Neo Liberalism Or Democracy Economic Strategy Markets And Alternatives For The 21st Century:

Neo-liberalism Or Democracy? Arthur MacEwan, 1999 Explores some central tenets of modern economics subjecting them to trenchant examination including the case for free trade and the inevitability of ever more grotesque income inequalities The book argues that there is a feasible alternative in a democratically controlled economic strategy Good Governance in the Era of Global Neoliberalism Jolle Demmers, Alex E. Fernández Jilberto, Barbara Hogenboom, 2004 By making use of a wide range of in depth case studies from various developing countries and post communist states this book analyzes the causes and effects of neoliberal restructuring and the process of depolitization that went with it The contributors critically examine the contradictory nature of good governance and the consequences that have been seen to go with it This important book provides a contribution to the literature on good governance It will provide an interesting read for those with an interest in economics and development studies as well as being useful to policy makers and non governmental organizations BOOK JACKET Education and the Fantasies of Neoliberalism Matthew Clarke, 2021-11-29 Education and the Fantasies of Neoliberalism revitalizes conversations about the nature and purpose of education in a global context characterized by concerns about quality and equity in education reflecting wider economic and political anxieties around declining productivity and social inclusion The book illustrates how Lacanian psychoanalytic theory offers a conceptual vocabulary for exposing and critiquing the fantasmatic nature of policy and practice while foregrounding the tensions and contradictions they seek to conceal Specifically the book draws on ideas of lack fantasy and desire from Lacanian psychoanalytic theory to gain insights into the contentious but disavowed politics of reform in education The book builds on cutting edge work in political and psychoanalytic theory to offer unique insights that challenge and contest the simplistic and often trivializing readings of education in contemporary media and political debates Offering a novel perspective on education policy reform this book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of philosophy of education and educational policy and politics Die Entgrenzung der Politik Mathias Albert, Bernhard Moltmann, Bruno Schoch, 2004 Developmental Politics in Transition C. Kyung-Sup, B. Fine, L. Weiss, 2012-08-31 Blending theory and case studies this volume explores a vitally important and topical aspect of developmentalism which remains a focal point for scholarly and policy debates around democracy and social development in the global political economy Includes case studies from China Vietnam India Brazil Uganda South Korea Ireland Australia Neoliberalism and Conflict In Asia After 9/11 Garry Rodan, Kevin Hewison, 2013-09-13 Key events in Asia's recent history have included the end of the Cold War the Asian Economic Crisis and the war on terror This is a critical assessment of these events and of the interplay of security and economics in shaping political regimes and modifying market systems Based on the notion that market systems are inherently political and conflict ridden this collection clarifies and explains the conflicts shaping the path of neoliberal globalization Collectively it represents a disciplined and systematic address of four overarching questions What are the significant conflicts emanating from neoliberal globalization and what are their implications What are the implications of new security concerns for these conflicts and what are their impacts How are conflicts associated with globalization and security affecting social and economic policy directions Can these directions be reconciled with the reproduction of existing political regimes or do they threaten their basis In addressing these questions the essays depict neoliberal globalization in the new security context as being able to accommodate a range of political regimes This fascinating collection is a must read for those with a professional interest in the region post 9 11 This book was previously published as a special issue of the Journal Critical Asian Studies We Need to Talk about Family Roberta Garrett, Tracey Jensen, Angie Voela, 2016-08-17 We are the first generation in recent history to not know if our children will have a better life than us Over the past thirty years the dream of upward mobility and stable and securely paid employment has dissipated This collection draws together insights from the disciplines of cultural studies literary theory psychoanalysis psychosocial studies social policy and sociology in order to explore the complex and contested status of the family under neoliberalism At one end of the spectrum the intensification of work and the normalisation of long hours working culture have undermined the time and energy available for private family life At the other end the fantasy of the nuclear family as a potential haven in a heartless world is rapidly unravelling supplanted with a hypercompetitive neo traditionalist mobile neoliberal family seeking to capitalise on the uneven spread of resources in order to maximise the futures of its own children As neoliberalism has always been split between socio economic realities and the expectations of where we should be we are always living with the anxiety of being left behind and the hope that the best is yet to come The chapters in this collection signal the troubles of the neoliberal family in particular the gulf between the practical conditions of family life and the formation of new fantasies The volume addresses the neoliberal family in a range of contexts from the domestic reproductive and bio political regulation of family life the representations of the neoliberal family on television and across social media to the negotiation of family dynamics in maternal memoirs The work provides a much needed corrective to the critical emphasis on the macrostructures of the neoliberal world Democratic Transitions in the Arab World Ibrahim Elbadawi, Samir A. Makdisi, 2017-01-05 A cross country examination of authoritarianism and democracy in North Africa and the Middle East

