Negotiating Cultures and Identities John L. Caughey, 2006-12-01 Negotiating Cultures and Identities examines issues methods and models for doing life history research with individual Americans based on interviews and participant observation John L. Caughey helps students and other researchers explore the ways in which contemporary Americans are influenced by multiple cultural traditions including ethnic religious and occupational frames of reference Using the example of Salma a bicultural woman of Pakistani descent who lives in the United States and the story of Gina a multicultural American Caughey examines how to capture the complexity of each situation including step by step methods and exercises that lead the student interviewer through the process of locating and interviewing a research participant making sense of the material obtained and writing a cultural portrait Arguing that comparison between the subject's life and one's own is an essential part of the process the methodology also encourages the investigator to research his or her own social and cultural orientations along the way and to contrast these with those of the subject The book offers a practical manageable and engaging form of qualitative research It prepares the student to do grounded experiential work outside the classroom and to explore important issues in contemporary American society including ethnicity race identity disability gender class occupation religion and spirituality as they are culturally understood and experienced in the lives of individual Americans

Handbook of Culture and Migration Jeffrey H. Cohen, Ibrahim Sirkeci, 2021-01-29 Capturing the important place and power role that culture plays in the decision making process of migration this Handbook looks at human movement outside of a vacuum taking into account the impact of family relationships access to resources and security and insecurity at both the points of origin and destination

Negotiating Cultures and Identities John L. Caughey, 2006-01-01 Examines the issues and methods involved in conducting life history research

Navigating the Academic Career Victor N. Shaw, 2013-03-01 There is an urgent need to provide academic professionals with individual institutional and contextual accounts of their careers and career making endeavors An individual account makes academicians think about what they do and how they might do it better An institutional account makes academicians reflect upon the organizational environment in which they function and ponder what they might do to improve it A contextual account connects academicians and their work to knowledge the knowledge enterprise and the larger social structure so that they know and understand the impact they and their career making efforts have on themselves academia and general social processes This book examines academic careers and career making activities with respect to their main aspects milestones and general pathways In content it divides into four identifiable parts Part I focuses on professional preparation It examines education degree reeducation job search and job change Part II centers on organizational employment It investigates position research teaching service and tenure Part III revolves around professional networking It looks into publication conference presentation application for grants and awards and membership in academic associations Part IV rises above specific issues It explores general career pathways and overall scholarly identity Rethinking Race and Ethnicity in Research Methods John H Stanfield II, 2016-06-03 This collection of original work demonstrates the new ways in which particular research methodologies are used valued and critiqued in the field of race and ethnic studies Contributing authors discuss the ways in which their personal and professional histories and experiences lead them to select and use particular methodologies over the course of their careers They then provide the intellectual histories strengths and weaknesses of these methods as applied to issues of race and ethnicity and discuss the ethical practical and epistemological issues that have influenced and challenged their methodological principles and applications Through these rigorous self examinations this text presents a dynamic example of how scholars engage both research methodologies and issues of social justice and ethics This volume is a successor to Stanfield s landmark Race and Ethnicity in Research Methods

Multicultural Jurisprudence Marie-Claire Foblets, Alison Dundes Renteln, 2009-01-16 As individuals travel across borders societies have become more and more pluralistic The result of increased migration is the interaction among cultural communities and inevitably clashes between state law and customary law These cultural conflicts have given rise to a new multicultural jurisprudence In this volume scholars grapple with the immense challenges judges are currently experiencing everywhere To what extent can and should courts accommodate litigants requests by taking their cultural backgrounds into account This collection brings together powerful examples of the cultural defense in many countries in Western Europe North America and elsewhere It shows the ubiquity of this defense contrary to the mistaken impression that it has been invoked principally in the United States This book makes the case for undertaking studies of the use of the cultural defense in jurisdictions all over the world where this has not been previously documented Many of the chapters concentrate on criminal cases including homicide in the context of honour crimes provocation based on loss of face or witchcraft killings Some deal with other areas of law such as asylum jurisprudence family law and housing policy They show in concrete cases how cultural claims have arisen and how legal systems wrestle with these arguments It is clear that judges have had considerable difficulty handling many of the cultural claims The authors demonstrate persuasively the need to reconsider the proper use of cultural evidence in legal proceedings Those interested in the ways in which expertise influences the disposition of cases will find this book compelling

