Abe Lincoln Sterling North, 2012-03-28 Abraham Lincoln was born to a poor family on the American frontier. He was a hard worker but he wanted more than a farmer's life. As he learned about the issues of his day, Abe longed to be a lawmaker himself so he ran for the state legislature. Soon the farm boy would become the brilliant orator and admired president who finally proclaimed freedom for all Americans. Focusing on Lincoln's childhood and early manhood, this book explores the people and events that shaped one of America's greatest presidents

Meeting the Moment William Haldeman, 2024-11-01 The histories presented here are of a select group of US presidents: their inspired leadership characteristics and how they may inspire us today. The traits these presidents possessed were cultivated over a lifetime of lived experience and immortalized through the power of the presidential word: speeches, letters, and addresses which collectively represent the most transcendent documents in American history. Viewed through the lens of nuance, complication, human emotion, pathos, and drama, William Haldeman sets forth the lives of these presidents in ways to help inform our own lives from leveraging our experience and instincts to making the right calls when they matter the most. Grounded in an interdisciplinary approach, Haldeman appeals to both scholars and general audience readers alike, offering a refreshing view of presidential leadership that not only elevates leadership as a central part of the scholarly field but also broadly engages American presidency enthusiasts and readers of history, biography, politics, and leadership development
