Recontextualizing Humor Villy Tsakona,2020-02-10 Humor may surface in numerous and diverse contexts which at the same time determine how humor works its form and its functions and consequences for interlocutors Adopting a sociolinguistic and discourse analytic perspective this study is aligned with approaches to humor exploring the variety of humorous genres the wide range of sociopragmatic functions of humor and the more or less dissimilar perceptions speakers may have concerning what humor is what it means and how it works The chapters of this book propose a new theoretical approach to the analysis of humor by bringing context into focus Furthermore the study explores how we can teach about humor within a critical literacy framework creating classroom space for everyday humorous texts that are part of students social realities and simultaneously taking into account that humor may yield multiple disparaging and often conflicting interpretations This book is intended to appeal to humor researchers from various disciplines such as linguistics media studies cultural studies literary studies sociology anthropology folklore as well as to professionals or researchers in education

Hands Down, Speak Out Kassia Omohundro Wedekind,Christy Hermann Thompson,2023-10-10 Math coach Kassia Omohundro Wedekind and literacy coach Christy Hermann Thompson have spent years comparing notes on how to build effective classroom communities across the content areas How they wondered can we lay the groundwork for classroom conversations that are less teacher directed and more conducive to student to student dialogue Their answers start with Hands Down Conversations an innovative discourse structure in which students ideas and voices take the lead while teachers focus on listening and facilitating In addition to classrom stories and examples Christy and Kassia provide 28 micro lessons designed to help K 5 students develop and excercise their speaking and listening muscles Inside Hands Down Speak Out you ll learn how to Build talk communities that are accessible to everyone especially those whose voices are often traditionally left out of classroom discourse Analyze classroom conversations in order to plan next steps for developing the classroom talk community Plan and facilitate three types of conversations across literacy and math Christy and Kassia believe that the development of dialogue skills is worth the investment of time not only becuae it has the power to deepen our understanding of literacy and mathematics but also to deepen our understanding of ourselves our communities and the world

Coaching in Communities Melissa Mosley Wetzel,Kerry H. Alexander,Claire

Collins,2023-05-30 A revolutionary framework for teacher learning centered on justice focused coaching that encourages culturally responsive practice and disrupts systems of oppression In Coaching in Communities researcher Melissa Mosley Wetzel and her coauthors distill the lessons of an eight year study into a transformative educator training model Coaching with CARE critical and content focused appreciative reflective and experiential They demonstrate how effective contextual teacher training can be a cornerstone of educational justice which occurs when all learners are supported to be successful in school and when schools expand notions of success to include diverse ways of life and learning The authors show how this new framework which draws from behavioral cognitive humanistic and critical models of coaching can be used in professional and informal learning contexts and in dialogue with families and communities to upend the status quo break down the expert novice distinction and cultivate just forms of practice As they note the work of justice is collaborative sustained engagement in resistance to marginalization racism and other inequities Coaching in Communities presents a set of tools including shared inquiry and coaching cycles of observation reflection and debriefing and demonstrates how they work in real life settings With these tools teacher education programs as well as districts schools and other organizations can train for change which is one essential step in school transformation Teaching Fiercely: Spreading Joy and Justice in Our Schools Kass Minor,2023-05-02 Revolutionize the way you negotiate the realities of childhood education In Teaching Fiercely Spreading Joy and Justice in Our Schools accomplished educator Kass Minor delivers an inspiring and practical exploration of what it means to be a just teacher in a system that actively incentivizes injustice The author explains how to build joyful experiences even in the face of inevitable injustice and demonstrates how to accept the seemingly conflicting experience of joy in the face of heartbreak In the book you ll learn to be a catalyst for change unlearning the patterns of school that have marginalized children while becoming aware of tenets of justice as they manifest in educational spaces You ll also discover Strategies for creating human centered care and joy in which thoughts actions and decisions are drawn from within the school community Techniques for creating student centered experiences within standards based classrooms How to raise the level of family involvement in your students education and improve communication between family and staff An essential blueprint for K 12 educators school support staff and school administrators Teaching Fiercely will also earn a place on the bookshelves of education policymakers researchers and students Mental Health in English Language Education Christian Ludwig,Theresa Summer,Maria Eisenmann,Daniel Becker,Nadine Krüger,2024-04-08 Mental health has become a growing concern in today s society with schools emerging as focal points for addressing this topic The present volume takes this as a starting point to explore the relevance of curricula and competencies texts and materials digital culture and communication and teacher education in the context of mental health and English language education This for instance includes insights into interrelated topics such as gender climate change stress and conspiracy theories A variety of texts including multimodal novels video games and songs provides practical impulses for integrating mental health related topics into English lessons As such this volume brings together scholars from various fields who discuss the relationship between mental health issues and English as a foreign language learning from a variety of theoretical empirical and practice oriented perspectives In Community With Readers Lynsey Burkins, Franki Sibberson, 2024-08-22 Whole class reading instruction has the power to harness the collective knowledge of the reading community that will foster independent readers and thinkers as they move through their literate lives What is the true purpose of whole group reading instruction Is it possible to teach standards and skills while also creating a community in which students are free to bring their whole selves into the work of reading And how do we make this vision an everyday reality in our grades 3-6 classrooms Elementary educators Lynsey Burkins and Franki Sibberson answer these questions and more in In Community With Readers: Transforming Reading Instruction with Read Alouds and Minilessons Burkins and Sibberson invite us into their classrooms as they redesign read alouds and minilessons to support readers in whole group reading instruction Inside this book you will find Ideas for co-creating a community aligned to standards and grounded in readers' identity, independence and agency A day-by-day look into what read alouds and minilessons look like across a reading unit Practical and meaningful routines for helping students co-construct an understanding of the standards, the books they read and one another's ideas Planning and note-taking templates designed to center both the standards we teach and the ideas our students bring to these standards An illustrated step-by-step guide to the first eight weeks of whole group reading instruction In this book Burkins and Sibberson push back on the idea that whole group reading instruction must be teacher-centered, skill and drill and instead offer us a way to create a truly meaningful whole group reading community

