Postcolonialism: A Guide for the Perplexed Pramod K. Nayar, 2010-10-21 Postcolonialism as a critical approach and pedagogic practice has informed literary and cultural studies since the late 1980s The term is heavily loaded and has come to mean a wide and often bewildering variety of approaches methods politics and ideas Beginning with the historical origins of postcolonial thought in the writings of Gandhi Césaire and Fanon this guide moves on to Edward Said's articulation into a critical approach and finally to postcolonialism's multiple forms in contemporary critical thinking including theorists such as Bhabha, Spivak, Arif Dirlik and Aijaz Ahmed. Written in jargon-free language and illustrated with examples from literary and cultural texts, this book addresses the many concerns, forms and specializations of postcolonialism including gender and sexuality studies, the nation and nationalism, space and place, history and politics. It explains the key ideas, concepts and approaches in what is arguably the most influential and politically edged critical approach in literary and cultural theory today.

An Introduction to New Media and Cybercultures Pramod K. Nayar, 2010-01-11 This introduction to cybercultures provides a cutting-edge and much-needed guide to the rapidly changing world of new media and communication. Considers cyberculture and new media through contemporary race, gender and sexuality studies and postcolonial theory. Offers a clear analysis of some of the most complex issues in cybercultures including identity, network societies, new geographies and connectivity. Includes discussions of gaming, social networking, geography, net democracy, aesthetics, popular internet culture, the body, sexuality and politics. Examines key questions in the political economy, racialization, gendering and governance of cyberculture.

Cinéma&Cie 28 Ilaria A. De Pascalis, 2018-12-14 T00:00:00+01:00 Who is the Subaltern in the current global frame? Has neoliberalism changed the experience of subalternity? How do subalterns write history and what kind of history is written about subalternity? Cinéma&Cie's special issue addresses these and other questions through various theoretical approaches. The essays argue for the importance of a multidisciplinary perspective and address issues of media representation from a variety of perspectives such as visual culture, history, philosophy and postcolonialism. They focus on contemporary subalternity and especially on the migrant characterized by diaspora and condemned to invisibility by hegemonic power and the postcolonial subaltern who has now the possibility to express herself in unexpected ways, in particular by using new media. The scattering and pervasiveness of media devices and gazes is discussed in depth in these essays which delve into the dialectic between subaltern cultures and agency embodied in the subjects of representation.

Geopolitics and the Post-Colonial David Slater, 2008-04-15 With a critical focus on US-Latin American encounters, the book analyses geopolitical issues from a postcolonial perspective. A novel approach to understanding US-Third World relations. Critically considers the genesis of US power. Interweaves ideas and events, interventions and representations. Highlights the contribution of Third World intellectuals.

The Postcolonial World Jyotsna G. Singh, David D. Kim, 2016-10-04 The Postcolonial World presents an overview of the field and extends critical debate in exciting new directions. It provides an important and timely reappraisal of postcolonialism as an aesthetic, political and historical movement and of postcolonial studies as a multidisciplinary, transcultural field. Essays map the terrain of the postcolonial as a global phenomenon at the intersection of several disciplinary inquiries. Framed by an introductory chapter and a concluding essay, the eight sections examine Affective Postcolonial Histories, Postcolonial Desires, Religious Imaginings, Postcolonial Geographies and Spatial Practices, Human Rights and Postcolonial Conflicts, Postcolonial Cultures and Digital Humanities, Ecocritical Inquiries in Postcolonial Studies.

