Necropolitics Necropolitics:

Queer Necropolitics Jin Haritaworn, Adi Kuntsman, Silvia Posocco, 2014-02-03 This book comes at a time when the intrinsic and self evident value of queer rights and protections from gay marriage to hate crimes is increasingly put in question It assembles writings that explore the new queer vitalities within their wider context of structural violence and neglect Moving between diverse geopolitical contexts the US and the UK Guatemala and Palestine the Philippines Iran and Israel the chapters in this volume interrogate claims to queerness in the face s of death both spectacular and everyday Queer Necropolitics mobilises the concept of necropolitics in order to illuminate everyday death worlds from more expected sites such as war torture or imperial invasion to the mundane and normalised violence of racism and gender normativity the market and the prison industrial complex Contributors here interrogate the distinction between valuable and pathological lives by attending to the symbiotic co constitution of queer subjects folded into life and queerly abjected racialised populations marked for death Drawing on diverse yet complementary methodologies including textual and visual analysis ethnography and historiography the authors argue that the distinction between war and peace dissolves in the face of the banality of death in the zones of abandonment that regularly accompany contemporary democratic regimes The book will appeal to activist scholars and students from various social sciences and humanities particularly those across the fields of law cultural and media studies gender sexuality and intersectionality studies race and conflict studies as well as those studying nationalism colonialism prisons and war It should be read by all those trying to make sense of the contradictions inherent in regimes of rights citizenship and diversity Biopolitics, Necropolitics, Cosmopolitics C.L. Quinan, Kathrin

Thiele, 2021-03-25 The concepts of biopolitics and necropolitics have increasingly gained scholarly attention particularly in light of today s urgent and troubling issues that mark some lives as more or less worthy than others including the migration crisis rise of populism on a global scale homonationalist practices and state sanctioned targeting of gender sexual racial and ethnic others This book aims to nuance this conversation by emphasising feminist and queer investments and interventions and by adding the analytical lens of cosmopolitics to ongoing debates around life living and death dying in the current political climate In this way we move forward toward envisioning feminist and queer futures that rethink categories such as human and subjectivity based on classical modern premises Informed by feminist queer studies postcolonial theory cultural analysis and critical posthumanism Biopolitics Necropolitics Cosmopolitics engages with longstanding questions of biopolitics and necropolitics in an era of neoliberalism and late capitalism but does so by urging for a more inclusive and less violent cosmopolitical framework Taking account of these global dynamics that are shaped by asymmetrical power relations this fruitful posthumanist and post decolonial approach allows for visions of transformation of the matrix of in exclusion into feminist queer futures that work towards planetary social justice This book is a significant new contribution to feminist and queer philosophy and politics and will be of interest to academics researchers and advanced students of gender studies

postcolonial studies sociology philosophy politics and law The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Gender Studies Populism, Authoritarianism and Necropolitics Ihsan Yilmaz, Omer Erturk, 2023-02-06 This book examines how Turkey's ruling party the Justice and Development Party AKP under the leadership of Recep Tayyip Erdoğan produces and employs necropolitical narratives in order to perpetuate its authoritarian rule In doing so the book argues that as the party transitioned from socially conservative Muslim democratic values to authoritarian Islamism it embraced a necropolitical narrative based on the promotion of martyrdom and of killing and dying for the Turkish nation and Islam as part of their authoritarian legitimation This narrative the book shows is used by the party to legitimise its actions and deflect its failures through the framing of the deaths of Turkish soldiers and civilians which have occurred due to the AKP's political errors as martyrdom events in which loyal servants of the Turkish Republic and God gave their lives in order to protect the nation in a time of great crisis This book also describes how throughout its second decade in power the AKP has used Turkey's education system its Directorate of Religious Affairs and television programs in order to propagate its necropolitical martyrdom narrative Ancient Necropolitics, 2025-01-27 This is the first collection of essays approaching aspects of Greek antiquity and its reception through necropolitics It discovers traces of necropolitics in the unburied and maltreated corpses of the Homeric epics it follows the manifestations of necropower in Greek tragedy historiography and biography and it delves into torture capital punishment and non normative burials in the ancient Greek world It contributes to the debate much of which is only available in modern Greek on recent archaeological evidence notably the iron bound individuals discovered in the Athenian suburb of Phaleron and includes a captivating exploration of necropolitics in Yorgos Lanthimos's Greek tragedy inspired cinema Educational Necropolitics Boni Wozolek, 2023-04-07 Scholars across fields of education have longstanding histories of critically considering the many ways that inequities in schooling are engendered and maintained and just as significantly how these forms of oppression might be resisted and refused Drawing from these important dialogues Educational Necropolitics shares two years of stories sounds and powerful images collected through a sonic ethnographic study What emerges from this work are the reverberations of how students in this context and more broadly how youth across the country often negotiate the intersections of race genders sexual orientations class and other parts of their complex identities in overwhelmingly white high school settings This book examines what is produced in the wake of educational necropolitics the capacity for schools to dictate to what degree minoritized students ways of being can remain intact and significantly it follows the daily lives of youth as they encounter forms of violence through what schools intend to teach what is left out what is learned through everyday interactions and what is valued through the broader emergent cultural contexts This groundbreaking work includes interactive e features that invite readers to travel and interact with participants of the study which utilizes deep listening in qualitative research and reflects the results of this sonic ethnography A truly timely text for educators and administrators Educational Necropolitics provides an immersive experience in which leaders can address and correct systemic racist practices in the school setting by drawing directly from first hand student experiences

