The Sign in Sidney Brustein's Window Lorraine Hansberry, 2012-02-22 From the award winning author of A Raisin in the Sun comes one of the most electrifying classic masterpieces of the American theater an unforgettable portrait of a man struggling with his individual fate in an age of racial and social injustice Rich and warm and funny beautifully written Los Angeles Times The Sign in Sidney Brustein's Window along with A Raisin in the Sun are milestones in the American theater remarkable not only for their historical value but for their continued ability to engage the imagination and the heart It is drama of such clarity that one may return to it again and again and I expect emerge as deeply moved and each time the more illumined Miss Hansberry I am convinced doesn't know how to create a character who isn't gloriously diverse illuminatingly contradictory heart breakingly alive A personal odyssey of discovery a confrontation with others in the process of which Brustein discovers himself from the Foreword by John Braine With an Introduction by Robert Nemiroff

Global Transformations David Held, 1999 In this book the authors set forth a new model of globalization that lays claims to supersede existing models and then use this model to assess the way the processes of globalization have operated in different historic periods in respect to political organization military globalization trade finance corporate productivity migration culture and the environment Each of these topics is covered in a chapter which contrasts the contemporary nature of globalization with that of earlier epochs In mapping the shape and political consequences of globalization the authors concentrate on six states in advanced capitalist societies SIACS the United States the United Kingdom Sweden France Germany and Japan For comparative purposes other states particularly those with developing economics are referred to and discussed where relevant The book concludes by systematically describing and assessing contemporary globalization and appraising the implications of globalization for the sovereignty and autonomy of SIACS It also confronts directly the political fatalism that surrounds much discussion of globalization with a normative agenda that elaborates the possibilities for democratizing and civilizing the unfolding global transformation

Reinventing Richard Nixon Daniel E. Frick, 2008 Examining Nixon's autobiographies and political memorabilia Frick offers far reaching perceptions not only of the man but of Nixon's version of himself contrasted with those who would interpret him differently. He cites reinventions of Nixon from the late 1980s particularly the museum at the Richard Nixon Library and Birthplace to demonstrate the resilience of certain national mythic narratives in the face of liberal critiques. And he recounts how celebrants at Nixon's state funeral at which Bob Dole's eulogy depicted a God-fearing American hero attempted to bury the sources of our divisions over him rendering in some minds the judgment of redeemed statesman to erase his status as disgraced president. With dozens of illustrations Nixon posing with Elvis the National Archives most requested photo Nixonian cultural artifacts classic editorial cartoons no other book collects in one place such varied images of Nixon from so many diverse media. These reinforce Frick's probing analysis to help us understand why we disagree about Nixon and why it matters how we resolve our disagreements. BOOK JACKET Hollywood and China in the Post-postclassical Era Lara Herring, 2024-03-18 This book examines the contemporary relationship between Hollywood and China as case studies that help to define a new era in Hollywood film industry style and economics which is termed the post postclassical period. Centred around a case study of Legendary Entertainment the analysis shows how the studio adopted and adapted its global strategies in order to gain access to and favour within the Chinese film market and how issues of censorship and financial performance affected the choices they made. Demonstrating Legendary's identity as a post postclassical studio and examining how this plays into its China strategy this book explores how this particular case and the necessary analysis of wider political economic relations offer a periodisation of the contemporary Hollywood China relationship. This book will interest students and scholars of media and film studies as well as academics whose research interests include global cinema Hollywood Chinese cinema transnational cinema and film industry studies. East Asian Screen Industries Darrell Davis, Emilie Yueh-yu Yeh, 2017-10-14 East Asian Screen Industries is a guide to the film industries of Japan South Korea Taiwan Hong Kong and the PRC. The authors examine how local production has responded to global trends and explore the effects of widespread de regulation and China's accession to the World Trade Organisation. Cinema, Space, and Polylocality in a Globalizing China Yingjin Zhang, 2009-10-09 In this milestone work prominent China film scholar Yingjin Zhang proposes polylocality as a new conceptual framework for investigating the shifting spaces of contemporary Chinese cinema in the age of globalization. Questioning the national cinema paradigm Zhang calls for comparative studies of underdeveloped areas beyond the imperative of transnationalism. The book begins by addressing theories and practices related to space place and polylocality in contemporary China before focusing on the space of scholarship and urging scholars to move beyond the current paradigm and explore transnational and comparative film studies. This is followed by a chapter that concentrates on the space of production and surveys the changing landscape of postsocialist filmmaking and the transformation of China's urban generation of directors. Next is an examination of the space of polylocality and the cinematic mappings of Beijing and a persistent reel contact with polylocality in hinterland China. In the fifth chapter Zhang explores the space of subjectivity in independent film and video and contextualizes experiments by young directors with various documentary styles Chapter 6 calls attention to the space of performance and addresses issues of media and mediation by way of two kinds of playing the first with documentary as troubling information the second with piracy as creative intervention The concluding chapter offers an overview of Chinese cinema in the new century and provides production and reception statistics Combining inspired critical insights original observations and new information Cinema Space and Polylocality in a Globalizing China is a significant work on current Chinese film and a must read for film scholars and anyone seriously interested in cinema more generally or contemporary Chinese culture The Army Lawyer ,1987 2017 Report to Congress of the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission, November 2017, 115-1 ,2018
