RULE OF THE GODS When the gods returned they didn't come to save us Atlantis simply appeared one morning in the Sahara Desert bringing gifts of clean energy and ancient wisdom but it was all a lie that shattered civilization The old gods followed remembering powers long forgotten Technology crumbled to myth and in its wake mighty realms rose from the ashes Byzantium reclaimed its former glory Atlantis forged new empires Midgard's clans reunited under ancient banners and more beyond imagination Neo Constantinople stands among these resurgent capitals a stained glass jewel and crucible of divine law in a world ruled by capricious deities INN AT THE EDGE OF MIDNIGHT At the mouth of Midnight Alley Barthello's Inn waits a haven for the lost the dangerous and the legendary Here Satyrs trade storied songs with Minotaurs Elves and Dwarves haggle over relics and hooded churchmen whisper secrets into the ears of underworld rogues Aboveground Orthodox Catholic Coptic Jewish and Pagan factions vie for influence beneath gilded icons and golden domes Below a secret pulses in the dark its truth known only to the highest tiers of the Church Into this world returns Germanus once an inquisitor now a branded heretic seeking to honor a vow made on the blood soaked eve of his final mission A single desperate mistake sends shockwaves through a dozen lives Inn at the Edge of Midnight gathers eleven interwoven tales set in Neo Constantinople a city of sacred splendor and divine law where myths walk in daylight and shadows trade in whispers Pull up a stool The hearth still burns hot the drinks still pour But in a city where the gods are always listening no one leaves unchanged
