Migration Remittances And Development In South Asia:

South Asian Migration Zaara Zain Hussain, Md Mizanur Rahman, 2015-09-04 International migration is a dynamic global phenomenon that has been drawing increasing attention from both scholars and policymakers over the last few decades. It is particularly relevant to South Asia since the region is a vast source of sojourner migrant labour as well as home to permanent immigrant and diaspora communities. The chapters brought together in this volume provide insights into the study of international migration, diaspora engagement and remittances in South Asia. In particular, they analyse the implications of this phenomenon in relation to development and shed light on migration and diaspora-led development in two sections: firstly, Remittance Induced Development and secondly, Diaspora Induced Development. The geographic focus of the volume is the global South Asian emigrant population who live outside the region. This volume demonstrates that international migration, remittances and development offer an exciting field of academic study as well as a vibrant area of policy study. Its multidisciplinary dimensions enlarge its scope and applicability across several domains. As such, this volume offers an important contribution to the growing field of international migration in both the academic and policy spheres. Migrant

Remittances in South Asia M. Rahman, T. Yong, A. Ullah, 2014-11-25 This volume provides theoretical treatments of remittance on how its development potential is translated into reality. The authors meticulously delve into diverse mechanisms through which migrant communities remit, investigating how recipients engage in the development process in South Asia. International Migration and Development in South Asia Md Mizanur Rahman, Tan Tai Yong, 2015-04-10 In migration studies, the nexus between migration and development in the global South has been meticulously debated. However, a unanimous resolution to this debate has not been found due to the ever-changing nature of international migration. This book advances knowledge on the global debate on the migration-development relationship by documenting experiences in a number of countries in South Asia. Drawing on the experiences of global South Asians, this volume documents the impact of migration on the social, economic and political fields in the broader context of development. It also presents a regional experience by looking into the migration-development nexus in the context of South Asia and analyses the role South Asian migrants and diaspora communities play in the South Asian society. Contributions from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds, including sociology, anthropology, political science, international relations and economics, document the development implications of South Asian migration. Broad in scope in terms of contents, timeline of migration and geographical coverage, the book presents empirically based case studies involving India, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, Pakistan and Nepal and their emigrants living and working in different parts of the world. Going beyond reporting the impacts of migration on economic development by highlighting the implications of social development on society, this book provides a fascinating contribution to the fields of Asian Development, Migration Studies and South Asian Studies. Migration, Remittances, and Sustainable Development in Africa Maty Konte, Linguère Mously Mbaye, 2020-11-26 This book provides a strong multidisciplinary examination of the links between migration remittances and sustainable development in Africa It makes evidence based policy recommendations on migration to help achieve the Sustainable Development Goals The key themes examined are migration and remittances and their relations with the following issues economic transformation education and knowledge corruption and conflict Cross cutting issues such as gender equality and youth are weaved throughout the chapters and a rich range of country contexts are presented The volume also discusses challenges in managing migration flows It will be of interest to advanced students academics and policy makers in development economics and sustainable development

Exit Thomas Faist,2022-09-15 Die Frage auf welchem Fleckchen Erde man geboren wurde ist längst zum Bestimmungsfaktor individueller Lebenschancen geworden In manchen Weltregionen brechen heute immer mehr Menschen auf um ihr Glück dauerhaft woanders zu suchen Was macht das mit ihrer Heimat und was folgt daraus für die reichen Zielländer im globalen Norden Der Soziologe Thomas Faist bringt Licht ins Dunkel und räumt mit einigen grassierenden Mythen zur globalen Migration im 21. Jahrhundert auf Der Begriff Exit bezeichnet die Entscheidung die eigene Heimat zu verlassen weil es dort schlichtweg keine Perspektiven mehr gibt Sie ist zum politischen Massenphänomen unserer Zeit und vor allem im globalen Süden zu einer Alternative zum sozialen Protest geworden Die massenhafte Abwanderung aus verarmten Regionen etwa auf dem afrikanischen Kontinent verschärft sich nicht zuletzt infolge des Klimawandels der den globalen Süden ungleich härter trifft als den globalen Norden Dadurch entstehen sowohl in den Immigrations- als auch in den Emigrationsländern neue politische Konfliktkonstellationen Die Fragmentierung der europäischen Parteienlandschaft etwa wäre ohne die neuen Formen globaler Migration im 21. Jahrhundert undenkbar Auf der anderen Seite wird die weltweite soziale Ungleichheit die Schere zwischen Nord und Süd durch immer rigidere Migrationsregime zementiert statt abgemildert Es bedarf folglich einer neuen fairen Migrationspolitik um den Exit im globalen Süden in eine für alle Beteiligten gewinnbringende Mobilität zu lenken Thomas Faist einer der führenden Migrationsexperten in Europa legt in seinem Buch die Summe seiner Forschung zum Thema vor Transnational Labour Migration, Remittances and the Changing Family in Asia L. Hoang,B. Yeoh,2015-05-13 The contributors investigate the interrelationships between migrant remittances and the family in Asia They argue that in the context of Asian transnational labour migration where remittances tend to become a primary currency of care the making or breaking of the family unit is mainly contingent on how individuals handle remittance processes
