The Digital Future of English Simone Murray, 2025-07-18 More than any other academic discipline literary studies is the creation of print culture How then can it thrive in the digital era Early 1990s predictions of the book's imminent demise presented a simplistic either/or choice between the legacy of moribund print and triumphalist digital technology Yet we have grown to experience the two media as complexly interdependent and even complementary Clearly digital does not kill print But literary studies in the digital era cannot simply resume business as usual It is urgently necessary to reconsider the discipline's founding assumptions in light of digital technology The digital era prompts a rethinking of literary studies object of study as well as its methods theories audiences and pedagogical practices What counts as literature necessarily shifts in an age of proliferating born digital texts and do it yourself DIY online publication Where should literary studies sit institutionally and how might it graft contextually oriented social sciences methods onto its traditionally humanistic mode of textual analysis Why should literary study continue to marginalize emotional responses to texts when online communities bond via readerly affect Who is the audience for literary criticism in an age where expertise is routinely challenged yet communication with global book loving publics has never been technologically easier Finally how can we utilize digital tools to rejuvenate literary studies pedagogy and help English staff better connect with millennial age students Literary studies has been convulsed for decades by debates over electronic literature and more recently digitally aided distant reading But these discussions still mostly confine themselves to demarcating our proper object of study We need to think more expansively about digital technology's impact on the

underpinning tenets of the discipline Literary Media Studies is pitched at fellow literary scholars book historians media theorists cultural sociologists digital humanists and those working at the interface of these converging disciplines It models constructive engagement with contemporary digital culture Most importantly it brings a burst of sorely needed optimism to the question of literary studies digital future Writers' & Artists' Yearbook 2026 Bloomsbury Publishing, 2025-07-17 This book is an excellent place to start I love it and hope your copy becomes as dog eared with overuse as many of my old ones did David Cohen This bestselling Writers Artists Yearbook contains a wealth of information on all aspects of writing and becoming a published author plus a comprehensive directory of media contacts Packed with practical tips it includes expert advice from renowned authors and industry insiders on submitting to agents and publishers writing non fiction and fiction across different genres and formats poetry plays broadcast media and illustration marketing and self publishing legal and financial information writing prizes and festivals Revised and updated annually the Yearbook includes thousands of industry contacts and over 80 articles from writers of all forms and genres including award winning novelists poets and playwrights scriptwriters for TV and audio songwriters and comedians If you want to find a literary or illustration agent or publisher would like to self publish or to crowdfund your creative idea then this Yearbook will help you New articles for this year include Foreword by Naomi Alderman Author editor relationships by eljka Maro evic Literary fiction by Rowan Hisayo Buchanan Short story collections by Vanessa Onwuemezi Nature writing by Sophie Pavelle Inclusivity in publishing by Aki Schilz Your debut novel by Jennie Godfrey Getting poetry published by Pascale Petit Being a lyricist by Kathryn Williams Scriptwriting by Robert Taylor Comedy writing by Dave Cohen Characters for TV by Kira Anne Pelican Playwriting by Carmen Marcus Literary agents by Eve White Writer development initiative by Julia Forster BookTok and social media promotion by Rosie Hewlett

Protect Paisley Hope, 2025-12-01 A wildland firefighter reconnects in a second chance romance with his late best friend's sister, the one that got away in the scorching hot second book in the BookTok viral Sky Ridge Hotshots series. Let me be your twin flame love. I walk into the local bar with my hotshot crew, dirty and exhausted, only to slam into my biggest regret: The twin sister of my lost best friend and the one who got away. Violette Taylor. I haven't seen her in years, but I haven't forgotten her either. I used to be Rowan to her. Now I'm just King, the guy who broke her heart, but not for the reasons she thinks. Violette, a nurse and single mom, is back in town for good and working hard to avoid anyone who reminds her of the past, especially a career hotshot like me. But when I fall into her care after an injury lands me in her burn unit, it feels like maybe it's fate. I know something she doesn't: life rarely offers second chances. I need to protect those I love. So if this is my chance to make things right, I'm taking it.
