Scott Fitzgerald,2018-01-01 Sara the American wife of a French aristocrat has had two encounters with her compatriot Cedric Killian one a youthful idyll in North Carolina and the other during the First World War when he was a soldier about to go to battle When years later and after the death of her husband Cedric contacts her out of the blue Sara finds herself eager to see him again against the wishes of her in laws and to find out the secret of this man she loves yet knows so little about A poignant tale of thwarted love The Intimate Strangers explores many of Fitzgerald s favourite themes such as the constraints of social pressure on romance and the American fascination for Old Europe This volume also includes other lesser known stories he wrote from the mid 1930s until the end of his life revealing new facets to the author of The Great Gatsby and Tender Is the Night Dear Science and Other Stories Katherine McKittrick,2020-12-14 In Dear Science and Other Stories Katherine McKittrick presents a creative and rigorous study of black and anticolonial methodologies Drawing on black studies studies of race cultural geography and black feminism as well as a mix of methods citational practices and theoretical frameworks she positions black storytelling and stories as strategies of invention and collaboration She analyzes a number of texts from intellectuals and artists ranging from Sylvia Wynter to the electronica band Drexciya to explore how narratives of imprecision and relationality interrupt knowledge systems that seek to observe index know and discipline blackness Throughout McKittrick offers curiosity wonder citations numbers playlists friendship poetry inquiry song grooves and anticolonial chronologies as interdisciplinary codes that entwine with the academic form Suggesting that black life and black livingness are in themselves rebellious methodologies McKittrick imagines without totally disclosing the ways in which black intellectuals invent ways of living outside prevailing knowledge systems The Hungry Stones, and Other Stories Rabindranath Tagore,2022-11-25

Reproduction of the original Whose Urban Renaissance? Libby Porter,Kate Shaw,2009-01-13 The desire of governments for a renaissance of their cities is a defining feature of contemporary urban policy From Melbourne and Toronto to Johannesburg and Istanbul government policies are successfully attracting investment and middle class populations to their inner areas Regeneration or gentrification as it can often become produces winners and losers There is a substantial literature on the causes and unequal effects of gentrification and on the global and local conditions driving processes of dis and re investment But there is little examination of the actual strategies used to achieve urban regeneration what were their intents did they succeed and if not why not and what were the specific consequences Whose Urban Renaissance asks who benefits from these urban transformations The book contains beautifully written and accessible stories from researchers and activists in 21 cities across Europe North and South America Asia South Africa the Middle East and Australia each exploring a specific case of urban regeneration Some chapters focus on government or market strategies driving the regeneration process and look closely at the effects Others look at the local contingencies that influence the way these strategies work Still others look at instances of opposition and struggle and at policy interventions that were used in some places to ameliorate the inequities of gentrification Working from these stories the editors develop a comparative analysis of regeneration strategies with nuanced assessments of local constraints and counteracting policy responses The concluding chapters provide a critical comparison of existing strategies and open new directions for more equitable policy approaches in the future Whose Urban Renaissance is targeted at students academics planners policy makers and activists The book is unique in its geographical breadth and its constructive policy emphasis offering a succinct critical and timely exploration of urban regeneration strategies throughout the world Puss-cat Mew, and Other Stories for My Children Edward Hugessen Knatchbull-Hugessen Baron Brabourne,1871 Teaching Creative Writing Graeme Harper,2006-06-23 Featuring a collection of twelve teaching focused essays this work includes an introduction to the subject of creative writing by Graeme Harper Each chapter draws on key points about the nature of teaching and learning creative writing and covers vario
