Networking Arguments:

Networking Arguments Rebecca Dingo, 2012-04-22 Networking Arguments presents an original study on the use and misuse of global institutional rhetoric and the effects of these practices on women particularly in developing countries Using a feminist lens Rebecca Dingo views the complex networks that rhetoric flows through globally and nationally and how it is often reconfigured to work both for and against women and to maintain existing power structures To see how rhetorics travel Dingo deconstructs the central terminology employed by global institutions mainstreaming fitness and empowerment and shows how their meanings shift depending on the contexts in which they are used She studies programs by the World Bank the United Nations and the United States among others to view the original policies then follows the trail of their diffusion and manipulation and the ultimate consequences for individuals To analyze transnational rhetorical processes Dingo builds a theoretical framework by employing concepts of transcoding ideological traffic and interarticulation to uncover the intricacies of power relationships at work within networks She also views transnational capitalism neoliberal economics and neocolonial ideologies as primary determinants of policy and arguments over women's roles in the global economy Networking Arguments offers a new method of feminist rhetorical analysis that allows for an increased understanding of global gender policies and encourages strategies to counteract the negative effects they can create

Networking Argument Carol Winkler, 2019-11-11 This edited volume presents selected works from the 20th Biennial Alta Argumentation Conference sponsored by the National Communication Association and the American Forensics Association and held in 2017 The conference brought together scholars from Europe Asia and North America to engage in intensive conversations about how argument functions in our increasingly networked society The essays discuss four aspects of networked argument Some examine arguments occurring in online networks seeking to both understand and respond more effectively to the acute changes underway in the information age Others focus on offline networks to identify historical and contemporary resources available to advocates in the modern day Still others discuss the value added of including argumentation scholars on interdisciplinary research teams analyzing a diverse range of subjects including science education health law economics history security and media Finally the remainder network argumentation theories explore how the interactions between and among existing theories offer fruitful ground for new insights for the field of argumentation studies The wide range of disciplinary backgrounds and methodological approaches employed in Networking Argument make this volume a unique compilation of perspectives for understanding urgent and sustaining issues facing our society

Learning OpenStack Networking James Denton,2018-08-31 Discover the basics of virtual networking in OpenStack to implement various cloud network architectures Key Features Learn the difference between Open vSwitch and

Linux bridge switching technologies Connect virtual machine instances to virtual networks subnets and ports Implement virtual load balancers firewalls and routers in your network Book Description OpenStack Networking is a pluggable scalable and API driven system to manage physical and virtual networking resources in an OpenStack based cloud Like other core OpenStack components OpenStack Networking can be used by administrators and users to increase the value and maximize the use of existing datacenter resources This third edition of Learning OpenStack Networking walks you through the installation of OpenStack and provides you with a foundation that can be used to build a scalable and production ready OpenStack cloud In the initial chapters you will review the physical network requirements and architectures necessary for an OpenStack environment that provide core cloud functionality Then you ll move through the installation of the new release of OpenStack using packages from the Ubuntu repository An overview of Neutron networking foundational concepts including networks subnets and ports will segue into advanced topics such as security groups distributed virtual routers virtual load balancers and VLAN tagging within instances By the end of this book you will have built a network infrastructure for your cloud using OpenStack Neutron What you will learn Get familiar with Neutron constructs including agents and plugins Build foundational Neutron resources to provide connectivity to instances Work with legacy Neutron routers and troubleshoot traffic through them Explore high availability routing capabilities utilizing Virtual Router Redundancy Protocol VRRP Create and manage load balancers and associated components Manage security groups as a method of securing traffic to and from instances Who this book is for If you are an OpenStack based cloud operator and administrator who is new to Neutron networking and wants to build your very own OpenStack cloud then this book is for you Prior networking experience and a physical server and network infrastructure is recommended to follow along with concepts demonstrated in the book

Argument as Dialogue Across Difference Jennifer Clifton,2016-11-25 In the spirit of models of argument starting with inquiry this book starts with a question What might it mean to teach argument in ways that open up spaces for change changes of mind changes of practice and policy changes in ways of talking and relating The author explores teaching argument in ways that take into account the complexities and pluralities young people face as they attempt to enact local and global citizenship with others who may reasonably disagree The focus is foremost on social action the hard hopeful work of finding productive ways forward in contexts where people need to work together across difference to get something worthwhile done

Entrepreneurship as Networking Tom Elfring,Kim Klyver,Elco van Burg,2021-05-11 Tom Elfring Kim Klyver and Elco van Burg propose a new perspective on entrepreneurship and demonstrate how networking is the core of entrepreneurial action Showing that your networking behavior is equally important to who you already know this book addresses the importance of networking for business venturing

