Meister Eckhart Sermons And Treatises Vol 2:

On the Blissful Islands with Nietzsche & Jung Paul Bishop, 2016-11-03 What are the blissful islands And where are they This book takes as its starting point the chapter called On the Blissful Islands in Part Two of Nietzsche's Thus Spoke Zarathustra and its enigmatic conclusion The beauty of the Superman came to me as a shadow From this remarkable and powerful passage it disengages the Nietzschean idea of the Superman and the Jungian notion of the shadow moving these concepts into a new interdisciplinary direction In particular On the Blissful Islands seeks to develop the kind of interpretative approach that Jung himself employed Its chief topics are classical the motif of the blissful islands psychological the shadow and philosophical the homo or superman blended together to produce a rich intellectual historical discussion By bringing context and depth to a nexus of highly problematic concepts it offers something new to the specialist and the general reader alike So this book considers the significance of the statue in the culture of antiquity and in alchemy and investigates the associated notion of self sculpting as a form of existential exercise This Neoplatonic theme is pursued in relation to a poem by Schiller at the centre of which lies the notion of self sculpting thus highlighting Nietzsche's and Jung's relationship to Idealism Its conclusion directly addresses the vexed and controversial question of Nietzsche's relation to Plato This book's main ambition is to provide a cross cultural interdisciplinary reading of key themes and motifs using Jungian ideas in general and Jung's vast seminar on Zarathustra in particular to uncover a dimension of deep meaning in key passages in Nietzsche Engaging the reader directly on major existential questions it aims to be an original thought provoking contribution to the history of ideas and to show that Zarathustra was right There still are blissful islands This book will be stimulating reading for analytical psychologists including those in training and academics and scholars of Jungian studies Nietzsche and the history of ideas Slavoj Žižek and Christianity Sotiris Mitralaxis, Dionysios Skliris, 2018-07-18 Slavoj Žižek's critical engagement with Christian theology goes much further than his seminal The Fragile Absolute 2000 or his The Puppet and the Dwarf 2003 or even his discussion with noted theologian John Milbank in The Monstrosity of Christ 2009 His reading of Christianity utilising his signature elements of Lacanian psychoanalysis and Hegelian philosophy with modern philosophical currents can be seen as a genuinely original contribution to the philosophy of religion This book focuses on these aspects of Žižek's thought with either philosophy and cultural theory or Christian theology serving as starting points of enquiry Written by a panel of international contributors each chapter teases out various strands of Žižek's thought concerning Christianity and religion and brings them into a wider conversation about the nature of faith These essays show that far from being an outright rejection of Christian thought and intellectual heritage Žižek's work could be seen as a perverse affirmation thereof Thus what he has to say should be of direct interest to Christian theology itself Touching on thinkers such as Badiou Lacan Chesterton and Schelling this collection is a dynamic reading and re reading of Žižek's relationship to Christianity As such scholars of theology the philosophy of religion and Žižek more generally will all find this book to be of great interest

Non-dualism in Eckhart, Julian of Norwich and Traherne James Charlton, 2012-10-25 The words me mine you yours can mislead us into feeling separate from other people This book is an exhilarating contribution to the spirituality of non duality or non separation Meister Eckhart Mother Julian of Norwich and Thomas Traherne are interpreted as theopoets of the body soul who share a moderate non dualism Their work is brought within the ambit of non dual Hinduism Specifically their passion for unitive spiritual experience is linked to construals of both the Self and Awakening as enunciated by Advaita Vedanta Charlton draws on poetry theology and philosophy to perceive fresh connections A commonality of interest is proposed between the three Europeans and Ramana Maharshi The concept of non duality is basic to much of Asian religion On the other hand Christianity has usually ignored its own non dual roots This text contributes to a recovery in the West of the vital unifying power of non dual awareness and connectedness

