Black Friday Scholarships Ideas:

The Idea of Audience Simon Piening, 2025-02-25 What sort of relationship do artists want with their audience What kind of role do they imagine for the performing arts in their community Under the creative industries the audience relationship has been increasingly defined and shaped by marketing and or institutional interests Wedged between the competing needs of the market and their belief in the power of art to positively impact their communities many artists and arts workers are caught in what Julian Meyrick describes as a confused intellectual terrain While much audience scholarship has focused on understanding the motivations of audience members engaging with the arts there has been considerably less research into the motivations of arts professionals with respect to their relationship with the audience The Idea of Audience is a critical examination of the current fields of audience development and arts marketing and explores the relationship between artists and audiences from the perspective of the artists themselves The book will be of most interest to students and academics of audience development arts marketing theatre performance and audience studies It is hoped that the reader will gain greater insight into what artists actually mean when they talk about their audience

The Oxford Handbook of Methods for Public Scholarship Patricia Leavy, 2019 The Oxford Handbook of Methods for Public Scholarship presents the first comprehensive overview of research methods and practices for engaging in public scholarship The handbook features a wealth of highly respected interdisciplinary contributors as well as emerging scholars and chapters include robust examples from real world research in varied fields and cultures

Handbook of Research on Ethnic and Intra-cultural Marketing Brodowsky, Glen H., Schuster, Camille P., Perren, Rebeca, 2022-10-11 Investigating how markets are becoming increasingly similar across countries while simultaneously becoming more diverse and heterogeneous within countries this timely Handbook explores novel and under researched sub cultural marketing segments Contributions from a diverse group of established and emerging marketing scholars examine how we might better understand and serve new generations of consumers from a variety of generational ethnic and religiously diverse market segments

Dreamland of Humanists Emily J. Levine, 2024-05-31 Deemed by Heinrich Heine a city of merchants where poets go to die Hamburg was an improbable setting for a major intellectual movement Yet it was there at the end of World War I at a new university in this commercial center that a trio of twentieth century pioneers in the humanities emerged Working side by side Aby Warburg Ernst Cassirer and Erwin Panofsky developed new avenues in art history cultural history and philosophy changing the course of cultural and intellectual history in Weimar Germany and throughout the world In Dreamland of Humanists Emily J Levine considers not just these men but the historical significance of the time and place where their ideas took form Shedding light on the origins of their work on the Renaissance and the Enlightenment Levine clarifies the social political and economic pressures faced by German Jewish scholars on the periphery of Germany's intellectual world By examining the role that context plays in our analysis of ideas Levine confirms that great ideas like great intellectuals must come from somewhere

The Journal ,2000      Community-Engaged Scholarship Rita Axelroth Hodges,Michael Zuckerman,2025-06-17 A collection of stories by Penn alumni whose lives were transformed by engaging with the West Philadelphia community For over thirty years the Barbara and Edward Netter Center for Community Partnerships has served as the University of Pennsylvania s primary vehicle for advancing civic and community engagement at Penn The Netter Center develops and helps implement democratic mutually transformative place based partnerships between Penn and its local geographic community of West Philadelphia These partnerships advance research teaching learning and service while improving the quality of life and learning in the community One of the Netter Center s primary objectives has been to educate Penn students to be creative compassionate ethical citizens who contribute significantly to improving the welfare of others while they are students and throughout their lives and careers Community Engaged Scholarship is a collection of stories told by alumni of the University of Pennsylvania whose lives were profoundly shaped by engaging with the West Philadelphia community as students Their reflections trace the linear relationship between their involvement in democratic community partnerships through Penn s Netter Center and their current professional activities primarily in academia where they remain actively engaged in the struggle to build a more democratic and equitable society The mutuality and humility that pervade these autobiographical accounts are the core of the democratic aspiration to which the Netter Center is and has always been dedicated The stories are testimony to the Netter Center s and founding director Ira Harkavy s enduring influence on the next generation of community engaged scholars and practitioners Contributors H Samy Alim Jeff Camarillo Christina Cantrill Tamara Dubowitz Bernice Garnett Rita Axelroth Hodges John L Jackson Jr Jacqueline Kraemer David Park Jiyoung Park Wendell Pritchett Eric Schwartz Margo Shea Salamishah Tillet Kim Van Naarden Braun Michael Vazquez Jason Yip Andrew Zitcer Michael W Zuckerman      Sisters and Sisterhood Lyndsey Jenkins,2021-11-01 The Kenney family grew up in Saddleworth outside Oldham in the last decades of the nineteenth century In 1905 three of the sisters met Christabel Pankhurst a turning point which changed the rest of their lives Annie Kenney became one of the leaders of the Women s Social and Political Union WSPU Jessie was an organiser at the heart of the organisation and Nell campaigned outside the capital Caroline and Jane used their connections within the suffrage movement as the springboard for careers in innovative education on both sides of the Atlantic While working class women are increasingly acknowledged in histories of the WSPU this study is the first to make them the primary focus and in doing so it opens up a new conversation around sex class and politics and how these categories interacted in this period This is a study of the possibilities for and experiences of working class women in the militant suffrage movement It identifies why these women became politically active their experiences as activists and the benefits they gained from their political work It stresses the need to see working class women as significant actors and autonomous agents in the suffrage campaign It shows why and how some women became politicised why they prioritised the vote above all else and how this campaign came to dominate their lives It also places the suffrage campaign within the broader trajectory of their lives to stress how far the personal and political were intertwined for these women. Although this is a book about working class suffragettes, Lyndsey Jenkins also reveals what it says about women as workers and teachers, religious believers and political thinkers and friends and colleagues as well as suffragettes. Above all, it is a study of sisterhood. American Literary Scholarship 1976, American Literary Scholarship, 1978. Essayists survey the recent thought and research concerning outstanding authors, trends and movements in American literature. Higher Education Opportunities for Minorities and Women, Annotated Selections, 1983. Studien und Mitteilungen zur Geschichte des Benediktinerordens und seiner Zweige, 1901. Scholarship and Loan Program, United States Congress, House, Committee on Education and Labor, 1958. The Routledge Companion to Public Humanities Scholarship, Daniel Fisher-Livne, Michelle May-Curry, 2024-05-31. Across humanities disciplines, public scholarship brings academics and community members and organizations together in mutually beneficial partnership for research, teaching and programming. While the field of publicly engaged humanities scholarship has been growing for some time, there are few volumes that have attempted to define and represent its scope. The Routledge Companion to Public Humanities Scholarship brings together wide-ranging case studies sharing perspectives on this work grounded in its practice in the United States. The collection begins with chapters reflecting on theories and practices of public humanities scholarship. The case studies that follow are organized around six areas of particular impact in public humanities scholarship: informing contemporary debates, amplifying community voices and histories, helping individuals and communities navigate difficult experiences, preserving culture in times of crisis and change, expanding educational access and building and supporting public scholarship. The Companion concludes with a glossary introducing select concepts. Taken together, these resources offer an overview for students and practitioners of public humanities scholarship, creating an accessible vocabulary rooted in the practices that have so advanced academic and community life. Although drawing on case studies from the US, these examples offer perspectives and insights relevant to public humanities around the world. This book will be of interest to anyone working within the public humanities or wanting to make their work public and engage with wider communities. Federal Funding Sources for Rural Areas, 2001. News for Farmer Cooperatives, 1958. EASYUNI Ultimate University Guide 2015, easyuni sdn bhd, 2015-03-02.
