Nenagh, 1914-21 Gerard Dooley, 2015 The Maynooth Studies in Local History have brought about a quiet revolution in Irish local studies and have changed the larger landscape too Working from fascinating and little known sources and mobilizing the resources of energetic and imaginative scholarship an extraordinary range of subjects has been identified illuminated and brought into focus These 100 publications not only explore little known local episodes and phenomena they constitute a major contribution to the mainstream of Irish history Castles in Ireland T.E. McNeill, 2005-08-18 The castles of Ireland are an essential part of the story of medieval Europe but were until recently a subject neglected by scholars A lord's power and prestige was displayed in the majesty and uniqueness of his castle The remains of several thousand castles enable us to reconstruct life in Ireland during these crucial centuries Castles in Ireland tells the story of the nature and development of lordship and power in medieval Ireland Ireland formed the setting to the interplay of the differing roles of competing lordships English and Irish feudal European and Gaelic royal and baronial Tom McNeill argues that the design of the castles contests the traditional view of Ireland as a land torn by war and divided culturally between the English and Irish

The Holy Well Tradition Stiofán Ó Cadhla, 2002 It is estimated that there are up to 3000 holy wells in Ireland The pattern or feast day of the local patron saint has been viewed as one of the most typical aspects of Irish culture and has served to define that culture as either primitive in a negative sense or traditional in a positive sense The pattern in honour of St Declan of Ardmore County Waterford has been one of the most widely patronized in Munster and provides an opportunity to look at patterns in general through one particularly illustrative example A History of the Black Death in Ireland Maria Kelly, 2001 Transported by rats and fleas in the trading vessels plying between Ireland England and France the plague appeared in Dublin and Drogheda in the summer of 1348 By land and sea it penetrated many regions reaching outwards to Waterford Youghal Cork and Limerick wiping out whole communities in its path Maria Kelly goes in search of the Great Pestilence and traces how the Irish reacted to this seemingly invisible killer Who's who Henry Robert Addison, Charles Henry Oakes, William John Lawson, Douglas Brooke Wheelton Sladen, 1941 An annual biographical dictionary with which is incorporated Men and women of the time Who was who, 1961 Vols 1897 1916 published in 1920 which included obituaries of those who died up to Sept 15 1915 was reissued in 1929 with title page 1897 1915 and included addenda giving details of additional death 1897 to the end of 1915 which had not previously come to the attention of the editor