The Archaic Paul Bishop, 2011-09-30 The Archaic takes as its major reference points C G Jung s classic essay Archaic Man 1930 and Ernesto Grassi s paper on Archaic Theories of History 1990 Moving beyond the confines of a Jungian framework to include other methodological approaches this book explores the concept of the archaic Defined as meaning old fashioned primitive antiquated the archaic is in fact much more than something very very old it is timeless inasmuch as it is before time itself Arch Urgrund Ungrund primordial darkness eternal nothing are names for something essentially nameless yet whose presence we nevertheless intuit This book focuses on the reception of myth in the tradition of German Idealism or Romanticism Creuzer Schelling Nietzsche which not only looked back to earlier thinkers such as Jacob Boehme but also laid down roots for developments in twentieth century thought Ludwig Klages Martin Heidegger The Archaic also includes studies of the Germanic dimension of the archaic Charles Bambach Alan Cardew a discussion of the mytho phenomenological approach to the archaic Robert Josef Kozljani a series of articles on Jung s understanding of the archaic Paul Bishop Susan Rowland Robert Segal This book will be of interest to psychoanalysts anthropologists and phenomenologists as well as students of psychology cultural studies religious studies and philosophy as it seeks to rehabilitate a concept of demonstrable and urgent relevance for our time

Ethics and Theological Disclosures Guy Mansini, James G. Hart, 2003 Honouring distinguished philosopher and professor Robert Sokolowski for his work in phenomenology the essays included in this collection demonstrate the reception and fruitfulness of Sokolowski s analysis of moral action and his idea of a theology of disclosure

The Unity of Mystical Traditions Randall Studstill, 2018-08-14 This book argues that mystical doctrines and practices initiate parallel transformative processes in the consciousness of mystics This thesis is supported through a comparative analysis of Tibetan Buddhist Dzogchen rdzogs chen and the medieval German mysticism of Eckhart Suso and Tauler These traditions are interpreted using a system cybernetic model of consciousness This model provides a theoretical framework for assessing the cognitive effects of mystical doctrines and practices and showing how different doctrines and practices may nevertheless initiate common transformative processes This systems approach contributes to current philosophical discourse on mysticism by 1 making possible a precise analysis of the cognitive effects of mystical doctrines and practices and 2 reconciling mystical heterogeneity with the essential unity of mystical traditions The Medieval Natural World Richard Jones,2013-11-14 How did medieval people make sense of their surroundings and how did this change over the years as understanding and knowledge expanded This new Seminar Study is designed to familiarise students of medieval history with the ways in which medieval people interpreted the world around them how they rationalised their observations and why they developed the models for understanding that they did Most importantly it shows how ideas changed over the medieval period and why With extensive primary source material this book builds up a picture using medieval encyclopedias prose literature and poetry records of estate management agricultural treatises scientific works annals and chronicles as well as the evidence from art architecture archaeology and the landscape itself An excellent introduction for undergraduate students of Medieval history or for anyone with an interest in the medieval natural world Christian Compassion Monty L. Lynn,2021-06-17 Although not always unswervingly from antiquity until today Christians have engaged in charity As settings changed compassion evolved laying in place an ongoing mosaic of Christian ideas and institutions surrounding care From the antique and medieval to the modern and contemporary each age offers unique actors and insights into how compassion is viewed and achieved We consider repeating motifs and novel appearances in the arc of Christian compassion which enlighten and inspire Encountered on the journey are the formation and sacrifice of ancient Christians an emphasis on virtues taught through sparing and sharing the nascent social welfare of the Byzantine church the sacralization and mobilization of a medieval church innovative ideas from reformers who advance the role of the state and modern movements in justice peace humanitarianism mutual aid and community development

Buddhism and Linguistics Manel Herat,2017-11-11 This edited collection brings linguistics into contact with a millennia of works by Buddhist scholars Examining the Buddhist contemplative tradition and its extensive writings from an interdisciplinary perspective the authors bridge the gap between such customs and human language To do so they provide chapters on linguistics history religious studies philosophy and semiotics Uniting scholars from three different continents and from many disciplines and institutions this innovative and unique book is sure to appeal to anyone interested in Buddhist traditions and linguistics God Being Nothing Ray L. Hart,2016-05-09 One of the most influential voices in contemporary theology delivers a deeply original meticulously written new approach to the way we think about God Jack Miles author of God A Biography In this long awaited work Ray L Hart offers a radical speculative theology that profoundly challenges classical understandings of the divine God Being Nothing contests the conclusions of numerous orthodoxies through a probing question How can thinking of God reach closure when the subjects of creation are themselves unfinished when God s self revelation in history is ongoing and when the active manifestation of God is still occurring A renowned theologian and author of the landmark text Unfinished Man and the Imagination Ray L Hart now asks us to imagine God perpetually in process an unfinished God being self created from nothingness Breaking away from the traditional focus on divine persons

