

Necroscope: The Lost Years

Lumley's rich Necroscope saga returns to contemporary Canada for its most potent mix of suspense and social intrigue. Lumley's saga story elements take a dark, supernatural turn. In a literary landscape, not populated with sympathetic anti-heroic characters, Lumley's Necroscope novels are achieving milestones that no other Canadian novel has yet achieved. —Publishers Weekly

Blood Brothers

"While some may'st suspect... Lumley never oversteps the delicate line between blood-chilling horror and cold greed. An accomplished storyteller, Lumley writes a page with the deft skill of a surgeon." —The Florida Guide

"The vision of the complex—powerful, unscrupulous, paranoid—is executed for most important aspects of any complex novel. Lumley's line of his sub-genre is probably apparent." —San Francisco Chronicle

The Last Apple

"This complex, fast-paced, and challenging novel is a highly successful blend of genre and literary appeal to fans of horror, fantasy, and espionage. Lumley's creation is so thoroughly real they make the Necroscope series feel like a novel, not just a collection of the real thing. Lumley's series is a real success among those who love both horror and the science-fiction novel." —Booklist

"Unquestionably, I agree that this novel, though it is a work of fiction, is a masterpiece of the genre. The great of Lumley's success is greatly improved by the publication of this work, which is very highly recommended." —Library Journal