The Necropolitical Production and Management of Forced Migration Ariadna Estevez, 2021-11-04 Using examples from the United States Mexico border Central America and South America this book argues that forced migration is not a spontaneous phenomenon but rather a product of necropolitical strategies designed to depopulate resource rich countries or regions Estevez merges necropolitical analysis with postcolonial migration and offers a new framework to study the set of policies laws institutions and political discourses producing a profit in a legal context in which habitat devastation is legal but mobility is a crime Violence deprivation of food or water environmental contamination and rights exclusion are some of the tactics used in extractivist capitalism Private and state actors alike use necropower both its first and third world versions to make people living and dead a commodity

Turkey's Necropolitical Laboratory Banu Bargu, 2019-10-08 Building on critical and contemporary theory these essays address the multiple ways in which the Turkish regime controls its citizens through physical destruction structural violence and exposure The 12 case studies include counterinsurgency warfare enforced disappearances cemeteries monuments prisons courts and the army

Body between Materiality and Power Nasheli Jiménez del Val, 2016-09-23 This volume situates and problematizes the points of tension implicated in diverse historical and theoretical conceptualizations of the body through a visual studies framework By proposing materiality and power as two polarities through which the body is mobilized it highlights the interstitial function of the body as a mediator between materiality and politics beyond the body soul mind dichotomy Specifically the book brings together complex analytical approaches to representations of the body in diverse media such as the visual arts television film literature architecture dance and theatre among others As a result and to highlight the interdisciplinary dimension of this collection of essays Body between Power and Materiality includes texts by scholars in a wide range of fields from art historians media studies experts and sociologists to literary theorists

Deconstructive Field Theory Pasquale De Marco, 2025-03-15 Semiotics the study of signs and symbols is a vast and complex field that has become increasingly influential in a wide range of disciplines in recent decades One of the most important and controversial topics in semiotics is the question of interpretation How do we interpret signs and symbols What are the limits of interpretation And what are the dangers of overinterpretation This book offers a new approach to interpretation called deconstructive field theory Deconstructive field theory is based on the idea that all interpretations are partial and incomplete and that there is no such thing as a single definitive interpretation of a text Instead every interpretation is a product of the particular context in which it is produced The context of an interpretation includes the reader's own experiences beliefs and values as well as the historical and cultural context in which the text was produced Deconstructive field theory argues that these factors all play a role in shaping the way that we interpret texts and that there is no way to eliminate their influence However deconstructive field theory does not argue that all interpretations are equally valid Some interpretations are more plausible and convincing than others and some are more useful for understanding a text The goal of deconstructive field theory is to help readers develop more sophisticated and nuanced interpretations of texts and to avoid the dangers of overinterpretation This book is intended for students and scholars of semiotics as well as for anyone who is interested in the study of interpretation It is written in a clear and accessible style and it is full of examples from literature film and popular culture We hope that this book will help you to understand the complex and fascinating world of semiotics and to see the world around you in a new light If you like this book write a review The Crisis in the Humanities Zarko Cvejić, Ana Petrov, 2016-12-14 This volume will appeal to the reader interested in the so called long crisis in the humanities and transdisciplinary approaches as a possible way out of this It comprises a selection of 23 essays by both established and young scholars from the United States Slovenia Croatia and Serbia coming from a variety of disciplines including aesthetics anthropology architecture art critical theory ethnography feminism film studies gender and queer theory literary theory Marxism musicology philosophy and sociology among others What brings all these together here is the intention to advance transdisciplinarity both in theory and in practice in their scholarly work as a possible solution to this purported crisis the subject of heated debate in academia since the 1960s revolving around the crisis of the subject and the humanities positioning as a field of research The book examines the place of the humanities in contemporary society and challenges the ways that issues that form the foci of various disciplines have been addressed in recent theoretical discourses It reflects on the status of the disciplines in the humanities and explores the links between history culture media and art