Hart reimagines the Trinity in terms of theogony cosmogony and anthropogony in order to reveal an ever emerging Godhead who encompasses all of temporal creation and within it human existence In Hart s stunning vision God s continual generation from nothing manifests the full actualization of freedom the freedom to create ex nihilo

The Sungod's Journey through the Netherworld Andreas Schweizer,2011-02-23 The ancient Egyptian sources come alive speaking to us without seeming alien to our modern ways of thinking Andreas Schweizer invites us to join the nocturnal voyage of the solar barque and to immerse ourselves with the Great Soul of the sun into the darkness surrounding us Here in the illustrations and texts of the Amduat threats hidden in the depths of our soul become visible as concrete images an analysis of which remains ever worthwhile even in the guise of the evil ominous or dark side of godhead with which Schweizer concerns himself The netherworld into which we descend underlies our own world Creative energies of dreadful intensity are active there and only death to which all must surrender makes us truly alive by offering us regeneration from the depths Erik Hornung from the Foreword The Amduat literally that which is in the netherworld tells the story of the nocturnal journey of Re the Egyptian Sungod through the netherworld from the time when the sun dies after setting in the west to its rebirth at sunrise in the east In the middle of the night in the profoundest depths of the netherworld this resurrection is made possible by a mystical union of the sun with the mummified body of Osiris god of the dead This great mystery of the union between the freely moving soul of the Sungod longing for the bright and boundless sky with Osiris s corpse which is irrevocably bound to the subterranean realm of the dead evokes the renewal of all life and the restoration of totality In the Egyptian belief system the pharaohs and in later times all blessed dead embarked on this same night sea journey after death ultimately becoming one with Re and living forever The vision of the afterlife elaborated in the Amduat dating from around 1500 B C E has been influential for millennia providing the model for an entire genre of Egyptian literature the Books of the Afterlife which in turn endured into the Greco Roman era Its themes and images persisted into gnostic and alchemical texts and made their way into early Christian portrayals of the beyond In The Sungod s Journey through the Netherworld Andreas Schweizer guides the reader through the Amduat offering a psychological interpretation of its principal textual and iconographic elements He is concerned with themes that run deep and wide in human experience drawing on Jungian archetypes to find similar expression in many cultures worldwide sleep as death resurrection as reawakening or rebirth and salvation or redemption whether from original sin as for Christians or from the total annihilation of death as for the ancient Egyptians

Fichte and the Phenomenological Tradition Violetta L. Waibel,J. Daniel Breazeale,Tom Rockmore,2010-08-31 This volume is a collection of previously unpublished papers dealing with the neglected phenomenological dimension of the philosophy of Johann Gottlieb Fichte which it compares and contrasts to the phenomenology of his contemporary Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel and to those of Edmund Husserl and his 20th century followers Issues discussed include a comparison of the early phenomenological method in Fichte and Hegel with the classical phenomenological method in Husserl Heidegger and Sartre as well as special topics namely the problem of self consciousness and intersubjectivity very important in Fichte s transcendental philosophy of the Wissenschaftslehre but discussed as well in 20th century phenomenology Fichte can be said to have invented the theory of intersubjectivity that was first developed by Hegel and then by Husserl Sartre or Ric ur Fichte can also be said to have in fact promoted a theory of intentionality based on tendencies drives purposes and will that got a modern shape and language by Husserl and his followers And even the deduction of the human body in Fichte s practical parts of the Wissenschaftslehre prepares the path for modern twentieth century theories of body feeling and mind

The Necessary Angel Massimo Cacciari, 1994-01-01 Cacciari academic aesthetics U of Venice and mayor of Venice as of 1993 surveys the history of angels in Judaic Islamic and Christian traditions and how Dante Rilke Kafka and other writers have used the metaphor of angels to speak about the phenomenology of language Translated from the