The History of Development Gilbert Rist, 2002-10 With all its hopes of a more just and materially prosperous world development has fascinated societies in both North and South Looking at this collective fancy in retrospect Gilbert Rist shows the underlying similarities of its various theories and strategies and their shared inability to transform the world He argues persuasively that development has always been a kind of collective delusion which in reality has simply promoted a widening of market relations despite the good intentions of its advocates

Lost in Mobility? Indre Genelyte, 2018-10-24 This thesis seeks to make both theoretical and empirical contributions to the understanding of intra EU mobility with a focus on labour migration from Lithuania to Sweden Inspired by a critical realist perspective the thesis aims to help to explain the dynamics and individual decision making behind mass labour emigration from the Baltic states its socioeconomic consequences and policy responses Theoretically the thesis proposes a model that synthesizes a social transformation approach with an extended version of Hirschman's analytical framework of exit voice and loyalty The three empirical articles based mainly on semi structured interviews are situated within this framework Two of the articles seek to explain the migrants decision making process of stay exit entrance in the context of the structural institutional social changes that followed 1 independence from the Soviet Union in 1990 2 EU accession in 2004 and 3 the 2008 2009 economic crisis with austerity The third article brings into the debate the perspective of the sending Baltic countries in a broader context of the East West migration debate The dissertation shows that the consequences of the neoliberal policies of the post communist and post crisis transformations together with the construction of formal migration channels after EU accession constitute various migrant categories Individual strategies of actively looking for channels to exit and enter combining them in different ways at various points of the migratory process and establishing informal social networks are re constituting who can be and who is a migrant Furthermore following the economic crisis and austerity measures the decision to emigrate extends beyond individual survival strategies instead becoming bound to an individual's perception of the ine quality of life and pursuit of a better quality of life for oneself and one's family across time and in different places Finally as the interviewed Baltic experts agree the EU's policy of the free movement is socially and economically problematic although the official Baltic states policy responses focus primarily on talented and needed diaspora members return or engagement These policies have proved to be inadequate to address demographic and socioeconomic challenges in part brought about by emigration The structural institutional conditions states and migrants strategies engender mobility as a social norm in the sending countries and promote and constitute the perpetuation of migration of both precarious labour migrants and active talented EU mobile citizens Avhandlingen avser att bidra både teoretiskt och empiriskt till ökad kunskap om den fria rörligheten inom EU med fokus på arbetskraftmigration från Litauen till Sverige Inspirerad av kritisk realism som samhällsvetenskaplig metod syftar den till att förklara såväl dynamiken i som det individuella beslutsfattandet bakom den omfattande arbetsutvandringen från de baltiska staterna samt att diskutera dess socioekonomiska konsekvenser och politiska inverkan Teoretiskt utgör avhandlingen från en modell som syntetiserar social transformation med en utsträckt version av Hirschmans analytiska ramverk för sorti protest och lojalitet De tre empiriska artiklarna som huvudsakligen bygger på semistrukturerade djupintervjuer ligger inom detta ramverk Två av artiklarna syftar till att förklara migranternas beslutsprocess i fråga om stay exit entrance mot bakgrund av de strukturella och institutionella sociala förändringarna som följde av 1) självständighetsförklaringen från Sovjetunionen 1990 2) anslutningen till EU 2004 och 3) den ekonomiska krisen 2008 2009 med följande tstramningar Den tredje artikeln för in de baltiska ländernas eget perspektiv i den bredare stv stliga migrationsdebatten Avhandlingen visar att följdena av den postkommunistiska neoliberala politiken och omvandlingen efter den ekonomiska krisen tillsammans med uppbyggnaden av formella migrationskanaler efter anslutningen till EU bidrar till att skapa olika migrantkategorier Individuella strategier för att aktivt leta efter kanaler för exit och enter kombinera dem på olika sätt och utifrån olika stadier i migrationsprocessen samt etablera informella sociala nätverk bidrar till att rekonstituera vem som kan vara och vem som är en migrant Vidare efter den ekonomiska krisen och de införda tstramningstgrnderna handlar beslutet om att emigrera inte bara om individuella verlevnadsstrategier utan också om individuella uppfattningar om vad som är livskvalitet och inte på engelska ine quality of life liksom strävan efter en bättre livskvalitet för sig själv och sin familj över tid och rum Slutligen som de intervjuade baltiska experterna överens om är EU:s politik för fri rörlighet socialt och ekonomiskt problematiskt även om den officiella baltiska politiken i första hand fokuserar på begärd och nödvändiga diasporamedlemmars engagemang eller återvändande Denna politik har visat sig vara otillräcklig för att ta itu med demografiska och socioekonomiska utmaningar som delvis orsakades av utvandring De strukturella institutionella förhållandena och staternas och migranternas strategier skapar rörlighet som en social norm i länder med framträdande utvandring och bidrar till fortsatt migration både vad gäller prekär arbetskraftsmigranter och aktiva och begärd EU mobila medborgare
