Paul M.M. Doolan,2025-10-01 Collective Memory and the Dutch East Indies Unremembering Decolonization examines the afterlife of decolonization in the collective memory of the Netherlands It offers a new perspective on the cultural history of representing the decolonization of the Dutch East Indies and maps out how a contested collective memory was shaped Taking a transdisciplinary approach and applying several theoretical frames from literary studies sociology cultural anthropology and film theory the author reveals how mediated memories contributed to a process of what he calls unremembering He analyses in detail a broad variety of sources including novels films documentaries radio interviews memoirs and historical studies to reveal how five decades of representing and remembering decolonization fed into an unremembering by which some key notions were silenced or ignored The author concludes that historians or the historical guild bear much responsibility for the unremembering of decolonization in Dutch collective memory Growing Up Communist in the Netherlands and Britain Elke Weesjes,2025-10-01 Growing Up Communist in the Netherlands and Britain Childhood Political Activism and Identity Formation documents communists attempts successful and otherwise to overcome their isolation and to connect with the major social and political movements of the twentieth century Communist parties in Britain and the Netherlands emerged from the Second World War expecting to play a significant role in post war society due to their domestic anti fascist activities and to the part played by the Soviet Union in defeating fascism The Cold War shattered these hopes and isolated communist parties and their members By analysing the accounts of communist children Weesjes highlights their struggle to establish communities and define their identities within the specific cultural social and political frameworks of their countries Dutch Scholarship in the Age of Empire and Beyond Maarten Kuitenbrouwer,2013-11-21 How was the Royal Netherlands Institute of Southeast Asian and Caribbean Studies KITLV which at its inception in 1851 had fewer than a hundred members and only one part time employee able to flourish to become around the turn of the twenty first century a modern professional institute with 1 800 members with a staff of more than fifty employees The Institute was founded with support from the highest political and official circles to gather scholarly information about the Dutch colonies in the East and West not least to undergird colonial policy KITLV played an important role in this backed by the Ministry of Colonies and the business world The Japanese occupation and decolonization led to a difficult process of adjustment for KITLV which was concluded successfully With its unique collections publications research and its office in Indonesia and involvement in the Caribbean the Institute has an international reputation This book is more than a report on 160 years of KITLV history It is also a history of scholarly practice about the former colonies These activities and especially the publications of the institute and its prominent members are measured against key terms such as orientalism and imperialism universalism and relativism Elseviers magazine ,1983 A Visual Approach to the Study of Religious Orders Marcin Jewdokimow, Thomas Quartier, OSB, 2019-05-01 A Visual Approach to the Study of Religious Orders applies visual methods to the exploration of various facets of religious life such as everyday lived experience contemporary monastic identity or monastic architecture Presenting a series of visual essays it treats images not as simple illustrations but as an autonomous form of expression capable of unveiling vital and developmental layers of experience while inviting readers to examine and interpret the data themselves The first book of its kind it brings together case studies from various locations across Europe to demonstrate what the use of visual methodologies can contribute to social scientific research on religious orders As such it will appeal to scholars and students of sociology religious studies and theology and anyone with interests in religious orders

Dutch Chicago Robert P. Swierenga, 2002-11-07 Now at least 250 000 strong the Dutch in greater Chicago have lived for 150 years below the radar screens of historians and the general public Here their story is told for the first time In Dutch Chicago Robert Swierenga offers a colorful comprehensive history of the Dutch Americans who have made their home in the Windy City since the mid 1800s The original Chicago Dutch were a polyglot lot from all social strata regions and religions of the Netherlands Three quarters were Calvinists the rest included Catholics Lutherans Unitarians Socialists Jews and the nominally churched Whereas these latter Dutch groups assimilated into the American culture around them the Dutch Reformed settled into a few distinct enclaves the Old West Side Englewood and Roseland and South Holland where they stuck together building an institutional infrastructure of churches schools societies and shops that enabled them to live from cradle to grave within their own communities Focusing largely but not exclusively on the Reformed group of Dutch folks in Chicago Swierenga recounts how their strong entrepreneurial spirit and isolationist streak played out over time Mostly of rural origins in the northern Netherlands these Hollanders in Chicago liked to work with horses and go into business for themselves Picking up ashes and garbage jobs that Americans despised spelled opportunity for the Dutch and they came to monopolize the garbage industry Their independence in business reflected the privacy they craved in their religious and educational life Church services held in the Dutch language kept outsiders at bay as did a comprehensive system of private elementary and secondary schools intended to inculcate youngsters with the Dutch Reformed theological and cultural heritage Not until the world wars did the forces of Americanization finally break down the walls and the Dutch passed into the mainstream Only in their churches today now entirely English speaking does the Dutch cultural memory still linger Dutch Chicago is the first serious work on its subject and it promises to be the definitive history Swierenga s lively narrative replete with historical detail and anecdotes is accompanied by more than 250 photographs and illustrations Valuable appendixes list Dutch owned garbage and cartage companies in greater Chicago since 1880 as well as Reformed churches and schools This book will be enjoyed by readers with Dutch roots as well as by anyone interested in America s rich ethnic diversity The Public and Private in Dutch Culture of the Golden Age Arthur K. Wheelock (Jr.), Arthur K.

