American Henry James,1877 THE AMERICAN Henry James,2017-04-20 On a brilliant day in May in the year 1868 a gentleman was reclining at his ease on the great circular divan which at that period occupied the centre of the Salon Carre in the Museum of the Louvre This commodious ottoman has since been removed to the extreme regret of all weak kneed lovers of the fine arts but the gentleman in question had taken serene possession of its softest spot and with his head thrown back and his legs outstretched was staring at Murillo s beautiful moon borne Madonna in profound enjoyment of his posture He had removed his hat and flung down beside him a little red guide book and an opera glass The day was warm he was heated with walking and he repeatedly passed his handkerchief over his forehead with a somewhat wearied gesture And yet he was evidently not a man to whom fatigue was familiar long lean and muscular he suggested the sort of vigor that is commonly known as toughness But his exertions on this particular day had been of an unwonted sort and he had performed great physical feats which left him less jaded than his tranquil stroll through the Louvre He had looked out all the pictures to which an asterisk was affixed in those formidable pages of fine print in his Badeker his attention had been strained and his eyes dazzled and he had sat down with an aesthetic headache

The American James H., Henry James 1843 1916 was an American author regarded as a key transitional figure between literary realism and literary modernism The American is an uneasy combination of social comedy and melodrama concerning the adventures and misadventures of Christopher Newman He is an essentially goodhearted but rather gauche American businessman on his first tour of Europe Newman is looking for a world different from the simple harsh realities of 19th century American business He encounters both the beauty and the ugliness of Europe and learns not to take either for granted
