Migratory Settings Tamyrisintersecting Place Sex And Race:

Migratory Settings, 2015-06-29 Migratory Settings proposes a shift in perspective from migration as movement from place to place to migration as installing movement within place Migration not only takes place between places but also has its effects on place in place In brief we suggest a view on migration in which place is neither reified nor transcended but thickened as it becomes the setting of the variegated memories imaginations dreams fantasies nightmares anticipations and idealizations of both migrants and native inhabitants that experiences of migration bring into contact with each other Migration makes place overdetermined turning it into the mise en scene of different histories Hence movement does not lead to placelessness but to the intensification and overdetermination of place its heterotopicality At the same time place does not unequivocally authenticate or validate knowledge but shot through with the transnational and the transcultural exceeds it ceaselessly Our contributions take us to the migratory settings of a fictional exhibition a staged political wedding a walking tour in a museum African appropriations of Shakespeare and Sophocles Gollwitz Germany Calais France the body after a heart transplant refugees family portraiture a garden in Vermont the womb With contributions by Mieke Bal Maaïke Bleeker Paulina Aroch Astrid van Weyenberg Sarah de Mul Annette Seidel Arpacı Sudeep Dasgupta Wim Staat Maria Boletsi Griselda Pollock Alex Rotas and Murat Aydemir