Contemporary Conversations on Immigration in the United States Judith Noemí Freidenberg, 2016-05-20 Contemporary Conversations on Immigration in the United States The View from Prince George s County Maryland contextualizes the narratives of international migrants arriving to Prince George s County Maryland from 1968 to 2009 The life course trajectories of seventy individuals and their networks organized chronologically to include life in the country of origin the journey and settlement in the county frame migration as social issue rather than social problem Having internalized the American dream immigrants toil to achieve upward social mobility while constructing an immigrant space that nurtures well being This book demonstrates that an immigrant s experience is grounded in personal social economic and political spheres of influence and reflects the complexity of migrants stories to help demystify homogenous categorization Mothering, Mixed Families and Racialised Boundaries Ravinder Barn,Vicki Harman,2015-09-04 This pioneering volume draws together theoretical and empirical contributions analyzing the experiences of white mothers in interracial families in Britain Canada and the USA The growth of the mixed race population reflects an increasingly racially and culturally heterogeneous society shaped by powerful forces of globalisation and migration Mixed family formations are becoming increasingly common through marriage relationships and adoption and there is also increasing social recognition of interracial families through the inclusion of mixed categories in Census data and other official statistics The changing demographic make up of Britain and other Western countries raises important questions about identity belonging and the changing nature of family life It also connects with theoretical and empirical discussions about the significance of race in contemporary society In exploring mothering across racialised boundaries this volume offers new insights and perspectives The notion of racialisation is invoked to argue that while the notion of race does not exist in any meaningful sense it continues to operate as a social process This crucial resource will appeal to academics researchers policy makers practitioners and undergraduate and postgraduate students This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Handbook on Lived Experience in the Justice System Christopher P. Dum,Jamie J. Fader,Thomas P. LeBel,Kevin A. Wright,2025-12-11 This volume offers a diverse set of scholarly essays on the imaginative potential of corrections and sentencing research practice that centers on the lived experience of the criminal legal system The Editors define lived experience broadly encompassing the subjective ways in which corrections and sentencing directly or indirectly affect a person s daily life They employ a diverse and expansive conceptualization of lived experience for example people with lived experience can be directly involved in writing or conducting the research or may be indirectly involved where the submission is about a program that includes people with lived experience in its operations e g credible messengers The volume includes 60 chapters written by academics practitioners and lived experts who are currently or formerly system impacted Chapters include short reflection essays on the meaning of lived experience state of the knowledge reviews on topics related to lived experience and more traditional empirical entries that highlight specific dimensions of lived experience This groundbreaking and thought provoking Handbook will appeal to academics practitioners policymakers advocates and students seeking to understand the many ways in which corrections and sentencing directly or indirectly affect a person s daily life This is Volume 10 of The ASC Division on Corrections and Sentencing Handbook Series The handbooks provide in depth coverage of topical issues around sentencing and corrections for scholars students practitioners and policymakers An Invitation to Social Construction Kenneth J Gergen,2015-04-25 This new edition of Kenneth J Gergen s celebrated text An Invitation to Social Construction is now even more accessible for students offering a clear and thorough introduction to one of the most significant movements in contemporary social science The Third Edition includes updates reflecting the many new developments in theory research and practice a more student friendly personal writing style three new chapters on education and therapy and health care and organizations key insights into how social construction can help support you in your research projects from start to finish An Invitation to Social Construction is the must read text for all social science students academics and practitioners wishing to learn about social constructionism along with the forms of inquiry and practice central to its impact Speaking Truths Valerie Chepp,2022-02-11 The twenty first century is already riddled with protests demanding social justice and in every instance young people are leading the charge But in addition to protesters who take to the streets with handmade placards are young adults who engage in less obvious change making tactics In Speaking Truths sociologist Valerie Chepp goes behind the scenes to uncover how spoken word poetry and young people s participation in it contributes to a broader understanding of contemporary social justice activism including this generation s attention to the political importance of identity well being and love Drawing upon detailed observations and in depth interviews Chepp tells the story of a diverse group of young adults from Washington D C who use spoken word to create a more just and equitable world Outlining the contours of this approach she interrogates spoken word activism s emphasis on personal storytelling and truth the strategic uses of aesthetics and emotions to politically engage across difference and the significance of healing in sustainable movements for change Weaving together their poetry and personally told stories Chepp shows how poets tap into the beautiful emotional personal and therapeutic features of spoken word to empathically connect with others advance intersectional and systemic analyses of inequality and make social justice messages relatable across a diverse public By creating allies and forging connections based on friendship professional commitments lived experiences emotions artistic kinship and political views this activist approach is highly integrated into the everyday lives of its practitioners online and face to face Chepp argues that spoken word activism is a product of and a call to action against the neoliberal era in which poets have come of age characterized by widening structural inequalities and increasing economic and social vulnerability She illustrates how this deeply personal and intimate activist approach borrows from builds upon and diverges from previous social movement paradigms Spotlighting the complexity and mutual influence of modern day activism and the world in which it unfolds Speaking Truths contributes to our understanding of contemporary social change making and how neoliberalism has shaped this political generation s experiences with social injustice Oral History Patricia Leavy,2011-02-24 Part of the Understanding Statistics Understanding Qualitative Research series Oral History serves as a guide to properly recording oral histories This volume also addresses the challenges of evaluating this material Handbook of Research on Diversity and Social Justice in Higher Education Keengwe, Jared,2020-05-22 There is growing pressure on teachers and faculty to understand and adopt best practices to work with diverse races cultures and languages in modern classrooms Establishing sound pedagogy is also critical given that racial cultural and linguistic integration has the potential to increase academic success for all learners To that end there is also a need for educators to prepare graduates who will better meet the needs of culturally diverse learners and help their

