Usage-Based Approaches to Language Acquisition and Language Teaching Jacqueline Evers-Vermeul, Elena Tribushinina, 2017-03-06 Although usage based approaches have been successfully applied to the study of both first and second language acquisition to monolingual and bilingual development and to naturalistic and instructed settings it is not common to consider these different kinds of acquisition in tandem The present volume takes an integrative approach and shows that usage based theories provide a much needed unified framework for the study of first second and foreign language acquisition in monolingual and bilingual contexts The contributions target the acquisition of a wide range of linguistic phenomena and critically assess the applicability and explanatory power of the usage based paradigm The book also systematically examines a range of cognitive and linguistic factors involved in the process of language development and relates relevant findings to language teaching Finally this volume contributes to the assessment and refinement of empirical methods currently employed in usage based acquisition research This book is of interest to scholars of language acquisition language pedagogy developmental psychology as well as Cognitive Linguistics and Construction Grammar

Orthodoxy in Arabic Terms Najib George Awad, 2015-04-24 This volume presents Theodore Abu Qurrah's apologetic Christian theology in dialogue with Islam It explores the question of whether in his attempt to convey orthodoxy in Arabic to the Muslim reader Abu Qurrah diverged from creedal doctrinal Christian theology and compromised its core content A comprehensive study of the theology of Abu Qurrah and its relation to Islamic and pre Islamic orthodox Melkite thought has not yet been pursued in modern scholarship Awad addresses this gap in scholarship by offering a thorough analytic hermeneutics of Abu Qurrah's apologetic thought with specific attention to his theological thought on the Trinity and Christology This study takes scholarship beyond attempts at editing and translating Abu Qurrah's texts and offers scholars students and lay readers in the fields of Arabic Christianity Byzantine theology Christian Muslim dialogues and historical theology an unprecedented scientific study of Abu Qurrah's theological mind

Selected Studies on Genre in Middle Eastern Literatures Hülya Çelik, Petr Kučera, 2023-07-07 The examination of literary genres in the Middle East opens the possibility of gaining new insights into the intellectual universe of Middle Eastern societies the question of production of meaning what literature meant in different historical periods and the underlying epistemology of producing knowledge and how this epistemology has changed over time This book comprises 12 case studies from the three major Middle Eastern languages Arabic Persian and Turkish written by experts in the field It brings together a wide range of approaches from the study of epics to an analysis of travelogues and from classical poetry to novels Instead of focusing on one period or juxtaposing the classical genres and the West induced development of modern genres the studies in their totality apply a broad diachronic and synchronic perspective with the potential to create a comparative framework for the study of the sociocultural and narratological dimensions of genre in the Middle East