Negotiating Spaces for Literacy Learning Mary Hamilton, Rachel Heydon, Kathryn Hibbert, Roz Stooke, 2015-05-21 Negotiating Spaces for Literacy Learning addresses two paradoxical currents that are sweeping through the contemporary educational field The first is the opening up of possibilities for multimodal communication as a result of developments in digital technologies and the sensitivity to multiliteracies The second is the increasing pressure from standardised testing, accountability and performance measurement which pull curricular and pedagogical practices out of alignment with the everyday informal practices and interests of teachers and learners and narrow opportunities for diverse expressions of literacy Bringing together an international team of scholars to examine the tensions and struggles that result from the current educational climate, the book provides a much needed discussion of the intersection of technologies, literacies, education and self It does so through diverse approaches including philosophical, theoretical and methodological treatments of multimodality and governmentality and a range of literacies: early years, primary, school, workplace, digital, middle school, secondary school, indigenous, adult and place With examples taken from all stages of education and in several countries, the book allows readers to explore a range of multimodal practices and the ways in which governmentality plays out across them

New Methods of Literacy Research Peggy Albers, Teri Holbrook, Amy Flint, 2013-08-22 Literacy researchers at all stages of their careers are designing and developing innovative new methods for analyzing data in a range of spaces in and out of school Directly connected with evolving themes in literacy research theory instruction and practices especially in the areas of digital technologies gaming and web based research discourse analysis and arts based research this much needed text is the first to capture these new directions in one volume Written by internationally recognized authorities whose work is situated in these methods each chapter describes the origin of the method and its distinct characteristics offers a demonstration of how to analyze data using the method presents an exemplary study in which this method is used and discusses the potential of the method to advance and extend literacy research For literacy researchers asking how to match their work with current trends and for educators asking how to measure and document what is viewed as literacy within classrooms this is THE text to help them learn about and use the rich range of new and emerging literacy research methods Courageous Leadership in Early Childhood Education Susi Long, Mariana Souto-Manning, Vivian Maria Vasquez, 2016-02-15 In this inspiring collection 13 early childhood leaders take action to challenge and change inequitable educational practices in preschools and elementary schools For them educating for social justice is not an empty platitude Steadfast and resolute they turn rhetoric into reality as they guide early childhood teachers to teach for social justice innovatively and strategically Through the voices of families teachers and the administrators themselves each chapter shares ways that these leaders use the power entrusted in them to question and disrupt discriminatory and marginalizing practices that deny opportunities for some students while privileging others The book includes insights strategies and resources that administrators can use to build confidence knowledge and skills as they invest in more equitable and just pre schools Moving Critical Literacies Forward Jessica Pandya, JuliAnna Ávila, 2013-11-26 Taking the pulse of current efforts to do and in some cases undo critical literacy this volume explores and critiques its implementation in learning contexts around the globe An impressive set of international authors offer examples of productive critical literacy practices in and out of schools address the tensions and gaps between these practices and educational policies and attempt to forecast the future for critical literacy as a movement in the changing global educational policy landscape This collection is unique in presenting the recent work of luminaries such as Allan Luke and Hilary Janks alongside relative newcomers who use innovative approaches and arguments to reinvigorate and redefine critical practice It is time for this cutting edge inquiry into the state of critical literacy not only because is it a complex and ever evolving field but perhaps more important because it offers a reaction to and powerful reworking of standardization and high stakes accountability measures in educational contexts around the globe Engaging Literate Minds Peter H. Johnston, Kathy Champeau, Andrea Hartwig, Sarah Helmer, Merry Komar, Laurie McCarthy, Tara Krueger, 2020 Increasingly educators are recognizing that for children to thrive intellectually they need classrooms that offer and grow positive relationships and behavior emotional self regulation and a sense of well being Using the guiding principles from his best selling resources Choice Words and Opening Minds author Peter Johnston and six colleagues began a journey to create such classrooms environments in which children meaningfully engage with each other through reading writing making and discussing books By embracing the ideas and teaching strategies in Engaging Literate Minds you can help your students become socially emotionally and intellectually healthy c From publisher s description Perspectives and Provocations in Early Childhood Education Volume 2 Vivian Vasquez,Jeffrey Wood,Carol Branigan Felderman,2013-08-01 Mandates to implement practices that are antithetical to what we embrace as supportive of young children s literacy learning are pervasive Teachers of young children are asked to teach to the test in ways that take away opportunities for holistic thoughtful play oriented practices that allow children to construct knowledge through contextualized and purposeful experiences In 2009 the Early Childhood Assembly was formed by a group of early childhood educators to provide a home at the National Council for Teacher of English for all who work with young children Perspectives and Provocations in Early Childhood Education is a publication of the ECEA The publication is intended to support teachers of young children and those interested in studying about early literacy by putting on offer texts with a strong emphasis on promoting thoughtful practices that enhance the teaching and learning of young children within and across diverse communities All royalties from the book go to the ECEA to help the organization advance its goals of providing scholarships for early childhood teachers to participate in conferences and professional development events
