Policing the Urban Environment in Premodern Europe Carole Rawcliffe, Claire Weeda, 2025-10-01 Tapping into a combination of court documents urban statutes material artefacts health guides and treatises Policing the Urban Environment in Premodern Europe offers a unique perspective on how premodern public authorities tried to create a clean healthy environment Overturning many preconceptions about medieval dirt and squalor it presents the most outstanding recent scholarship on how public health norms were enforced in the judicial religious and socio cultural sphere before the advent of modern medicine and the nation state crossing geographical and linguistic boundaries and engaging with factors such as spiritual purity civic pride and good neighbourliness

Public Justice and the Criminal Trial in Late Medieval Italy Joanna Carraway Vitiello, 2016-02-02 In Public Justice and the Criminal Trial in Late Medieval Italy Reggio Emilia in the Visconti Age Joanna Carraway Vitiello examines the criminal trial at the end of the fourteenth century Inquisition procedure in which a powerful judge largely controlled the trial process was in regular use in the criminal court at Reggio Yet during the period considered in this study technical procedural developments combined with the political realities of the town to create a system of justice that prosecuted crime but also encouraged dispute resolution Following the stages of the process including investigation denunciation the weighing of evidence and the verdict this study investigates the court's complex role as a vehicle for both personal justice and prosecution in the public interest
