that they continue to be constrained by the need to obtain local authority approval a premises licence and planning permission The failure to set remote gambling taxation at a level at which online operators could remain within the UK has led to almost every online gambling operator moving offshore whilst most are still able to advertise and operate into the UK The Committee further recommends the Gambling Commission should introduce a new licence fee structure which reduces the current anomaly where small independent bookmakers pay much higher fees per shop than large chains Particularly given the absence of a significant UK regulated online sector or any Regional Casinos the Gambling Commission remains an overly expensive bureaucratic regulator