A Responsive Rhetorical Art Elenore Long,2018-10-24 A Responsive Rhetorical Art explores the risk ridden realm of wise if always also fallible rhetorical action the productive knowledge building required to compose and to leverage texts broadly construed for the purposes of public life marked by shrinking public resources cultural conflict and deferred hope Here composition and literacy learning hold an important and distinctive cultural promise the capacity to invent with other people new ways forward in light of their own interests and values and in the face of obstacles that could not have otherwise been predicted Distributed across publicly situated strangers including citizen educators this work engages a persistent challenge of early rhetorical uptake in public life that what might become public and shared is often tacit and contested The book s approach combines attention to local cases with a transnational student organization the Nipmuck Chaubunagungamaug and the South Sudanese diaspora in Phoenix with a revisable guide for taking up wise action and methods for uncovering elusive institutional logics Transnational Advocacy Networks and Human Rights Law Giulia Dondoli, 2019-01-25 This book asks the fundamental question of how new human rights issues emerge in the human rights debate To answer this the book focuses on nongovernmental organizations NGOs and on the case study of LGBTI lesbian gay bisexual transgender and intersex rights The work argues that the way in which NGOs decide their advocacy conceptualise human rights violations and strategically present legal analysis to advance LGBTI human rights shapes the human rights debate To demonstrate this the book analyses three data sets NGO written statements submitted to the United Nations Human Rights Council NGO oral statements delivered during the Universal Periodic Review and 36 semi structured interviews with NGO staff Data are analysed with a combination of quantitative and qualitative approaches to discover what issues are most important for LGBTI networks issue emergence and how these issues are framed issue framing Along with NGO efficiency in lobbying for the emergence of new human rights standards the book inevitably discusses important questions related to NGOs accountability and democratic legitimacy The book thus asks whether the right to marry is important for LGBTI advocates working transnationally because this right is particularly controversial among activists and LGBTI communities especially in non Western contexts Artificial Neural Networks Marat Akhmet, Madina Tleubergenova, Akylbek Zhamanshin, Zakhira Nugayeva, 2024-10-22 Mathematical chaos in neural networks is a powerful tool that reflects the world s complexity and has the potential to uncover the mysteries of the brain s intellectual activity Through this monograph the authors aim to contribute to modern chaos research combining it with the fundamentals of classical dynamical systems and differential equations The readers should be reassured that an in depth understanding of chaos theory is not a prerequisite for working in the area designed by the authors Those interested in the discussion can have a basic understanding of ordinary differential equations and the existence of bounded solutions of quasi linear systems on the real axis Based on the novelties this monograph aims to provide one of the most powerful approaches to studying complexities in neural networks through mathematical methods in differential equations and consequently to create circumstances for a deep comprehension of brain activity and artificial intelligence A large part of the book consists of newly obtained contributions to the theory of recurrent functions Poisson stable and alpha unpredictable solutions and ultra Poincar chaos of quasi linear and strongly nonlinear neural networks such as Hopfield neural networks shunting inhibitory

cellular neural networks inertial neural networks and Cohen Grossberg neural networks The methods and results presented in this book are meant to benefit senior researchers engineers and specialists working in artificial neural networks machine and deep learning computer science quantum computers and applied and pure mathematics This broad applicability underscores the value and relevance of this research area to a large academic community and the potential impact it can have on various fields

Entrepreneurship in Theory and Practice Suna Løwe Nielsen, Kim Klyver, Majbritt Rostgaard Evald, Torben Bager, 2021-03-26 The third edition of this creative and successful textbook provides a broad overview of entrepreneurship from a theoretical and practical perspective Engaging for undergraduates it embeds theories of entrepreneurship with tensions and dilemmas presented as paradoxes for each chapter It offers insights into the entrepreneurial process and challenges readers to assess the paradoxes and pitfalls encountered on an entrepreneurial journey

Computational Models of Argument P. Baroni, T.F. Gordon, T. Scheffler, 2016-09-02 Research into computational models of argument is a rich interdisciplinary field involving the study of natural artificial and theoretical argumentation and requiring openness to interactions with a variety of disciplines ranging from philosophy and cognitive science to formal logic and graph theory The ultimate aim is to support the development of computer based systems able to engage in argumentation related activities either with human users or among themselves This book presents the proceedings of the sixth biennial International Conference on Computational Models of Argument COMMA 2016 held in Potsdam Germany on 12-16 September The aim of the COMMA conferences is to bring together researchers interested in computational models of argument and the representation of argumentation structures in natural language texts with special attention to contributions concerning emerging trends and the development of new connections with other areas The book contains the 25 full papers 17 short papers and 10 demonstration abstracts presented at the conference together with 3 invited talks Subjects covered include abstract bipolar and structured argumentation quantitative approaches and their connections with formalisms like Bayesian networks and fuzzy logic multi agent scenarios algorithms and solvers and mining arguments in text dialogue and social media The book provides an overview of current research and developments in the field of computational models of argument and will be essential reading for all those with an interest in the field

Innovations in Bayesian Networks Dawn E. Holmes, 2008-09-10 Bayesian networks currently provide one of the most rapidly growing areas of research in computer science and statistics In compiling this volume we have brought together contributions from some of the most prestigious researchers in this field Each of the twelve chapters is self contained Both theoreticians and application scientists engineers in the broad area of artificial intelligence will find this volume valuable It also provides a useful sourcebook for Graduate students since it shows the direction of current research
