A History of Islamic Societies Ira M. Lapidus, 2014-10-13 This third edition of Ira M Lapidus's classic A History of Islamic Societies has been substantially revised to incorporate the insights of new scholarship and updated to include historical developments in the first decade of the twenty-first century. Lapidus's history explores the beginnings and transformations of Islamic civilizations in the Middle East and details Islam's worldwide diffusion to Africa, Spain, Turkey, and the Balkans, Central, South, and Southeast Asia, and North America, situating Islamic societies within their global political and economic contexts. It accounts for the impact of European imperialism on Islamic societies and traces the development of the modern national state system and the simultaneous Islamic revival from the early nineteenth century to the present. This book is essential for readers seeking to understand Muslim peoples. Publisher information

African Kingdoms Saheed Aderinto, 2017-08-24 This history-rich volume details the sociopolitical, economic, and artistic aspects of African kingdoms from the earliest times to the second half of the 19th century. Africa has a long and fascinating history and is a place of growing importance in the world history curriculum. This detailed encyclopedia covers the history of African kingdoms from antiquity through the mid-19th century, tracing the dynasties, ties to modern globalization, and influences on world culture before, during, and after the demise of the slave trade. Along with an exploration of African heritage, this reference is rich with firsthand accounts of Africa through the oral traditions of its people and the written journals of European explorers, missionaries, and travelers who visited Africa from the 15th century and onward. Alphabetically arranged entries cover a particular kingdom and feature information on the economic, cultural, religious, political, social, and environmental history of the regime. The content references popular culture, movies, and art that present contemporary reenactments of kingdoms, emphasizing the importance of history in shaping modern ideas. Other features include primary source documents, a selected bibliography of print and electronic resources, and dozens of sidebars containing key facts and interesting trivia.

Early Exchange between Africa and the Wider Indian Ocean World Gwyn Campbell, 2016-12-19 This volume comprises a selection of essays by scholars from a variety of disciplines that discuss the exchange relationship between Africa and the wider Indian Ocean world (IOW), a macro region running from East Africa to China from early times to about 1300 CE. The rationale for regarding this macro region as a world is the central significance of the monsoon system, which facilitated the early emergence of long-distance trans-IOW maritime exchange of commodities, peoples, plants, animals, technologies, and ideas.

History of International Relations Erik Ringmar, 2019-08-02 Existing textbooks on international relations treat history in a cursory fashion and perpetuate a Eurocentric perspective. This textbook pioneers a new approach by historicizing the material traditionally taught in International Relations courses and by explicitly focusing on non-European cases, debates, and issues. The volume is divided into three parts. The first part focuses on the international systems that traditionally existed in Europe, East Asia, pre-Columbian Central and South America, Africa, and Polynesia. The second part discusses the ways in which these international systems were brought into contact with each other through the agency of

Mongols in Central Asia Arabs in the Mediterranean and the Indian Ocean Indic and Sinic societies in South East Asia and the Europeans through their travels and colonial expansion The concluding section concerns contemporary issues the processes of decolonization neo colonialism and globalization and their consequences on contemporary society History of International Relations provides a unique textbook for undergraduate and graduate students of international relations and anybody interested in international relations theory history and contemporary politics

Islamic Societies to the Nineteenth Century Ira M. Lapidus, 2012-10-22 First published in 1988 Ira Lapidus A History of Islamic Societies has become a classic in the field enlightening students scholars and others with a thirst for knowledge about one of the world's great civilizations This book based on fully revised and updated parts one and two of this monumental work describes the transformations of Islamic societies from their beginning in the seventh century through their diffusion across the globe into the challenges of the nineteenth century The story focuses on the organization of families and tribes religious groups and states showing how they were transformed by their interactions with other religious and political communities The book concludes with the European commercial and imperial interventions that initiated a new set of transformations in the Islamic world and the onset of the modern era Organized in narrative sections for the history of each major region with innovative analytic summary introductions and conclusions this book is a unique endeavour

In the Name of God Edmondo F. Lupieri, 2011-12-20 From the conquistadores in Central and South America to the Jesuits in China Edmondo Lupieri traces the consequences of European war and conquest for global cultural identities from the age of exploration to the present In the Name of God exposes the economic political and religious justifications and motivations behind the European conquests and uncovers some of the historical roots of genocide racism and just war Lupieri's animated and comprehensive historical sociological study masterfully weaves together a tapestry of ideas individuals and people groups linking them throughout to present day realities in often surprising ways Unflinchingly critical Lupieri describes how European indigenous encounters have shaped Christianity and the world irrevocably

The World the Plague Made James Belich,2024-06-25 A groundbreaking history of how the Black Death unleashed revolutionary change across the medieval world and ushered in the modern age In 1346 a catastrophic plague beset Europe and its neighbours The Black Death was a human tragedy that abruptly halved entire populations and caused untold suffering but it also brought about a cultural and economic renewal on a scale never before witnessed The World the Plague Made is a panoramic history of how the bubonic plague revolutionized labour trade and technology and set the stage for Europe s global expansion James Belich takes readers across centuries and continents to shed new light on one of history s greatest paradoxes Why did Europe s dramatic rise begin in the wake of the Black Death Belich shows how plague doubled the per capita endowment of everything even as it decimated the population Many more people had disposable incomes Demand grew for silks sugar spices furs gold and slaves Europe expanded to satisfy that demand and plague provided the means Labour scarcity drove more use of waterpower wind power and gunpowder Technologies like water powered blast furnaces heavily gunned galleons and musketry were fast tracked by plague A new crew culture of disposable males emerged to man the guns and galleons Setting the rise of Western Europe in global context Belich demonstrates how the mighty empires of the Middle East and Russia also flourished after the plague and how European expansion was deeply entangled with the Chinese and other peoples throughout the world Proof, Evidence and Hate

Crime Tshepo Bogosi Mosaka,2025-07-18 Proof is the property of a disputed fact being established inferentially from an extant fact This book explicates the structural components of this phenomenon in the context of hate crimes across various jurisdictions around the world It departs from the orthodox conception of evidence and proof as being a general value neutral or non normative and epistemic subject and offers a relativistic conception of this area of law The core argument is that proof is both semantically and methodologically determined by three conditions of materiality process and probativity This argument is then justified by the context specific application of this relativistic theory of proof to hate crimes This theoretical application of proof is sustained throughout the book using multiple examples and illustrations of hate crimes around the world The discussion both at the level of proof and hate crimes while focusing on the grounds of race religion and ethnicity specifically is framed in jurisprudential cross jurisdictional and interdisciplinary terms The book will be of interest to academics and researchers working in the areas of criminal law legal philosophy and procedural law The History of the Renaissance World Susan Wise Bauer, 2013-09-23 A chronicle of the years between 1100 and 1453 describes the Crusades the Inquisition the emergence of the Ottomans the rise of the Mongols and the invention of new currencies weapons and schools of thought