Wheelock, Adele F. Seeff, 2000 This volume of essays derives from a memorable interdisciplinary symposium At issue were various fundamental questions about the nature of Dutch sixteenth and seventeenth century society that fall under three broad categories civic culture art and religion The fourteen papers presented in this volume offer a number of fascinating insights into these and other questions that taken together greatly enrich our perception and understanding of this rich and varied society A Classified Synopsis of the Principal Painters of the Dutch and Flemish Schools, Their Scholars, Imitators, and Analogists George Stanley, 1855 Indisch Lexicon P. Mingaars, J. Heij, P. Posthumus, 2021-09-13 In het Indisch Lexicon zijn bijna 19 000 Indische woorden en begrippen zoals ze in de Nederlandse taal vanaf ongeveer 1600 gebruikt zijn vastgelegd omschreven en in hun context geplaatst Van ieder woord is de betekenis gegeven op basis van reeds bestaande Indonesische Maleise Javaanse Soendaneze en Nederlandse woordenboeken Niet alleen enkelvoudige woorden maar ook samenstellingen en spellingsvarianten zijn opgenomen met citaten uit de bron waarin het betreffende woord voorkomt Dit lexicon is een belangrijk naslagwerk om de Indische woorden en uitdrukkingen die langzaam uit ons collectieve geheugen verdwijnen vast te houden weer tot leven te wekken en te verklaren binnen hun semantische en culturele context Global Mobilities Amy K. Levin, 2016-12-08 Global Mobilities illustrates the significant engagement of museums and archives with populations that have experienced forced or willing migration emigrants exiles refugees asylum seekers and others The volume explores the role of public institutions in the politics of integration and cultural diversity analyzing their efforts to further the inclusion of racial and ethnic minority populations Emphasizing the importance of cross cultural knowledge and exchange global case studies examine the conflicts inherent in such efforts considering key issues such as whether to focus on origins or destinations as well as whether assimilation integration or an entirely new model would be the most effective approach This collection provides an insight into diverse perspectives not only of museum practitioners and scholars but also the voices of artists visitors undocumented immigrants and other members of source communities Global Mobilities is an often provocative and thought inspiring resource which offers a comprehensive overview of the field for those interested in understanding its complexities The Family Album, and Repository of Amusement and Instruction, 1830 Uit een familie-album Johan Fabricius, 2013-03-18 De Fabricius fans hebben al wel eens eerder kennisgemaakt met zijn roemruchte Oom Pietje de grote visser uit de familie en zijn Tante Grietje die zich van haar huwelijksnacht zoveel meer had voorgesteld dan haar deel zou worden Deze keer echter verdiept hij zich ook in de huwelijksperikelen van zijn nichtje J chie naar wier warme mezzo sopraan de mensen op straat bleven luisteren maar die het met de liefde ook niet zo trof en ten einde raad haar man Roelof Bulders aan een vuurproef onderwierp een bedwelmend geurend hyacinthenveld stralend in de lentezon en gestreeld door een verkwikkende zeebries zou het slagveld worden waarop hij zijn minnevuur moest bewijzen Deze nieuwe bladzijde uit Fabricius familie album sluit zich in haar lichte humoristische en soms vertederende vorm aan bij het recente De hoed met de struisveer waarin hij vertelt hoe zijn moeder in 1894 als handschoentje naar Indi reisde waar haar man stond te trappelen om haar in zijn armen te sluiten En hoe het tijdens de stormachtige ontmoeting haar hoed met de struisveer een waar pronkjuweel verging Family Album Patricia Kay, 2002-09-03 More information to be announced soon on this forthcoming title from Penguin USA The Saththianadhan Family Album Eunice De Souza, 2005 Anthology of miscellaneous writings by the members of Saththianadhan family A History of Photography in Indonesia Brian C. Arnold, 2025-10-01 As a former colonized nation Indonesia has a unique place in the history of photography A History of Photography in Indonesia From the Colonial Era to the Digital Age looks at the development of photography from the beginning and traces its uses in Indonesia from its invention to the present day The Dutch colonial government first brought the medium to the East Indies in the 1840s and immediately recognized its potential in serving the colonial apparatus As the country grew and changed so too did the medium Photography was not only an essential tool of colonialism but it also became part of the movement for independence a voice for reformasi an agent for advocating democracy and is now available to anyone with a phone This book gathers essays by leading artists scholars and curators from around the world who have worked with photography in Indonesia and have traced the evolution of the medium from its inception to the present day addressing the impact of photography on colonialism independence and democratization Visual Cultures of the Ethnic Chinese in Indonesia Abidin Kusno, 2016-10-06 Visual Cultures of the Ethnic Chinese in Indonesia explores how visual representations shaped and were shaped by how the ethnic Chinese confronted the period of economic dislocation and radical social change during Dutch colonialism and the nationalist struggles in the decolonized Indonesia including the post 1965 and 1998 social environments How did the ethnic Chinese communities represent themselves to both their domestic and outside world under the changing regimes of representation How did they visualize symbolically their place in Indonesian society How did the visual shape the ambiguities of the Chinese the perception of the economic identity and the forgetting of their involvement in politics cultures and histories of the nation More broadly how did the visual address the interconnectedness of domestic life the urban cultural milieu and ideologies of the state and the ruling class The book is a response to two paradoxical socio political phenomena whose convergence is shaping the experience and conceptualization of ethnic Chinese in Indonesia On the one hand the economic technological and cultural forces of colonialism and globalization have created conditions for the formation of ethnic Chinese capitalists while on the other the state generated identity and identification constituted the discourses of othering the ethnic Chinese as foreign minority
