Social Media and Library Services Lorri Mon, 2022-05-31 The rise of social media technologies has created new ways to seek and share information for millions of users worldwide but also has presented new challenges for libraries in meeting users where they are within social spaces From social networking sites such as Facebook and Google and microblogging platforms such as Twitter and Tumblr to the image and video sites of YouTube Flickr Instagram and to geotagging sites such as Foursquare libraries have responded by establishing footholds within a variety of social media platforms and seeking new ways of engaging with online users in social spaces Libraries are also responding to new social review sites such as Yelp and TripAdvisor awareness sites including StumbleUpon Pinterest Goodreads and Reddit and social question and answer Q A sites such as Yahoo Answers sites which engage social media users in functions similar to traditional library content curation readers advisory information and referral and reference services Establishing a social media presence extends the library's physical manifestation into virtual space and increases the library's visibility reach and impact However beyond simply establishing a social presence for the library a greater challenge is building effective and engaging social media sites that successfully adapt a library's visibility voice and presence to the unique contexts audiences and cultures within diverse social media sites This lecture examines the research and theory on social media and libraries providing an overview of what is known and what is not yet known about libraries and social media Chapter 1 focuses on the social media environments within which libraries are establishing a presence including how social media sites differ from each other yet work together within a social ecosphere Chapter 2 examines how libraries are engaging with users across a variety of social media platforms and the extent to which libraries are involved in using these different social media platforms as well as the activities of libraries in presenting a social self sharing information and interacting with users via social media Chapter 3 explores metrics and measures for assessing the impact of the library's activity in social media sites The book concludes with Chapter 4 on evolving directions for libraries and social media including potential implications of new and emerging technologies for libraries in social spaces Table of Contents Preface The Social Media Environment Libraries and Social Media Assessing Social Media Sites and Services Evolving Directions in Social Libraries Bibliography Author Biography

Letters to a Writer of Colour Deepa Anappara, Taymour Soomro, 2023-03-09 Filled with empathy and wisdom personal experiences and creative inspiration this is a vital collection of essays on the power of literature and the craft of writing from an international array of writers of colour Electric essays that speak to the experience of writing from the periphery a guide a comfort and a call all at once Laila Lalami author of Conditional Citizens A whip smart collection Kamila Shamsie author of Best of Friends What if we reconsidered our assumptions about how fiction should be written And can we then apply our discoveries to both what we read and how we read This book explores these questions and encourages us into a more inclusive conversation about storytelling featuring

Taymour Soomro on resisting rigid stories about who you are Madeleine Thien on how writing builds the room in which it can exist Amitava Kumar on why authenticity isn't a license we carry in our wallets Tahmima Anam on giving herself permission to be funny Ingrid Rojas Contreras on the bodily challenge of writing about trauma Zeyn Joukhadar on queering English and the power of refusing to translate ourselves Kiese Laymon on hearing that no one wants to read the story that you want to write Deepa Anappara on writing even through conditions that impede the creation of art Plus essays from Tiphonie Yanique Xiaolu Guo Jamil Jan Kochai Vida Cruz Borja Femi Kayode Nadifa Mohamed in conversation with Leila Aboulela Myriam Gurba Mohammed Hanif and Sharlene Teo This book is essential Nikesh Shukla Bracing and moving No one interested in how we read and should read fiction can afford to miss this Pankaj Mishra author of Run and Hide Modern Romance Aziz Ansari, Eric Klinenberg, 2015-06-16 The 1 New York Times Bestseller An engaging look at the often head scratching frequently infuriating mating behaviors that shape our love lives Refinery 29 A hilarious thoughtful and in depth exploration of the pleasures and perils of modern romance from Aziz Ansari the star of Master of None and one of this generation's sharpest comedic voices At some point every one of us embarks on a journey to find love We meet people date get into and out of relationships all with the hope of finding someone with whom we share a deep connection This seems standard now but it's wildly different from what people did even just decades ago Single people today have more romantic options than at any point in human history With technology our abilities to connect with and sort through these options are staggering So why are so many people frustrated Some of our problems are unique to our time Why did this guy just text me an emoji of a pizza Should I go out with this girl even though she listed Combos as one of her favorite snack foods Combos My girlfriend just got a message from some dude named Nathan Who's Nathan Did he just send her a photo of his penis Should I check just to be sure But the transformation of our romantic lives can't be explained by technology alone In a short period of time the whole culture of finding love has changed dramatically A few decades ago people would find a decent person who lived in their neighborhood Their families would meet and after deciding neither party seemed like a murderer they would get married and soon have a kid all by the time they were twenty four Today people marry later than ever and spend years of their lives on a quest to find the perfect person a soul mate For years Aziz Ansari has been aiming his comic insight at modern romance but for Modern Romance the book he decided he needed to take things to another level He teamed up with NYU sociologist Eric Klinenberg and designed a massive research project including hundreds of interviews and focus groups conducted everywhere from Tokyo to Buenos Aires to Wichita They analyzed behavioral data and surveys and created their own online research forum on Reddit which drew thousands of messages They enlisted the world's leading social scientists including Andrew Cherlin Eli Finkel Helen Fisher Sheena Iyengar Barry Schwartz Sherry Turkle and Robb Willer The result is unlike any social science or humor book we've seen before In Modern Romance Ansari combines his irreverent humor with cutting edge social science to give us an unforgettable tour of our new romantic world Reference & User Services
