Coping with the Future Hans Christian Garman Johnsen, Halvor Holtskog, Richard Ennals, 2018-03-21 Coping with the Future has been written in response to widespread international awareness that the future is not predictable In political and economic terms we are in unknown territory with daily developments around Brexit and the Trump Presidency and Kodak moments in business On the other hand business leaders demand certainty which is not available This book redefines the nature of modern business In contrast to recent trends it has a focus on human centred manufacturing and on decision making which goes beyond a focus on short term profit The liberal capitalism of the USA and the UK is not the only current variety of capitalism Business is not just about managers but requires participation and engagement by workers Since the financial crash of 2008 there has been much talk about the need for fresh approaches to business but little has changed This book pulls together current research and practice and poses new questions based on case studies There is no one simple best way but an uncertain future can be addressed drawing on diverse past experience and cases The book addresses an intended audience in business and universities including business schools around the world The debate takes a broader approach involving research in the social sciences and approaches from philosophy The world has always been unpredictable but we have allowed ourselves to be comforted by convenient myths It is time to wake up Atomic Narratives and American Youth Michael Scheibach, 2015-09-17 Following the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki numerous atomic narratives books newspapers magazines textbooks movies and television programs addressed the implications of the bomb Post World War II youth encountered atomic narratives in their daily lives at school at home and in their communities and were profoundly affected by what they read and saw This multidisciplinary study examines the exposure of American youth to atomic narratives during the ten years following World War II In addition it examines the broader social narrative of the atom which included educational social cultural and political activities that surrounded and involved American youth The activities ranged from school and community programs to movies and television shows to government sponsored traveling exhibits on atomic energy The book also presents numerous examples of writings by postwar adolescents who clearly expressed their conflicted feelings about growing up in such a tumultuous time and shows how many of the issues commonly associated with the sixties generation such as peace fellowship free expression and environmental concern can be traced to this earlier generation

Research of Martial Arts Shifu Jonathan Bluestein,2014-07-27 Jonathan Bluestein s Research of Martial Arts is a book about the true essence of martial arts It includes neither instruction on deadly killing techniques nor mystical tales of so called super human masters Rather it is a vast compilation of seriously thought out observations made on the subject by the author as well as many other martial artists and scientists with a slight touch of history and humour The goal of this project had from the start been to surpass the current standard in the martial arts literary market and offer readers worldwide something which they have never seen before In essence a book in which are found countless answers for martial arts practitioners which they cannot be read elsewhere which address commonly discussed martially related topics with breadth and depth unparalleled in other works to this day in any language It holds among its pages no less than 220 000 words containing knowledge which would be coveted by many The aim of this book is to present the reader a coherent clear cut and in depth view of some of the most perplexing and controversial subjects in the world of martial arts as well as providing a healthy dose of philosophical outlook on these subjects from various individuals At its core is the author's aspiration to build a stronger theoretical foundation for the discussion of martial arts while addressing matters in innovative ways which I have come to believe would help people to better grasp the nature of these arts There are books by authors who will tell you that some aspects of the martial arts are too complex for concrete coherent and defined explanations Others have used ambiguous terminology to explain what they could not pronounce otherwise This is no such book This book was written to provide you with the solid applicable answers and ideas that you could actually understand and take away with you This book is mainly comprised of three parts Part I From the Inside Out External and Internal Gong Fu This is essentially mostly a very long thorough discussion of martial arts theory and practice Traditional and modern concepts and methods are discussed through the mediums of Physiology Biology Anatomy Psychology Philosophy Western and Oriental alike sports science and the author's personal experiences The Internal Martial Arts of China receive a special lengthier treatment in this part of the book Part II Contemplations on Controlled Violence This one is of a Philosophical and Psychological nature and contains the author's thoughts on the martial arts and their manifestation in our daily lives with guest articles by various martial arts teachers Part III The Wisdom of Martial Spirits Teachers and the Things They Hold Dear This part includes various interesting and comprehensive interviews with distinguished martial arts masters spanning dozens of pages each Every one of the interviewees is a person whose views and ideas are thought provoking and well worth reading The teachers interviewed in this book are Master Chen Zhonghua Chen Taiji Quan Master Yang Hai Xing Yi Quan Bagua Zhang and Chen Taiji Quan Shifu Strider Clark Tongbei Quan Wu style Taiji Shuai Jiao and more Shifu Neil Ripski Traditional Drunken Fist and many others Sifu James Cama Buddha Hand Wing Chun and Southern Praying Mantis Itzik Cohen Sensei Shito ryu Karate No matter the age rank status or experience this book was written for everyone who see themselves part of the martial arts community It is my sincere hope that any person who reads this book will benefit from the time he or she had spent doing so May this work encourage others to continue intelligent writing and research in the field as I was pushed forth and built upon the knowledge others have shared before me May you have a pleasant reading experience