Intersectionality in the Arts Psychotherapies Jessica Collier, Corrina Eastwood, 2022-01-21 Intersectionality in the Arts Psychotherapies advocates for contextualising of clinical thinking and experience within a social and political framework that acknowledges the importance of intersectionality Bringing reflections on their own identity and their professional knowledge to the work creative therapists address both practical work with clients and the theory behind these therapeutic practices A call to reflexivity allows the reader to consider their own position as a practitioner These chapters will challenge and develop thinking on intersectional identities Beyond the individual the book demonstrates the need to embed knowledge of intersectionality in the profession at large Experienced practitioners write from diverse perspectives across the arts psychotherapies exploring how structures of power privilege and prejudice influence practice and outcomes

Art Therapy in Asia Debra L. Kalmanowitz, Siu Mei Chan, Jordan S. Potash, 2012-04-15 This edited book documents how the field of art therapy is taking shape as both a profession and a discipline across Asia It explores how art therapists in the East are assimilating Western models and adapting them to create unique and inspirational new approaches that both East and West can learn from

The Global Turn Eve Darian-Smith, Philip C. McCarty, 2017-05-23 Deploying interdisciplinary theoretical perspectives that speak to interconnected global dimensions is critical if one's work is to remain relevant and applicable to the emerging global scale issues of our time The Global Turn is a guide for students and scholars across all areas of the social sciences and humanities who wish to embark upon global studies research projects The authors demonstrate how the global can be studied from a local perspective and vice versa Global processes manifest at multiple transnational regional national and local levels interconnected dimensions that are mutually constitutive This book walks the reader through the steps of thinking like a global scholar in theoretical methodological and practical terms explaining the implications of global perspectives for research design

Justice Lessons Grant E. Tietjen, 2025-01-14 Since the 1990s the community of scholar activists who have had contact with the criminal legal system has grown rapidly solidifying into an international movement Drawing on in depth conversations with system affected academics as well as his own experience with incarceration Grant Tietjen traces the history positive impacts and future promise of this movement By offering networks of support to system affected people seeking higher education and using the perspectives afforded them by their lived experiences to push their disciplines forward Tietjen shows the movement effects reciprocal changes between the individual and the entire institution of higher education which ripple outwards and stand to contribute to the wider movement against carceral responses to harm