Economies of Recycling Catherine Alexander, Joshua Reno, 2012-08-09 For some recycling is a big business for others a moralised way of engaging with the world But for many this is a dangerous way of earning a living With scrap now being the largest export category from the US to China the sheer scale of this global trade has not yet been clearly identified or analysed Combining fine grained ethnographic analysis with overviews of international material flows Economies of Recycling radically changes the way we understand global and local economies as well as the new social relations and identities created by recycling processes Following global material chains this groundbreaking book reveals astonishing connections between persons households cities and global regions as objects are reworked taken to pieces and traded With case studies from Africa Latin America South Asia China the former Soviet Union North America and Europe this timely collection debunks common linear understandings of production exchange and consumption and argues for a complete re evaluation of North South economic relationships Anthropocene Reading Tobias Menely, Jesse Oak Taylor, 2017-10-13 Few terms have garnered more attention recently in the sciences humanities and public sphere than the Anthropocene the proposed epoch in which a human signature appears in the lithostratigraphic record Anthropocene Reading considers the implications of this concept for literary history and critical method Entering into conversation with geologists and geographers this volume reinterprets the cultural past in relation to the anthropogenic transformation of the Earth system while showcasing how literary analysis may help us conceptualize this geohistorical event The contributors examine how a range of literary texts from The Tempest to contemporary dystopian novels to the poetry of Emily Dickinson mediate the convergence of the social institutions energy regimes and planetary systems that support the reproduction of life They explore the long standing dialogue between imaginative literature and the earth sciences and show how scientists novelists and poets represent intersections of geological and human timescales the deep past and a posthuman future political exigency and the carbon cycle Accessibly written and representing a range of methodological perspectives the essays in this volume consider what it means to read literary history in the Anthropocene Contributors include Juliana Chow Jeffrey Jerome Cohen Thomas H Ford Anne Lise Fran ois Noah Heringman Matt Hooley Stephanie LeMenager Dana Luciano Steve Mentz Benjamin Morgan Justin Neuman Jennifer Wenzel and Derek Woods Routledge International Handbook of Queer Death Studies Nina Lykke,Tara Mehrabi,Marietta Radomska,2025-10-15 This Handbook aims to provide a comprehensive international cartography of Queer Death Studies offering broad in depth insights into the field and its emergence through tentacular transdisciplinary networking Taking research and art making on death dying mourning and afterlife into new directions it explores the multiple effects of contemporary necropolitics and the proliferation of death worlds during the current period of Earth s history The Anthropocene or the Age of Man Informed by queer critical posthumanist decolonial and feminist approaches the Handbook presents a unique variety of both critical and affirmative reflections upon the world s intersecting necropowers and ethico political potentials for social and environmental change Contributors speculate on ways to reimagine life death relations as vibrant entanglements They also investigate modes of mourning differently resisting necropolitical regimes that deem human and non human individuals and populations to be disposable and non grievable when they differ too much from the normative modern subject Universal Man in terms of intersections of gender racialisation class sexuality embodiment embrainment geopolitical positioning or species A thought provoking read this Handbook is intended for broad global audiences of researchers artists teachers students death professionals health careworkers activists and NGOs interested in tools to rethink and reimagine death dying mourning and afterlife from intersections of queering decolonising posthumanising and feminist perspectives Public Value and the Post-Pandemic Society Usman W. Chohan,2023-07-07 The destruction of the Covid 19 pandemic has marked every society with deep seated wounds whose scars have only begun to heal Yet even as societies take their first steps away from the trauma of the pandemic they confront new and perhaps equally daunting challenges in the post Covid era These challenges offer a unique occasion to consider how the mechanisms of public value PV creation and preservation can be rebuilt and improved mindful of what has been left in the pandemic s wake and of the difficult road that lies ahead The aim of this book then is to examine the forward looking possibilities of multi stakeholder value co creation which involves the renewed efforts of civil society public managers politicians and society at large in a new post pandemic era The book examines many different facets that appeal deeply to public value scholarship value stability transitions inequalities within between publics necropolitics disaster preparedness value measurement and sustainability all of which represent important explorations within public value theory and can greatly enrich PV research going forward This book will therefore be of use to both academics and practitioners of public administration and public policy as well as scholars of government health care policy and economics Globalizing Political Theory Smita A. Rahman, Katherine A. Gordy, Shirin S. Deylami, 2022-12-02 Globalizing Political Theory is guided by the need to understand political theory as deeply embedded in local networks of power identity and structure and to examine how these networks converge and diverge with the global With the help of this book students of political theory no longer need to learn about ideas in a vacuum with little or no attention paid to how such ideas are responses to varying local political problems in different places times and contexts Key features include Central Conceptual Framework Introducing readers to what it means to globalize political theory and to move beyond the traditional western canon and actively engage with a multiplicity of perspectives Organization Focused on key topics essential for an introductory class aimed at both globalizing political theory and showing how political theory itself is a globalizing activity Themes Colonialism and Empire Gender and Sexuality Religion and Secularism Marxism Socialism and Globalization Democracy and Protest and Race Ethnicity and Indigeneity Pedagogy Each chapter features theoretical concepts and definitions political and historical context key authors and biographical context textual evidence and exegesis from the foundational texts in that thematic area a list of discussion questions and a list of resources for further reading Committed to a multiplicity of perspectives and an active engagement between the global and the local Globalizing Political Theory connects directly with undergraduate and graduate level courses in political theory global political theory and non western political thought Literature and Epistemic Injustice Sarah Colvin, 2025-11-12 A vital resource for anyone interested in literature and politics this is the first in depth study of epistemic injustice as a concept for literary studies Focusing on contemporary fiction in an age of post truth it shows how eight novels set in different global contexts reveal epistemic injustice as an authoritarian practice and offer an aesthetics of resistance Epistemic injustice valorises the thinking of those in power while suppressing other people s knowledge it declares some people omniscient and others targets for violence This book tracks how the novels make tangible its strategic use and effects while suggesting in their form as well as their content that something else is possible Bridging political philosophy and literary analysis in clear prose this study offers exciting new stimuli for reading groups and general readers as well as for students of literature The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Public Spaces, Politics, and Policy Todd Alan Price, Morna McDermott McNulty, 2025-10-16 This books takes a deep dive into the historic sociopolitical and economic interests that have resulted in a frontal assault on the very governance of public education Recent decades have seen dramatic changes in the landscape of American public education including the closure of local schools elimination of teachers unions and local school board takeover attempts In order to explore the social and political motivations behind these changes the contributors address questions such as What tactics are being used to drive this paradigm shift where teachers are the enemy and schools are harming kids What events in this sociopolitical moment right now make it ripe for dismantling the democratic experiment of public education In an age of sound bites and instant news how can the nuanced and sometimes hypocritical narrative supporting public education compete for attention with the seductive political pablum of reactionary groups The voices in these chapters include those of curriculum theorists policy analysts education practitioners and leaders and parents all of whom engage in forms of activism at the local and or national level

