Medieval Ecclesiastical Buildings Ireland 1789 1915:

Medieval Ecclesiastical Buildings in Ireland, 1789-1915 Niamh NicGhabhann, 2015 This is the first full length study of the perception and treatment of Gothic church architecture in Ireland in the period between 1789 and 1915 The book considers three main areas the perception of Gothic architecture the development of a tradition of scholarship on Irish Gothic and the actual changes wrought to the fabric of the buildings as well as the social and legal framework for those changes Shifting the focus from high status monuments such as the medieval cathedrals of Dublin the book considers the treatment of smaller medieval buildings These include the ruined monastic buildings and cathedral buildings outside of Dublin but also smaller parish churches that were being restored for reuse as places of worship such as those at Adare County Limerick and at Ballintober County Mayo It examines the increasingly political interpretation of these monuments throughout the 19th century and the role of these buildings as sites of memory within devotional landscapes The evolving professionalization of architectural restoration in this period is also charted and is considered within the developing legal framework for the protection of what was seen as ancient and national heritage Subject History Medieval Studies Irish Studies Architecture Religious Studies The Oxford History of British and Irish Catholicism, Volume IV Carmen M. Mangion, James Edward Kelly, John David McCafferty, Susan O'Brien, 2023 The fourth volume of Oxford History of British and Irish Catholicism provides an overview of the history of Catholicism in the four nations of the United Kingdom of Britain and Ireland between 1830 and 1913 and demonstrates how Catholics in both islands participated in national European and global cultures

Figures of Authority in Nineteenth-century Ireland Raphaël Ingelbien, Susan Galavan, 2020 This interdisciplinary collection investigates the forms that authority assumed in nineteenth century Ireland and their relations to international redefinitions of authority Using new comparative perspectives and archival resources it examines emerging types of politicians clerics and professionals and the extensions of their authority in visual oral and print cultures Classics and Irish Politics, 1916-2016 Isabelle Torrance, Donncha O'Rourke, 2020-10-28 This collection addresses how models from ancient Greece and Rome have permeated Irish political discourse in the century since 1916 The 1916 Easter Rising when Irish nationalists rose up against British imperial forces became almost instantly mythologized in Irish political memory as a turning point in the nation's history that paved the way for Irish independence Its centenary has provided a natural point for reflection on Irish politics and this volume highlights an unexplored element in Irish political discourse namely its frequent reliance on reference to and tensions with classical Greek and Roman models Topics covered include the reception and rejection of classical culture in Ireland the politics of Irish language engagement with Greek and Roman models the intersection of Irish literature with scholarship in Classics and Celtic Studies the use of classical referents to articulate political inequalities across gender sexual and class hierarchies meditations on the Northern Irish conflict through classical literature and the political implications of neoclassical material culture in Irish society As the only country colonized by

Britain with a pre existing indigenous heritage of expertise in classical languages and literature postcolonial Ireland represents a unique case in the field of classical reception This book opens a window on a rich and varied dialogue between significant figures in Irish cultural history and the Greek and Roman sources that have inspired them a dialogue that is firmly rooted in Ireland s historical past and continues to be ever evolving

Ireland: The Matter of Monuments Colleen M. Thomas, Paula Murphy, 2024-04-19 This collection considers Irish monuments from the medieval to the modern era The essays presented here acknowledge the plurality of values associated with Irish monuments Taking a holistic approach to the topic the volume contains contributions from art historians archaeologists historians and heritage practitioners The multidisciplinary and intersectoral contributions are placed in dialogue with one another providing a discussion of Irish monuments that is unique in its comprehensiveness The integration of research on early Irish monumental work with that of the more modern period situating all Irish monuments on a continuum of shared concerns is a significant pioneering element in this field The range of perspectives represented in the book reflects the complexity of cultural heritage in contemporary life and opens the conversation to include a wider range of views It will be a valuable resource for scholars students learned societies public bodies communities in Ireland and for anyone interested in sculpture An Open Access version of Kathleen James Chakraborty s chapter New states and old statues Ireland s monuments in an international context is available on the Liverpool University Press website

The Oxford Handbook of Victorian Medievalism Joanne Parker, Corinna Wagner, 2020 The Oxford Handbook of Victorian Medievalism Covers all aspects of medievalism in Victorian Britain Contextualizes the phenomenon historically with chapters looking at earlier centuries Relates Victorian medievalism to medievalism in other countries Book jacket

