Post-TV Michael Strangelove, 2015-03-27 In the late 2000s television no longer referred to an object to be watched it had transformed into content to be streamed downloaded and shared Tens of millions of viewers have cut the cord abandoned cable television tuned into online services like Netflix Hulu and YouTube and also watch pirated movies and programmes at an unprecedented rate The idea that the Internet will devastate the television and film industry in the same way that it gutted the music industry no longer seems farfetched The television industry however remains driven by outmoded market based business models that ignore audience behaviour and preferences In Post TV Michael Strangelove explores the viewing habits and values of the post television generation one that finds new ways to exploit technology to find its entertainment for free rather than for a fee Challenging the notion that the audience is constrained by regulatory and industrial regimes Strangelove argues that cord cutting digital piracy increased competition and new modes of production and distribution are making audiences and content more difficult to control opening up the possibility of a freer more democratic media environment A follow up to the award winning Watching YouTube Post TV is a lively examination of the social and economic implications of a world where people can watch what they want when they want wherever they want Sorcerous Sea Carol Severance, 2014-04-01 War is a distant memory on the island and life should be returning to the former days of calm and abundance Yet evil is spreading throughout the land leaving disturbances and distress in its wake People are reporting that they have seen strange sights out upon the water Children are missing from the islands and also from the mainland while hungry sharks in search of food swim closer to land than ever before What is upsetting the delicate balance of the land and the sea Iuti Mano kinswoman of the sharks is beginning to suspect that her violent history is catching up with her She has killed the god of the sharks in order to free herself but now with her beloved children joining the ranks of the missing she must fight to restore that which she had most wanted to slay The City by the Sunlit Sea Tony Ives, 2015-02-18 Sci fi crime noir First there was the skeleton of a woman six years dead sitting in a chair in the desert Then there was the malevolent Mr Grey Hover who put her there and when Oscar Harper dies things take a turn for the worse Carthage is a city on the shore of the sunlit sea a place of canals parks and pleasant boulevards It s a place where you could take a pleasant stroll on a sunny afternoon if it weren t for those who walk in its sunless shadows A Dictionary of the Hawaiian Language Lorrin Andrews, 1865 Fortune and Misfortune in the Ancient Near East Olga Drewnowska, Małgorzata Sandowicz, 2017-01-03 In the week between July 21 and 25 2014 the University of Warsaw hosted more than three hundred Assyriologists from all over the world In the course of five days nearly 150 papers were read in three and sometimes four parallel sessions Many of them were delivered within the framework of nine thematic workshops The publication of most of these panels is underway in separate volumes As is usually the case the academic sessions were accompanied by many opportunities for social interaction among the participants and there was time to enjoy the historical and cultural benefits of etymology, a select glossary, by F. Kluge and F. Lutz Friedrich Kluge, 1899 Saltwater Sociality Katharina Schneider, 2012 The inhabitants of Pororan Island, a small group of saltwater people in Papua New Guinea, are intensely interested in the movements of persons across the island and across the sea, both in their everyday lives as fishing people and on ritual occasions. From their observations of human movements, they take their cues about the current state of social relations. Based on detailed ethnography, this study engages current Melanesian anthropological theory and argues that movements are the Pororans' predominant mode of objectifying relations. Movements on Pororan Island are to its inhabitants what roads are to mainlanders on the nearby larger island, and what material objects and images are to others elsewhere in Melanesia.