Postcolonialism versus Neoliberalism The Postcolonial World looks afresh at re emerging conditions of postcoloniality in the twenty first century and draws on a wide range of representational strategies cultural practices material forms and affective affiliations The volume is an essential reading for scholars and students of postcolonialism

The 'Problem' of Girls' Education in Postcolonial Pakistan Javed Anwar,2024-10-21 This book charts a comprehensive account of girls education in postcolonial Pakistan and argues that the problem of girls education in rural areas needs to be situated in the construction of knowledge the practice of power relations and the contested processes of truth production Drawing on theories of Foucault s governmentality postcolonialism and feminism the author explores the context of Pakistan as a postcolonial Islamic nation state examines the British colonial legacies of governing institutions discourses of gender and education and development of girls education policy and practices The book contributes to the development of the analytical framework of postcolonial Islamic governmentality and uses the framework to analyse the research data and education policy texts and discourses

New Technologies in Global Societies Peilin Luo, Leopoldina Fortunati, Shanhua Yang, 2006 Technological advancements in the West since the last millennium have contributed to global modernity Technologies set conditions for the closeness of the nation states and for the affinity of the global and the local They are also penetrating everyday life and even sometimes the body producing radical social changes Yet arguing that new technologies bring a new life and a promising future to global societies remains a questionable thesis This book attempts to explore the relationship between new technologies and global societies to gain an understanding of how the positive as well as negative influences of technologies bear on global societies how their practices of use are resisted or re interpreted by these societies and how their social meaning is constituted through the process of negotiation with these societies Part 1 is on science technology culture and the body Part 2 is on new media and generations and Part 3 is on information and communication technologies ICTs and work This book has been selected for coverage in Index to Social Sciences Humanities Proceedings ISSHP ISI Proceedings Index to Social Sciences Humanities Proceedings ISSHP CDROM version ISI Proceedings

Media and The City Chiara Giaccardi, Matteo Tarantino, Simone Tosoni, 2014-07-18 The percentage of people living in cities and the adoption rates of communication technologies continue to grow across the planet Our age has come to be defined as one of urbanism and communication but how are those two intertwined How do they shape each other Where and in which ways do they diverge support or fold into each other As new tensions emerge and old ones find new solutions social sciences are forced into a dialogue with media studies and urban studies in order to make sense of the new reality New theoretical and methodological paradigms are urgently needed and can be produced only through a fertile and eclectic dialogue This volume presents some of the latest research in this exciting cross disciplinary field Issues of conflict mobility crime art memory ethnicity identity and city marketing and branding come under rigorous scrutiny in their mutual and constitutive relationship with urban space and communicative technologies and practices The volume is divided into three broad sections The first section deals with the role of media in the social production of urban space that is with how media interact with other forces in giving shape to the materiality of the city The second section deals with how urban space acts as a context for a variety of media related practices especially in relation to the popularization of mobile geo localization technologies which have given us mass phenomena such as Foursquare The third and final section deals with how urban space is mediated and communicated through ICTs or in other terms how urban space is represented by specific media through specific discursive strategies

Writing the Global City Anthony King, 2016-04-14 Over the last three decades our understanding of the city worldwide has been revolutionized by three innovative theoretical concepts globalisation postcolonialism and a radically contested notion of modernity The idea and even the reality of the city has been extended out of the state and nation and re positioned in the larger global world In this book Anthony King brings together key essays written over this period much of it dominated by debates about the world or global city Challenging assumptions and silences behind these debates King provides largely ignored historical and cultural dimensions to the understanding of world city formation as well as decline Interdisciplinary and comparative the essays address new ways of framing contemporary themes the imperial and colonial origin of contemporary world and global cities actually existing postcolonialisms claims about urban and cultural homogenisation and the role of architecture and built environment in that process Also addressed are arguments about indigenous and exogenous perspectives Eurocentricism ways of framing vernacular architecture and the global historical sociology of building types Wide ranging and accessible Writing the Global City provides essential historical contexts and theoretical frameworks for understanding contemporary urban and architectural debates Extensive bibliographies will make it essential for teaching reference and research

