Choosing Faith John W. Saultz,2019-05-16 A belief is a judgment that we assume to be true when making life decisions Our beliefs cannot conclusively be proven true or false Beliefs can be as simple as our preference for food or as profound as our religious beliefs How are beliefs different from knowledge or opinion How do beliefs develop and change over time and how do they become the foundation of our purpose in life This book is divided into three sections The first explains how beliefs are formed in childhood and modified and adapted when we become adults The second section explores different types of belief and introduces the notion of moral beliefs about right and wrong and religious beliefs about the existence and nature of God The final section of the book explains how beliefs are prioritized into a faith that becomes our framework for making life decisions The beliefs we hold most dear form the building blocks of our purpose in life We have the freedom to choose our beliefs so we have the freedom to choose our purpose The goal of this book is to help the reader think deeply about this process and explore the meaning of this freedom

Designing Retail Experience in the 21st Century D.J. Huppertz, 2025-04-03 Covering 2001 to today Designing Retail Experience in the 21st Century presents readers with a critical cross disciplinary perspective on retail design bringing together scholarship from design architecture branding cultural studies and social studies Our retail experience has changed profoundly over the past two decades largely due to the impact of digital technologies While the rise of smartphones and online commerce threatened to displace bricks and mortar stores physical shopping has survived and in some cases thrived Today the most successful brands design experiences that engage customers both within the physical store and in the digital realm In this book D J Huppertz analyses how corporations design these experiences how we interact with them and how they align with broader social cultural and economic changes Eight case studies reveal how some of the largest global retail chains including Apple Amazon Nike Zara IKEA and LEGO and smaller chains such as Aesop and Gentle Monster utilize design to create engaging experiences Unlike in the past such corporations consider design in a continuum that extends from architecture and interiors to product and service design and from website and digital interactions to social media At the intersection of design and cultural studies this book provides a critical survey and understanding of design and retail experience in the 21st century
