HC 886 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee of Public Accounts,2014-02-14 There is at present around 46 billion of outstanding student loans on the Government's books and this figure is set to rise dramatically to 200 billion by 2042 in 2013 prices By 2042 there will be an estimated 6.5 million borrowers of student loans At the same time estimates for the amount of loans that will not be repaid are also rising and the Government assumes that 35-40% of outstanding loans will never be repaid That is some 16 billion to 18 billion on the current debt of 46 billion and 70 billion to 80 billion on the estimated value of student loans by 2042 The Department for Business Innovation Skills the Department is not doing enough to secure value for money from its collection arrangements The Department is unable to accurately forecast student loan repayments and does not have a sufficient understanding of the likely future cost of non repayment to the taxpayer The Student Loans Company is not doing enough to ensure that it identifies and collects all the repayments due given the substantial size of the financial assets involved and will need to demonstrate value for money from the proposed sale of the student loans book

Education Outcomes Assessment for the Twenty-First Century Peter Hernon,Robert E. Dugan,Candy

Schwartz,2013-05-09 This book discusses recent trends in outcomes assessment examines how state governments are reshaping the national discussion with higher education and explains how libraries must respond to these changes Higher Education Outcomes Assessment for the Twenty first Century focuses on recent developments in outcomes assessment especially from the perspectives of the federal government and state governments as well as foundations concerned about the state of higher education The authors identify the significant changes that these stakeholders call for information that academic librarians and anyone following outcomes assessment need to be aware of and interpret the discussions to identify implications for libraries Building upon the foundation of knowledge presented in the previous two Libraries Unlimited Outcomes Assessment in Higher Education titles this book provides readers with up to date coverage of topics such as the emerging metrics used to define student and institutional success the increased importance of accountability and the need to compare and assess the performance of programs and institutions rather than individual courses and the shift in prioritizing student outcomes over student learning outcomes The authors also spotlight the critical need for libraries to fit their role within the national discussion and suggest ways in which library managers and directors can play a role in redirecting the discussion to their benefit Departments of Labor, and Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies
