Negotiating Workload Hours Emma Howard:

Ranching on the Point Reyes Peninsula Douglas Livingston, 1993 Homosexuality in the Work of Gore Vidal Jörg Behrendt, 2002 Since his first novel with a homosexual topic The City and the Pillar appeared in 1948 Gore Vidal has been seen as an enfant terrible of American letters Through his ongoing writing career he has examined homo sexuality in the context of cultural religious and socio political developments so that it is fascinating to revisit his critical sometimes cynical and always wittily presented ideas which were formed at a time when Gay Liberation Gay Literature and Gay Identity were still unheard of and to discover the meaning these ideas still hold for us today The International Directory of Little Magazines and Small Presses Len Fulton, 2006-09 The biggest revision in ten years of the Bible of the business Wall Street Journal This essential reference for writers librarians students of modern literature and readers worldwide was started in the 1960s during the initial phase of the small press revolution It is safe to say that in its forty first edition the directory is a publishing legend It includes information on over 5 000 presses and journals from around the world listing addresses manuscript requirements payment rates and recent publications Subject and regional indexes are also provided Game Plan Bob Buford, 2009-09-01 Thousands of readers have found an exciting new vision for the second half of life in the bestselling book Halftime Bob Buford showed us that we aren't experiencing a midlife crisis that's winding us down to our retirement years but a break in the game that can prepare us for the most exciting half of life In Game Plan Buford gives you a practical way to move from success to significance and create an individual strategy that can get you where you want to be five ten twenty thirty or more years from now If you sense it's time for a positive change in your life Game Plan gives you the tools to uncover your best self aim for your highest dreams and make your career and personal life more meaningful and fulfilling than ever The SAGE Handbook of Graduate Employability Tania Broadley, Yuzhuo Cai, Miriam Firth, Emma Hunt, John Neugebauer, 2022-11-23 This Handbook brings together the latest research on graduate employability into one authoritative volume Dedicated parts guide readers through topics key issues and debates relating to delivering facilitating achieving and evaluating graduate employability Chapters offer critical and reflective positions providing examples of a range of student and graduate destinations and cover a wide range of topics from employability development to discipline differences gender race and inclusion issues entrepreneurialism and beyond Showcasing positions and voices from diverse communities industries political spheres and cultural landscape this book will support the research of students researchers and practitioners across a broad range of social science areas Part I Facilitating and Achieving Graduate Employability Part II Segmenting Graduate Employability Subject by Subject Considerations Part III Graduate Employability and Inclusion Part IV Country and Regional Differences Part V Policy Makers and Employers Perceptions on Graduate Employability Reimagining Probation Practice Lol Burke, Nicola Carr, Emma Cluley, Steve Collett, Fergus McNeill, 2022-10-17 This book provides a comprehensive and positive reimagining of probation practice in England and Wales across all the key settings in which work with people subject to supervision takes place Bringing together chapters co authored by academics and practitioners it offers an overall conceptualisation of the rehabilitative endeavour within the realities of a probation service recently unified after the acknowledged failure of the Transforming Rehabilitation reforms Reimagining Probation Practice covers the main themes and job functions of probation practice from court work to individual and group interventions to resettlement and public protection to partnerships to education and training Each chapter includes a brief critical history of the area of practice the current policy context the applicability of different forms of rehabilitation personal legal judicial social and moral to this area of practice an overview of current good practice and areas in need of development The book argues that the principles of parsimony proportionality and productiveness should be applied to the criminal justice system in its work to rehabilitate individuals This book is essential reading for practitioners and all those engaged in probation training as well as policy makers leaders managers and those interested in social and criminal justice After Work Shiori Shakuto, 2025-01-07 An ethnography of silver backpackers that offers a feminist perspective on what makes a good retirement in contemporary societies The moniker silver backpackers refers to Japanese couples who in their mid fifties to seventies move to Malaysia to enjoy their retirement Recent scholarship on Japan has revealed how the gendered division of labor impacts the lives of middle class workers and their families But how do cultural values live on or change when these professionals retire from work move on from identities built through salaried careers and embark on a new phase of life After Work takes up this question to focus on what comes after work and in the process expands our understanding of aging gender migration and the future of work Based on fifteen months of fieldwork in Kuala Lumpur and employing a transnational feminist framework After Work investigates moments of difference in the experiences of older women and men to examine patriarchal conversations that dominate ideas about contemporary retirement Shiori Shakuto argues that anxiety around self and belonging in retirement are instigated by the capitalist labor regime and the discourse of successful aging both of which devalue nonremunerated activities conducted at home What is needed instead she contends is a re valuation of key domestic activities from caring for children to pursuing individual hobbies so that life can be appreciated in its entirety Shakuto also takes into account the fact that this transnational retirement is set in Malaysia a nation that Japan occupied during World War II and thereafter subject to decades of economic investment and resource exploitation by Japanese corporations Highlighting how historical cultural and racialized complexities entangle with intimate relations in increasingly connected Asian countries while simultaneously acknowledging how the boundaries between work and life blur ever more in contemporary society After Work complicates our perceptions of aging and a good retirement as well as our understandings of gender migration and the future of work as we know it International Directory of Little Magazines & Small Presses Lenard V. Fulton, 2006 STRANGERS WHEN WE MEET Marisa Carroll, 2013-05-01 Welcome to Twin Oaks the new B and B in Cooper s Corner Some come for pleasure others for passion and one to set things straight Check in Radio talk show host Emma Hart thought Twin Oaks was supposed to be a friendly inn but fellow guest Blake Weston sure was grumpy Blake had planned to buy an old farmhouse just outside Cooper's Corner flee the rat race and propose to his girlfriend until he'd caught her in bed with the real estate agent Checkout That real estate agent was none other than Emma's soon to be fiancé Blake and Emma turned to each other for support and comforting hugs quickly turned to passionate embraces But fate wasn't through with them yet A shocking turn of events was about to deepen their newfound love forever COOPER'S CORNER continues with My Christmas Cowboy by Kate Hoffmann

Shakespeare in the "Post" Colonies Amrita Dhar, Amrita Sen, 2025-06-26 Shakespeare in the Post Colonies provides a wide ranging examination of engagements with and adaptations of Shakespeare in regions that were once under European colonial rule Arguing for the Post Colonies as a distinct category within Global Shakespeares this volume explores the reality of 21st century Shakespeares in geographies of post colonial and postcolonial inheritance such as continental Africa Australasia the Arab world the Indian subcontinent East Asia and the Americas As former colonies in Asia and Africa cross fifty and even seventy years of political independence contributors re-examine the presence of Shakespeare in marginalised or politically disenfranchised communities interrogating how Shakespeare intersects with the internal and global power dynamics of post independence nations The essays cover a rich array of genres ranging from theatrical performances translations and cinematic adaptations to classroom strategies They turn to texts that have often gone ignored and give voice to Shakespeare appropriations by subaltern groups Essays address questions of race gender nationality indigeneity caste and class shedding new light on the diverse range of contemporary Shakespeare engagements across the global Post Colonies

Implicating the System Elspeth Kaiser-Derrick, 2019-03-15 Indigenous women continue to be overrepresented in Canadian prisons research demonstrates how their overincarceration and often extensive experiences of victimization are interconnected with and through ongoing processes of colonization Implicating the System Judicial Discourses in the Sentencing of Indigenous Women explores how judges navigate these issues in sentencing by examining related discourses in selected judgments from a review of 175 decisions The feminist theory of the victimization criminalization continuum informs Elspeth Kaiser Derrick's work She examines its overlap with the Gladue analysis foregrounding decisions that effectively integrate gendered understandings of Indigenous women's victimization histories and problematizing those with less contextualized reasoning Ultimately she contends that judicial use of the victimization criminalization continuum deepens the Gladue analysis and augments its capacity to further its objectives of alternatives to incarceration Kaiser Derrick discusses how judicial discourses about victimization intersect with those about rehabilitation and treatment and suggests associated problems particularly where prison is characterized as a place of healing Finally she shows how recent incursions into judicial discretion through legislative changes to the conditional sentencing regime that restrict the availability of alternatives to incarceration are particularly concerning for Indigenous women in the system
