Off the Books J. Peder Zane, 2015-04-06 Head Off the Books in this collection of newspaper columns where J. Peder Zane uses classic and contemporary literature to explore American culture and politics The book review editor for the Raleigh North Carolina News Observer from 1996 to 2009 Zane demonstrates that good books are essential for understanding ourselves and the world around us The one hundred and thirty columns gathered in Off the Books find that sweet spot where literature's eternal values meet the day's current events Together they offer a literary overview of the ideas issues and events shaping our culture from 9/11 and the struggle for gay rights to the decline of high culture and the rise of sensationalism and solipsism As they plumb and draw from the work of leading writers from William Faulkner Knut Hamsun and Eudora Welty to Don DeLillo Lydia Millet and Philip Roth these columns make an argument not just about the pleasure of books but about their very necessity in our lives and culture

How to Pick a Lover Wesley L. Ford, 2009-12-21 While it may be considered taboo any woman married single or otherwise should feel good about her decision to take a lover How To Pick a Lover is a groundbreaking book written to help women have meaningful and rewarding love affairs How do you choose a lover There are no time-honored rules Greek chorus or yenta to tell you what qualities to look for or how to avoid potential minefields Literature is ripe with cautionary tales about bad things that happen to good women who stoop to the folly of taking a lover And traditionally a woman's sexuality has been secondary to that of a man's How To Pick a Lover takes you on a journey of self-discovery exploring your right to emotional and sexual fulfillment including the option of having a lover Many of your attitudes and beliefs about courting and being courted will be challenged throughout the pages of this book In return you will gain insights into the attributes and behaviors of men positive and negative that you must pay attention to if you are to pick a lover that is right for you

The Daily 5 Gail Boushey, Joan Moser, 2006 Do you love teaching but feel exhausted from the energy you expend cajoling disciplining and directing students on a daily basis Are you questioning the value of busy work but afraid that ceasing from such activities will lead to chaos in the classroom Have you heard the phrase work smarter not harder but don't have a clue how to start If so you'll want to meet The Sisters Gail Boushey and Joan Moser They set about designing a structure that would ensure all children were working at their level of challenge while taking responsibility for their learning and behaviour and that would provide meaningful instruction blocks without extensive preparation time for teachers Thus the Daily Five was born Based on literacy learning and motivation research the Daily Five has been practiced and refined in their own classrooms for 10 years and shared with thousands of teachers throughout the United States The Daily Five is a series of literacy tasks reading to self reading with someone writing word work and listening to reading which students complete daily while the teacher meets with small groups or confers with individuals
