From The Ashes Christopher Baxley,2021-01-11 Nothing speaks more volumes of concern when a child is abused The police in my hometown knew the man that abused me for almost 5 years of my life from the ages of 8 till I was 13 They were told of his confession with witnesses to his crimes against me Over 300 times I was abused When I was 16 years old I was walking into my counselor s office to talk about the vile things this man made me do as I turned around the corner there he stood The man that abused me had gotten a job there Yes where I was going to counseling to talk about his abuse He was never charged by the police He is friends with most of them on social media and untouchable I filed a complaint about having to walk past the man s office that abused me to talk about his abuse and the well known counseling place here threw me out of counseling because he was never charged even though I had been going there for years This sent me into a downward spiral I developed Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and lived in fear my whole childhood and into my adult life This leads to suicide attempts and thoughts about it every day for the next 20 years Nothing can make you think that your life does not matter more than when no one believed you as a child about abuse even though
