Dark Horse Larry Spencer, 2021-11-15 Gen Larry O Spencer USAF Ret was born and raised on the Horseshoe a tough inner city street in southeast Washington D C Both parents lived in the rural south under Jim Crow and separate but equal laws Spencer's father was a career Army soldier who lost his left hand during the Korean War suffered from post traumatic stress disorder and worked two jobs His mother completed tenth grade had no driver's license and was left alone during the week to raise their six children The Horseshoe was a hard neighborhood where fights were common and the school systems were second rate The expectations of living in an all Black neighborhood were to be good at sports while shunning academic prowess Spencer met those expectations he struggled in school but teachers who did not want to see him repeat their class would pass him to the next grade That environment resulted in poor self esteem and a bleak outlook for the future Quite by chance Spencer enlisted in the U S Air Force where he continued to struggle with the racial turmoil of the 1970s A senior non commissioned officer saw promise in Spencer and guided him to obtain a college degree and apply for Officer Training School where he excelled As a very young first lieutenant he was assigned to a tough job in the Pentagon but Spencer earned an early reputation as a fast burner In 1990 he took command of a squadron that won accolades and awards for their performance during Operation Desert Shield Storm Spencer went on to serve at the White House and then successfully commanded a Group and a Wing before being assigned as the chief financial officer comptroller for Air Combat Command the largest command in the Air Force During that assignment Spencer was promoted to brigadier general and was tasked to set up a new Directorate at Air Force Materiel Command Spencer later returned to the Pentagon where he led Air Force Budget He ultimately became the Air Force s thirty seventh vice chief of staff making him one of only nine African Americans promoted to four stars Spencer concludes his historic climb with life lessons learned on his journey from the inner city to the Pentagon

Beyond Residency William L. Doss, M.D., M.B.A., Clinton E. Faulk, M.D., Carrie A. McShane, M.D., Matthew W. Wilson, M.D., 2016-12-12 Beyond Residency offers practical no nonsense advice about the business and economics of being a medical doctor Used as a textbook in the Business of Medicine Course at East Carolina University s Brody School of Medicine this edition is designed to work more broadly for other institutions teaching business of medicine courses and for new physicians starting out in practice Recalling his days in medical school Marc Lyles senior director of health care affairs for the Association of American Medical Colleges said Whenever we asked a business question we were always told Don t worry about that You need to learn the medical side before you worry about the business side He states that between 2003 and 2007 the majority of students were satisfied with their medical and clinical training However less than half felt that enough time was devoted to the practice of medicine especially to medical economics The Brody School of Medicine addresses that discrepancy offering its Business of Medicine Course as a fourth year elective and as a postgraduate class for students in the Department of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation Topics addressed include time value of money contracts RVUs disability and life insurance and investment plans such as traditional IRAs and Roth IRAs In 2015 the Business of Medicine Course received a positive score of 4 68 5 94% for its value to medical students and Beyond Residency received a score of 3 89 4 97% for its effectiveness in teaching students the business of medicine Beyond Residency helps students to understand important yet under explored areas that will impact them as practicing physicians
