French Women Orientalist Artists, 1861-1956 Mary Kelly, 2021-07-26 This book is the first full length study dedicated to French women Orientalist artists Mary Kelly has gathered primary documentation relating to seventy two women artists whose works of art can be placed in the canon of French Orientalism between 1861 and 1956 Bringing these artists together for the first time and presenting close contextual analyses of works of art attention is given to artists cross cultural interactions with painted sculpted representations of the Maghreb particularly in Algeria Tunisia and Morocco Using an interdisciplinary open platform of discussion approach Kelly builds on established theory which places emphases on the gendered gaze This entails a discussion on women s painted perspectives of and contacts with Muslim women as well as various Maghrebi cultures and land all the while remaining mindful of the subject position of the French artist and the problematic issues which can arise when discussing European made ethnographic scenes Kelly argues that French women s perspectives of the Maghreb differed from the male gaze and were informed by their artistic training and social positions in Europe In so doing French women s socio cultural modernity is also examined Moreover executed between 1861 and 1956 the works of art presented show influences of Modernism therefore this book also pays close attention to progressive Realism and Naturalism in art and the Orientalist shift into Modernist subject matter and form Through this research into French women Orientalists Kelly engages with important discussions on the crossing view of the historical female other with the cultural other artistic hybridity and influence in art as well as the postcolonial response to French activities in colonial Algeria and the protectorates of Tunisia and Morocco On giving focus to women s art and the impact of cross cultural interchanges this book rethinks Orientalism in French art This book will be of particular interest to scholars in the history of art gender studies history and Middle Eastern and North African studies

Spiritual Tattoo John A. Rush, 2005-03-17 Say body modifications and most people think of tattoos and piercings They associate these mainly with the urban primitives of the 1980s to today and with primitive tribes In fact as this fascinating book shows body mods have been on the scene since ancient times traceable as far back as 1.5 million years and they also encompass sacrification branding and implants Professor John Rush outlines the processes and procedures of these radical physical alterations showing their function as rites of passage group identifiers and mechanisms of social control He explores the use of pain for spiritual purposes such as purging sin and guilt and examines the phenomenon of accidental cuts and punctures as individual events with sometimes profound implications for group survival Spiritual Tattoo finds a remarkable consistency in body modifications from prehistory to the present suggesting the importance of the body as a sacred geography from both social and psychological points of view
