 the International Conference on Advance Information Systems Engineering CAiSE turns 25 Initially launched in 1989 for all these years the conference has provided a broad forum for researchers working in the area of Information Systems Engineering To reflect on the work done so far and to examine prospects for future work the CAiSE Steering Committee decided to present a selection of seminal papers published for the conference during these years and to ask their authors all prominent researchers in the field to comment on their work and how it has developed over the years The scope of the papers selected covers a broad range of topics related to modeling and designing information systems collecting and managing requirements and with special attention to how information systems are engineered towards their final development and deployment as software components With this approach the book provides not only a historical analysis on how information systems engineering evolved over the years but also a fascinating social network analysis of the research community Additionally many inspiring ideas for future research and new perspectives in this area are sparked by the intriguing comments of the renowned authors Advanced Information Systems Engineering Anne Banks

Möhring,Karl-Peter Schuster,2012-12-06 The volume contains a selection of manuscripts of lectures presented at the International Symposium on Operations Research SOR 96 The Symposium took place at the Technical University of Braunschweig September 3 6 1996 SOR 96 was organized under the auspices of the two German societies of Operations Research Deutsche Gesellschaft für Operations Research DGOR and Gesellschaft für Mathematik Ökonomie und Operations Research GMOOR in cooperation with the Working Group Discrete Optimization of the IFIP WG7.4 Since 1995 DGOR and GMOOR jointly prepare the Symposium as a common annual conference. In particular the annual general meetings of the DGOR, the GMOOR and the WG7.4 took place during the conference. The Symposium had 527 participants from 32 countries around the world including 92 participants from Eastern Europe. The Symposium obviously attracts an international audience of workers fully covering the broad spectrum of Operations Research and related areas in economics, mathematics and computer science. The importance of a highly interdisciplinary field as Operations Research is increasing owing to the growth in applications in related disciplines. Technological advances in computer science and algorithmic mathematics are crucial for attacking the great challenges waiting in the areas of applications of Operations Research effectively. As a participant of SOR 96 one could well observe the current pace of achievements. Many of these results are in these proceedings. The program consisted of two plenary, 17 semi-plenary and 335 contributed lectures in 18 sections.

Transportation Science, 2003 Multiple Criteria Decision Making for Sustainable Energy and Transportation Systems Matthias Ehrgott, Boris Naujoks, Theodor Stewart, Jyrki Wallenius, 2010-03-10. In the twenty-first century the sustainability of energy and transportation systems is on the top of the political agenda in many countries around the world. Environmental impacts of human economic activity necessitate the consideration of conflicting goals in decision-making processes to develop sustainable systems. Any sustainable development has to reconcile conflicting economic and environmental objectives and criteria. The science of multiple criteria decision making has a lot to offer in addressing this need. Decision making with multiple conflicting criteria is the topic of research that is at the heart of the International Society of Multiple Criteria Decision Making. This book is based on selected papers presented at the societies' 19th International Conference held at The University of Auckland, New Zealand from 7th to 12th January 2008 under the theme MCDM for
