

meditations for moms

You just dropped one of your kids off at practice, picked up another, and are trying to decide what to make for dinner. Your days are filled with work, parenting, and waiting for password reset emails.

You are parenting tweens and teens.

It's an amazing life phase, but also challenging. Decision overload is at its peak, and yet we have the least amount of downtime to actually think about all the balls we're juggling.

But friends, in the craziness, I've discovered Christian meditation, and it's giving me life right now.
