Sport Officiating Lori Livingston, Susan L. Forbes, Nick Wattie, Ian Cunningham, 2020-04-14 Sport officials are tasked with maintaining order and adjudicating sport contests. Given their multifaceted role in enforcing rules, standardizing competitions, and keeping sport safe for all participants, they are a requisite part of the sport workforce. With ongoing reports of annual attrition rates in officiating in excess of 20-35% for various sports around the world, there is more than ample evidence that officiating dropout is a persistent, pervasive, and global challenge underpinned by multiple contributing factors, including but not limited to the threat of verbal and physical abuse. Moreover, despite worldwide recognition and growing interest in the problem, there has not been a comprehensive resource for sport scientists and practitioners studying or working to reverse the ongoing trend. Sport Officiating: Recruitment, Development, and Retention provides a state-of-the-science summary in the emerging area of inquiry, limited to sport officiating recruitment, development, and retention, and provides insight and evidence-based approaches to the development of successful officiating development programs. ODP. This book is a primary reference work using a multifaceted, holistic, and evidence-based approach to integrate key findings from the sport science literature to date in suggesting and providing real-world solutions to the practical issues faced by sport organizers. Sport Officiating: Recruitment, Development, and Retention is a key resource for researchers interested in the development of sport officials and for sport practitioners aiming to implement officiating development programs ODP at any level within sport systems.

Officiating Volleyball American Sport Education Program, 2007 A comprehensive guide to officiating volleyball that discusses the duties of officials, match procedures, ball handling, violations, offensive alignments, overlapping, screening, and the rules as they apply to the game, the court, equipment, uniforms, teams, and officials.

Coaching Volleyball The American Volleyball Coaches Association, 1998-05-11 The most complete and indispensable collection of volleyball writings available. Coaching Volleyball a unique reference tool for coaches of one of the world's fastest growing sports touches on every aspect of the game. Never before has so much information by so many renowned volleyball authorities been collected in one volume. Includes articles from Terry Liskevych PhD, former head coach U.S. women's national team; Marilyn Nolen, head coach Saint Louis University and former U.S. women's national team member; Doug Beal PhD, head coach 1984 U.S. men's Olympic gold medal team and current head coach of the U.S. men's national team; and Geri Polvino PhD, head coach Eastern Kentucky University and certified FIVB instructor.
