have grown to experience the two media as complexly interdependent and even complementary Clearly digital does not kill print But literary studies in the digital era cannot simply resume business as usual It is urgently necessary to reconsider the discipline s founding assumptions in light of digital technology The digital era prompts a rethinking of literary studies object of study as well as its methods theories audiences and pedagogical practices What counts as literature necessarily shifts in an age of proliferating born digital texts and do it yourself DIY online publication Where should literary studies sit institutionally and how might it graft contextually oriented social sciences methods onto its traditionally humanistic mode of textual analysis Why should literary study continue to marginalize emotional responses to texts when online communities bond via readerly affect Who is the audience for literary criticism in an age where expertise is routinely challenged yet communication with global book loving publics has never been technologically easier Finally how can we utilize digital tools to rejuvenate literary studies pedagogy and help English staff better connect with millennial age students Literary studies has been convulsed for decades by debates over electronic literature and more recently digitally aided distant reading But these discussions still mostly confine themselves to demarcating our proper object of study We need to think more expansively about digital technology s impact on the underpinning tenets of the discipline Literary Media Studies is pitched at fellow literary scholars book historians media theorists cultural sociologists digital humanists and those working at the interface of these converging disciplines It models constructive engagement with contemporary digital culture Most importantly it brings a burst of sorely
