considerations the dynamics of the immediate post scholarship period and the impact of scholarships on international education and development Particular attention is focused on assessment and evaluation the complexities of selecting awardees the dynamics of returning home and concerns about brain drain and the state of knowledge and research on long term outcomes of international scholarships with social change aims nt Digital Scholarship 2009 Charles W Bailey Jr, Charles Wesley Bailey, 2010 Digital Scholarship 2009 includes four bibliographies the Scholarly Electronic Publishing Bibliography 2009 Annual Edition the Institutional Repository Bibliography the Electronic Theses and Dissertations Bibliography and the Google Book Search Bibliography The longest bibliography the Scholarly Electronic Publishing Bibliography 2009 Annual Edition presents selected English language articles books and other printed and electronic sources that are useful in understanding scholarly electronic publishing efforts on the Internet Most sources have been published between 1990 and 2009 however a limited number of key sources published prior to 1990 are also included Peter Jacso said in ONLINE vol 27 no 3 2003 pp 73 76 SEP Scholarly Electronic Publishing Bibliography is compiled with utter professionalism It reminds me of the work of the best artisans who know not only every item that leaves their workshops but each component used to create them providing the ideal quality control The selection of items is impeccable I have yet to find journal articles irrelevant to the scope of the bibliography SEP could be used as a benchmark in evaluating abstracting indexing databases that proudly claim to have coverage of electronic publishing but do not come close to SEP Faith, Scholarship, and Culture in the 21st Century Alice Ramos, Marie I. George, 2002 While some intellectuals at the end of the nineteenth century argued that scientific progress would eventually cause the demise of religion it is evident that this has not been the case and that contemporary science is in fact not necessarily inimical to a religious worldview So a fruitful dialogue between science and religion has become a reality But there is also a more fundamental question that arises which is not simply the relationship of the sciences or of other disciplines to religion but rather whether faith can and should have an impact on teaching and research The majority of the essays in this volume hold that the Christian faith provides definite cognitive advantages and that to leave one's faith at the entrance of the campus thus separating faith from reason leads to a schizophrenic view of the Christian's intellectual life This volume thus shows how the religious faith of intellectuals not all of whom are Christian exercises a real influence on their scholarship In consonance with the thought of Pope John Paul II it is the contention of the scholars whose essays make up this volume that a faith that imbues research and teaching will effect a transformation not only in themselves but also in their students and eventually in society Hence a faith that is fully received thought out and lived will penetrate culture and there is no doubt that present day culture stands in need of transformation In fact the encyclical Fides et Ratio from which a number of the essays draw inspiration attributes the secularization of the West in great part to the separation of faith from culture Jacques Maritain himself more than fifty years ago recognized that modern and contemporary culture had severed its ties with the sacred and in so doing had turned its back on humanity Now in the twenty first century as always human beings have a profound need for meaning and transcendence a need which scholarly reflection such as that found in this volume can help to satisfy In addition to the editors the contributors are David Arias Jr Mariano Artigas Gavin T Colvert John Goyette Frederick Erb III Heather McAdam Erb Alfred J Freddoso Jeanne M Heffernan Leon Klenicki Ralph McInerny John F Morris Warren Murray Peter A Pagan Teresa I Reed Robert Royal James V Schall S J William Sweet and Dallas Willard Alice Ramos and Marie I George are both Associate Professors of Philosophy at St John s University