The Routledge Companion to Irish Art Fionna Barber, Fintan Cullen, 2025-04-30 This companion contains new and innovative writing on Irish art and its history from c 1800 to the present day This book critically engages with Irish art in a period linked to key events in Irish history beginning with the Acts of Union between Britain and Ireland 1800 01 and the significant social and cultural changes that resulted The book also provides a precedent for a focus on the significance of art in relation to other subsequent key historical events such as the early twentieth century struggles for independence or the role of political conflict in Northern Ireland from the late 1960s onwards and its aftermath Key themes covered include tradition and innovation upheavals of history place location and artistic formations Irish art and the wider world and embodiment and identity The book expands the critical discourse around Irish art over this period both within Ireland and beyond and encourages the potential for future scholarship in fields and periods not covered This book will be of interest to scholars and students working in art history Irish studies and colonial studies

Newman University Church, Dublin Niamh Bhalla, 2024-07-01 In 1854 John Henry Newman one of the foremost intellectual figures of the nineteenth century was officially installed as the rector of the first Catholic university in Ireland University Church constructed in 1855 6 was Newman s first objective when he agreed to the rectorship and it can be considered as a tangible manifestation of the idea behind the unprecedented Catholic university in Dublin the posing of an erudite Catholic alternative to post Enlightenment secularism and Protestant hegemony through a style based analogy to the early Church Despite physically embodying what Newman wished to achieve in and through his new university this early Christian style church which drew upon Roman and Byzantine basilicas has received little attention This book charts for the first time the significant place that the building occupies within the history of Victorian revivalist architecture Niamh Bhalla explores the meaningful connection between the church s context and the ambiguity of its early Christian style In the intersection of these two things a significant monument was created The study of University Church therefore provides an effective lens to understand more comprehensively the architectural revivalism that dominated the nineteenth century particularly the first stirrings of basilican and Byzantine revivalist architectures in the British Isles Praise for Newman University Church Dublin Newman University Church Dublin is an important contribution to the burgeoning study of historic architecture of the nineteenth century In studying the larger contexts of the church Niamh Bhalla illumines the aspirations of Cardinal Newman for the university that he directed and Catholicism in Ireland and the United Kingdom Robert S Nelson Yale University A riveting analysis of the University Church and its intellectual background Niamh Bhalla steers us effortlessly through the many strands of architectural and religious thought that lie behind Newman s church while revealing its seminal place in the history of the Byzantine revival Roger Stalley Trinity College Dublin Proceedings of the Royal Irish Academy Royal Irish Academy,1969 Plantagenet Ancestry: A Study In Colonial And Medieval Families, 2nd Edition, 2011 , A Corpus of Late Celtic Hanging-bowls with an Account of the Bowls Found in Scandinavia Rupert Leo Scott Bruce-Mitford, Sheila Raven, 2005 Celtic hanging bowls were produced from the fifth to the eleventh century and range from simple functional vessels to great masterpieces of the period The first part of the publication sets the bowls in their historical and cultural background and discusses all key aspects of hanging bowl research including the much disputed topics of origin use and chronology The second part is a comprehensive and highly detailed catalogue dealing with the whole series from Britain and Europe The publication is lavishly illustrated with over a thousand black and white illustrations and eight colour plates This long awaited book by the leading authority on the subject will become the definitive work on this distinctive class of Celtic artefact The Revolt of Silken Thomas Laurence McCorristine, 1987 The Subject Index to Periodicals , 1920 Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1976 A cumulative list of works represented by Library of Congress printed cards Revolutionary America, 1763-1789 , 1984 Ill on lining papers Includes index A Survey of Stone Circles in Cork and Kerry Seán Ó Nualláin, 1984 Irish Furniture Knight of Glin, James Peill, 2007 This lavishly illustrated and comprehensive volume is the first devoted entirely to the subject of Irish furniture and woodwork It provides a detailed survey encompassing everything from medieval choir stalls to magnificent drawing room suites for the great houses from earliest times to the end of the eighteenth century The first part of the book presents a chronological history illustrated with superb examples of Irish furniture and interior carving In a lively text the Knight of Glin and James Peill consider a broad range of topics including a discussion of the influence of Irish craftsmen in the colonies of America The second part of the book is a fascinating pictorial catalogue of different types of surviving furniture including chairs stools baroque sideboards elegant tea and games tables bookcases and mirrors The book also features an index of Irish furniture makers and craftsmen of the eighteenth century compiled from Dublin newspaper advertisements and other contemporary sources Published for the Paul Mellon Centre for Studies in British Art The Bicentennial of the United States of America American Revolution Bicentennial Administration,1977 A World Bibliography of Bibliographies, and of Bibliographical Catalogues, Calendars, Abstracts, Digests, Indexes, and the Like Theodore Besterman,1971
