Paddle 'Til Dark Raimonds Zvirbulis,2018-09-21 This solo wilderness kayaking journey began many years ago years before I even knew anything about kayaks and paddling down remote legendary rivers Poring over maps of those places revealed very little The blank spaces spread far and wide At last after decades of dreaming I stood on the shore of Lake Atlin in British Columbia where the headwaters of the Yukon River are I stood there and thought about all those hope filled years and was thrilled at the anticipation of leaving that morning in mid June Crossing the expanse of Lake Atlin in a fine mist I guided the kayak toward Graham Channel which would take me to Tagish Lake There I met Jim and

Marion Brook at their cabin After hot coffee and freshly baked cookies they sent me on my way They were the first of many people who helped me on my journey That evening having found the perfect campsite I inspected the area for bear tracks Finding none I started a large campfire before setting up the tent Supper had been eaten at a previous stop so there was no cooking where I stayed for the night This was the procedure I followed every night It kept animals bigger and hungrier than me from visiting my campsites As I paddled down the lakes I stopped at villages such as Tagish I paddled down Marsh Lake and down dangerous Lake Laberge and I stopped in historic towns such as Whitehorse and Dawson City I passed by wrecked and beached steamboats from the gold rush days and finally crossed the US Canadian line into Alaska I had paddled through a forest fire so immense that it took a day to pass the flames The current carried me past Eagle Circle City though the Yukon flats where the river was ten to twenty miles wide and I crossed the Arctic Circle at Fort Yukon Then came the small villages of Beaver Stevens Village and then the oil pipeline I paddled on to Rampart where the fierce head wind nearly drove me back upstream Next I passed through Tanana where I met Emmet Peter who won the Iditarod long ago then on to Ruby Galena Nulato and Holy Cross where Bergie Demientieff served me coffee and gave good advice Finally I arrived at Russian Mission where I ran out of time after fifty one days and two thousand miles of paddling my kayak There Harvey Pitka and his wife Ester fed me a wonderful dinner before I flew out As the plane climbed and banked toward Bethel I knew that I would return one day to finish my kayak trip to the Bering Sea
