Grocery Store

People shop at the grocery store to purchase things they need to live. Customers buy food, beverages, cleaning products, and much more at the grocery store. Many important community helpers work at the grocery store. The butcher cuts and prepares meat for us to eat. The baker makes bread, cookies, and cakes. The cashier checks out customers who are ready to pay for their groceries. Other grocery store workers help clean the store, stock the shelves, bag groceries, and gather the shopping carts. The many different community helpers at the grocery store work hard to make sure we have the food and products we need in our everyday lives.

1) What are some things you can purchase at the grocery store?

2) What does the baker do at the grocery store?

3) What does the cashier do at the grocery store?

attention and indeed their teacher's attention as well. The types of comprehension passages range from newspaper articles and dialogues to plays, stories and poems. They gradually increase in difficulty as you progress through the book and through the series encouraging children to develop their ability to read for meaning and use a range of strategies to engage with the text. Tasks range from simple factual recall and vocabulary work to more open-ended questions enabling the reader to provide a more personal response. The cross-curricular activities provide a wealth of ideas for extending the passages further and are ideal for fast finishers. Resources in Education, 1992-10