The Immanence of the Infinite Elizabeth Brient, 2002 Most scholars would agree that there is an epochal threshold between the world of the Middle Ages and the modern world Agreement on the nature and dynamic structure of that threshold is harder to come by Hans Blumenberg s original and compelling account of the transition from medieval to modern given in his 1966 work The Legitimacy of the Modern Age has received wide attention Elizabeth Brient begins her own account of the transition with an extensive critical assessment of central aspects of Blumenberg s work She elucidates his dialogical method of historical explanation then discusses the shortcomings of his defense of the legitimacy of modernity The transition to the modern world is marked by the process of making infinite the finite medieval cosmos Whereas Blumenberg focused on the spatial infinitization of the universe Brient claims that the process must be understood intensively as well as extensively In the now infinite universe of the new science the problem of finding a measure for man s self assertive activity and for human knowledge comes to the fore The second half of the book focuses on the way in which this difficulty is addressed with conceptual resources developed in the tradition of late medieval Neoplatonism in particular in the speculative thought of Meister Eckart and Nicholas of Cusa Specific attention is given to the way in which Cusanus notion of the immanence of the infinite in the finite responds to the need for a regulative ideal for human knowing This is the first book length treatment of Blumenberg to appear in English and will be a most welcome resource for readers engaged by debates concerning the status of modernity It will be of equal interest to students of Eckhart and Cusanus and to those generally concerned with the transition between the medieval and the modern world

ABOUT THE AUTHOR Elizabeth Brient is Assistant Professor of philosophy at The University of Georgia

PRAISE FOR THE BOOK Blumenberg could not have wished for a more reverent critique of his achievements or a more exacting textual exegesis regarding the sources of their philosophical content all written in a lucid style that is forthright in the defense of the depth of thought during the Middle Ages but also pleasing in its subtle irony with respect to Blumenberg s and the author s own metaphysical creed

The Enlightenment and the Intellectual Foundations of Modern Culture Louis Dupre, 2008-10-01 The prestige of the Enlightenment has declined in recent years Many consider its thinking abstract its art and poetry uninspiring and the assertion that it introduced a new age of freedom and progress after centuries of darkness and superstition presumptuous In this book an eminent scholar of modern culture shows that the Enlightenment was a more complex phenomenon than most of its detractors and advocates assume It includes rationalist as well as antirationalist tendencies a critique of traditional morality and religion as well as an attempt to establish them on new foundations even the beginning of a moral renewal and a spiritual revival The Enlightenment's critique of tradition was a necessary consequence of the fundamental modern principle that we humans are solely responsible for the course of history Hence we can accept no belief no authority no institutions that are not in some way justified This foundation for better or for worse determined the course of the following centuries Despite contemporary reactions against it the Enlightenment continues to shape our own time and still distinguishes Western culture from any other

The Contemplative Counselor Rodolfo R Nolasco Jr, 2010-12 The contemplative approach to life care and counseling demands a daily call to surrender the underlying attitude of meritocracy that heavily emphasizes good works to produce successful results in counseling At a fundamental level the contemplative counselor exhibits an unwavering reliance on the grace of God which transforms all that is descriptive of the counseling encounter From publisher description

A Daily Sip of Joy and Peace Eleanor Hooks PhD, 2016-11-03 In A Daily Sip of Joy and Peace Eleanor Hooks assures us that joy and peace are always present in our lives in spite of daily challenges and failed attempts to make sense out of the pain and suffering Each daily essay is a sip a small soothing elixir much like a calming cup of tea With the author's guidance we explore our relationship with a powerful presence learn the importance of kindness and compassion appreciate and honor all living things and set aside all worries and fears We explore what it means to work with integrity and to value the creative energy we all have within us We learn to notice how love shows up for us and through us and to ultimately become aware that nothing is lacking in our lives Eleanor Hooks shares lovingly her insights into the nature of joy and peace and invites you to enjoy the daily sips Out of This World Peter Hallward, 2020-05-05 Gilles Deleuze was one of the most influential French philosophers of the last century This book aims to make sense of his fundamental project in the clearest possible terms by engaging with the central idea that informs virtually all of his work the equation of being and creativity It explores the various ways in which in order to affirm an unlimited creative power Deleuze proceeds to dissolve whatever might restrict or mediate its expression including the organisms objects representations identities and relations that this power generates along the way Rather than a theorist of material complexity or relational difference Out of this World argues that Deleuze is better read as a spiritual and extra worldly philosopher His philosophy leaves little room for processes of social or historical transformation and still less for political relations of conflict or solidarity Michel Foucault famously suggested that the 20th century would be known as Deleuzian this sympathetic but uncompromising new critique suggests that our Deleuzian century may soon be coming to a close