Necropolitics Achille Mbembe, 2019-10-25 In Necropolitics Achille Mbembe a leader in the new wave of francophone critical theory theorizes the genealogy of the contemporary world a world plagued by ever increasing inequality militarization enmity and terror as well as by a resurgence of racist fascist and nationalist forces determined to exclude and kill He outlines how democracy has begun to embrace its dark side what he calls its nocturnal body which is based on the desires fears affects relations and violence that drove colonialism This shift has hollowed out democracy thereby eroding the very values rights and freedoms liberal democracy routinely celebrates As a result war has become the sacrament of our times in a conception of sovereignty that operates by annihilating all those considered enemies of the state Despite his dire diagnosis Mbembe draws on post Foucauldian debates on biopolitics war and race as well as Fanon's notion of care as a shared vulnerability to explore how new conceptions of the human that transcend humanism might come to pass These new conceptions would allow us to encounter the Other not as a thing to exclude but as a person with whom to build a more just world

Re-Activating Critical Thinking in the Midst of Necropolitical Realities Marina Gržinić, Jovita Pristovšek, 2022-03-09 This volume takes as its starting point the question of whether there is a pluriversal generation a younger group of scholars who do not necessarily collaborate or know each other but who are currently forming a radical structure that is viral in thought production and reflective on the current global recalibration of social relations brought about by the necropolitical and necrocapitalist governmentality emerging worldwide The 23 articles assembled in this volume transcend geographical boundaries conceive of the world as a single entity and develop strategies for radical change They are presented in five subchapters with two lines of demarcation one for entry invention and potentiality and the other for a grim threshold

Public Health in Postcolonial Africa Olukayode Faleye, Tanimola Akande, Inocent Moyo, 2023-11-03 This fascinating multi disciplinary collection examines how public health interventions in postcolonial Africa mirror wider manifestations of power in the region Beyond the role of public health intervention in tackling disease and prolonging life the book measures the social and political determinants of health which continue to exist in the postcolonial era The volume features contributions from scholars across both the social sciences and humanities exploring ongoing debates across a broad range of themes including Infopolitics biopolitics and healthcare Emerging infectious diseases environment and food cultures Health