Knowledge Flows in a Global Age John Krige, 2022-09-05 A transnational approach to understanding and analyzing knowledge circulation The contributors to this collection focus on what happens to knowledge and know how at national borders Rather than treating it as flowing like currents across them or diffusing out from center to periphery they stress the human intervention that shapes how knowledge is processed mobilized and repurposed in transnational transactions to serve diverse interests constraints and environments The chapters consider both what knowledge travels and how it travels across borders of varying permeability that impede or facilitate its movement They look closely at a variety of platforms and objects of knowledge from tangible commodities like hybrid wheat seeds penicillin Robusta coffee naval weaponry seed banks satellites and high performance computers to the more conceptual apparatuses of plant phenotype data and statistics Moreover this volume decenters the Global North tracking how knowledge moves along multiple paths across the borders of Mexico India Portugal Guinea Bissau the Soviet Union China Angola Palestine and the West Bank as well as the United States and the United Kingdom An important new work of transnational history this collection recasts the way we understand and analyze knowledge circulation

The Postcolonial Challenge Couze Venn, 2006-01-24 An outstanding contribution to our understanding of postcolonial theory and its engagement with significant changes within the contemporary world Couze Venn forces us to rethink the very parameters of the post colonial and suggests a new political economy for post modern times This critical engagement opens up the possibility to reimagine the world from its current narrow European strictures to a world full of alternative possibilities and modernities This is a timely and ground breaking book that contributes to a much needed reconceptualisation of the postcolony Professor Pal Ahluwalia Goldsmiths University of London What is postcolonial studies What are its achievements strengths and weaknesses This ground breaking book offers an essential guide to one of the most important issues of our time with special emphasis on neo liberalism within world poverty and the third world It clarifies The territory of postcolonial studies How identity and postcolonialism relate The ties between postcolonialism and modernity New perspectives in the light of recent geo political events Potential future developments in the subject

Urban Studies Inside/Out Helga Leitner, Jamie Peck, Eric Sheppard, 2019-10-28 At a time of intense theoretical debates in urban studies the research practices underlying such theories have not received the same attention This original and creative text interrogates the methodological underpinnings of contemporary urban scholarship with reference to different global sites and situations as well as to recent debates around postcolonial planetary and provincialized urban theories Rather than reducing methodological questions to a matter of tools and techniques it unearths the complex connections between theory research design empirical work expositional style and normative ethical commitments Innovatively co produced by faculty and graduate students from a variety of disciplines Urban Studies Inside Out it is comprised of three parts Part I An introduction to the field of urban studies and its changing theories methodological norms and practices Part II Features a collection of methodological essays co authored by graduate students deconstructing the research designs the methodological practices and the modes of presentation and representation across recent urban monographs Part III Consists of informative keyword primers which explicate the key concepts and formulations in the field of urban studies This volume offers a welcome intervention within urban studies and stands to make a valuable contribution for graduate students and researchers The Cambridge World History: Volume 7, Production, Destruction and Connection, 1750-Present, Part 2, Shared Transformations? J. R. McNeill, Kenneth Pomeranz, 2015-04-16 Since 1750 the world has become ever more connected with processes of production and destruction no longer limited by land or water based modes of transport and communication Volume 7 of the Cambridge World History series divided into two books offers a variety of angles of vision on the increasingly interconnected history of humankind The second book questions the extent to which the transformations of the modern world have been shared focusing on social developments such as urbanization migration and changes in family and sexuality cultural connections through religion science music and sport ligaments of globalization including rubber drugs and the automobile and moments of particular importance from the Atlantic Revolutions to 1989 The Oxford Handbook of Global Studies Mark Juergensmeyer, Saskia Sassen, Manfred B. Steger (#d), 2019 Since the end of the Cold War globalization has been reshaping the modern world and an array of new scholarship has risen to make sense of it in its various transnational manifestations including economic social cultural ideological technological environmental and in new communications The chapters discuss various aspects in the field through a broad range of approaches This handbook focuses on global studies more than on the phenomenon of globalization itself although the various aspects of globalization are central to understanding how the field is currently being shaped Globalization: Global membership and participation Roland Robertson, Kathleen E.
